

Imagine green Russell Crowe
On a giraffe that flies
Too late I already did it
Did you even try?

Imagine all the people
Imagining so slow
Too bad

Imagine a robot is prime minister
That's just child's play for me
But you're only imagining the stuff after I say it
While I'm ahead to: if blood was Ovaltine?

Imagine all your arteries,
Pulsing milky sweet
Yoohoo!

You may say I'm a genius
And you wouldn't be the only one
I hope someday everyone will think
Of some alternative flavors for human blood

They say a hip hop hippety hop she loves you cuckoo coo kachoo
My rhymes are hip but if ya don't trip they'll teach you a thing or two Dumb dumb diddy corporations sitting pretty
See the suits getting greedy while the streets are getting gritty
Can you blame them? Your hands are dirtier than theirs
No wonder kids need the needle in the middle of the AIDS scare
President proclaiming no hope in dope
it's hard to listen
When gorbachev has reagan on the ropes
Noriega and Quadafi, just want my Mr Coffee
Particle pollution makes my lungs go coughy-coughy
It's nine pm; Do you know where your marines are?
They're back to the future in Doc Brown's car
OHNO can't get up, Yoko please help me
Find the damn remote, switch to my MTV
Everyone seems to think I'm just lazy
But maybe this shit just made the walrus go crazy
If I looked up, might see Lucy in the Sky
But I'm starin at my Nikes cuz – I'm a jealous guy
Nuclear war is such a bore
Nuclear war is such a bore
Change the channel so I can check the superbowl score
Nuclear war is such a bore

Imagine all the world's possessions
Piled up tall in my front yard
I'm guessing You weren't able to do it
And that's why this is my job

Imagine Bugs Bunny in a bikini
Tricked you, that's already been done
Youuuu are a 4

On the Kinsey scale of attraction
Specifically for rabbits
That metric didn't exist til 6 seconds ago
When the world's greatest mind imagined it
