

Chapter 67 - The mission is complete. +18

Hestia's POV

I didn't know what was happening anymore. I kept touching myself while imagining being in Lili's place. Luan was looking directly at me, but I didn't care.

He has seen me naked before, so it doesn't make a difference. I should show him everything.

As I climaxed, I looked directly at Luan's face while he cummed inside Lili, who was moaning in his strong arms. 'I really wish it was me in her place...'

But I can't do that. I'm a Goddess. I shouldn't do this. Just watching is enough.

My legs felt weak. The floor was wet, and I nearly slipped on the fluids. After a few seconds of listening to my breathing, I finally understood what I had just done.

I masturbated while watching someone else have sex! And I let them see me do it! Even Lili saw me!

Besides, everything is dirty here! I should clean it.

'Come on, work!' But my legs wouldn't cooperate. I stayed sitting on the floor in my fluids, with my breasts exposed, until I quickly covered them. I wonder what Luan is thinking...

I crawled on the floor and peeked into the room.

Contrary to what I had imagined, as soon as Luan cummed inside Lili, he was ready for another round. He went to bed with her and started fucking her hard.

Again, I started feeling aroused, and my pussy tingled, begging for my touch. But I averted my gaze and ignored the loud moans coming from Lili inside the room.

With difficulty, I stood up and quickly looked for something to clean the floor.

I got a bucket with water, soap, and a mop.

I cleaned everything while still hearing the obscene sounds of Luan and Lili having sex. I restrained myself from succumbing to the temptation again and finished cleaning everything properly. I took one last look inside the room before leaving.

This time, Luan was fucking Lili from behind. I had a side view. I could see Lili with her hands on the bed, smiling as she was being penetrated, looking so happy.

Again, I imagined myself in her place.

'But I can't keep thinking about this!'

I grabbed everything and went downstairs. I needed to distract myself with something else. I'll reread Luan's book—that's it!

AHHHHH!! Luan's dick came to my mind again!

I think I'll go out and clear my head for a bit!

Luan's POV

I kept having sex with Lili for a long time, even though I had already completed the mission. I gained a lot of points, but unfortunately, only one skill. The system gives me only one skill per "sex session."

It would be nice if I got a skill every time I made her orgasm, just like I earn points. But I guess that would be too much. I'd have too many skills and get too strong too quickly.

Reasonable limits, God! Otherwise, my life would get boring too fast.

But... I want to get strong quickly to fuck some Goddesses (besides Hestia). I can't wait to get my hands on Freya. It would be amazing! Considering her character, it's going to take some time.

"Lili, are you asleep?"

I was lying next to Lili on the messy bed. She's tired.

I got up from the bed and stretched. Then I went to the bathroom, took a shower, and put on clean clothes.

"I wonder what Hestia is doing now."

I left Lili in my room and went out.

“She cleaned everything, didn’t leave any trace of the mess she made. Hmm?”

There’s a bit of water in my room. That’s the fluid from Hestia’s pussy. I even thought about touching it to smell it, but that would be too weird.

I went downstairs, but I didn’t find Hestia anywhere. I went back up and headed to her room.

Knock! Knock! Knock!

I knocked a few times on the door, but there was no answer.

“Goddess, are you in there?” I asked, but she didn’t respond. Without permission, I opened the door.

I’m really curious about what she might be hiding. I’m sure she’s hiding something.

When I entered her room, a pleasant scent hit my nose. It’s Hestia’s scent. She doesn’t wear perfume but smells sweet and pleasant.

“Everything looks normal.”

Her bed is made, and everything is clean.

“Could she be hiding something around here?” I started rummaging through Hestia’s drawers and wardrobe, but I couldn’t find anything. I guess she isn’t hiding anything.

Disappointed by not finding anything, I decided to leave Hestia’s room.

However, someone opened the door before I could leave.

“Luan? What are you doing here?” Hestia asked. Her face was red, and she seemed panicked. I’m sure she’s hiding something!

“I was looking for you... Hahaha.”

“LIAR! You were looking for something, weren’t you? Were you after my panties?! You pervert!”

“Of course not. I just thought you were hiding something, so I came to check, sorry.”

“Did you find anything?! Answer me! Did you find anything?”

“No, I didn’t find anything.”

“Phew...” Hestia sighed in relief. Did she not realize that she had just made it even more obvious that she was hiding something from me? Well, there’s no point in asking her about it; I’m sure she won’t tell me what it is.

I’ll pretend I don’t know anything and eat something.

“I’m leaving now, sorry for invading your room.”

“It’s okay...” Hestia said softly. Suddenly, she started avoiding my gaze.

She’s embarrassed.

“I’m going out to get something to eat now. I’ll bring something back for you and Lili.”

“All right, thank you.”

I left the mansion a few minutes later.
