

What happened back there?

fuck you.

A digital illustration of two women in a tense conversation. The woman on the left has long dark hair, blue eye makeup, and black lipstick. She is heavily tattooed, with a large, colorful skull tattoo on her left arm and shoulder, and a smaller tattoo on her right shoulder. She is looking towards the woman on the right. The woman on the right has short, bright pink hair and is looking back at the first woman. She has her hand on the first woman's chest. The background consists of dark grey walls and red curtains. A red surface is visible in the bottom left corner.

Back off, thunder tits.

How dare you?

How dare I?

How dare you?

Did you turn that thing off?

I...

no.

SNAP
