

This time around, I want to see the struggle she has manoeuvring around with her absurdly large boobs in various situations, and I'd like to have at least one scene where she gets stuck somewhere temporarily, in which either Jess, Jason, or both help her get unstuck. Potentially in the bathroom when she is getting ready for the date, or even on the date with the car doors being too narrow. I also would like to see a scene where Jess teases Lucy a bit in an "I told you so" sort of way, about Lucy's feelings toward Jason.

Beachballs -> Bean Bags?

Outline:

Coffee shop, class, home, bed, shopping, date in evening(dinner, then movie), trip home

By the end of this chapter, Lucy should be in a relationship with Jason, but also have figured out what is causing her growth.

That should set the story up nicely for the next chapter.
