

The Occult Study Scroll

Odd warlocks, cryptic tomes, and cursed relics to find in a warlock's study

Odd Idiarlocks

What fractured psyche studies here?

1. {Yoolleg} A mangle and disease covered owlfolk who cut their own wings off to research the strange science of flight.
2. {Dolavin} A pale-skinned human whose fingers have mutated into tiny tentacles that constantly suction on to things.
3. {Uzora} The manic brain of a once brilliant gnome scientist now carried around on 6 eldritch spider legs.
4. {Gwat} A "hunched" goblin who sews the severed heads of other goblins into their spine to increase their intelligence {these heads are what form their hunch}.
5. {Clasp} A raspy-voiced trefling whose eyes occasionally turn into black holes filled with eldritch beings desperate to escape.
6. {Rharzu} A twitchy lizardfolk who replaces missing scales with bits of wittled bone and uses their own petrified tail as a walking stick.

Cryptic Tomes

Scribed with blood, bound in flesh.

1. {Branded Fangs} A theoretical case for the application of vampirism in ranching.
2. {Manic Diary} A tear-stained diary filled with sketches of an eldritch horror that appears to be crawling off of the pages.
3. {Star Chart} The dated and tracked movements of stars that appear to be getting closer to this world.
4. {Missing Persons} A long list of scratched-out names {all previous assistants}.
5. {Psychic Travel} Anatomical study of how brain alterations [might] open portals.
6. {Mail} A stack of love letters to a dead god

Curged Relics

Things that are better left undisturbed.

1. {Pixie Collection} A pixie corpse pinned to a piece of corkboard. No magics can slow your fall while in possession of it.
2. {Stolen Hat} A crooked witch's cap stitched together with hag hair. Warts spring up from any head that wears it after 1d4 days.
3. {Stone Quill} A pen made from the quill of a cockatrice. Can only write on stone.
4. {Jarred Storm} A small terrarium with a floating castle inside. Opening it unleashes an undead cloud giant sorcerer.
5. {Glaring Necklace} A necklace of threaded eyeballs that never take their gaze off whoever wears it. Makes the wearer particularly easy to scry on.
6. {Jester's Mask} A mischievous jester mask that changes its expression each time you look away from it. Placing it on your face freezes your expression for 2d12 hours.
7. {Boiled Feline} The contorted corpse of a boiled cat. Whoever possesses it always lands on their feet but is attacked without mercy by any cat they encounter.
8. {Last Song} A cannery's skull etched with tiny runes. Screeches like a banshee whenever its beak is opened.
