

IND FONTS

“Hello! Is this a bad time?”

Personality Traits. Ind Fonts is silly, harmless, and disarmingly sincere. He remains oblivious that people may treat him differently because of his goblin heritage, and as a result will happily wander wherever his well-worn feet will take him each day.

Ideals. Friends are nice! So are long walks.

Fears. Ind doesn't have the awareness to intuit when something should be scary, but he dislikes yelling.

Quirks. He has an uncanny knack for appearing in dangerous or inopportune situations without knowing what's at stake: often at the risk of his own peril.

Secret. Ind Fonts once signed a book that he assumed was for guest names, but was actually a formal ledger. He feels bad about it to this day.
