

Chapter 155 - Date with Tiona and Tione?

I woke up the next day next to Hestia in my bed. Of course, we cleaned the bed before sleeping since it was all dirty. I looked at Hestia sleeping peacefully next to me and stroked her hair.

Her eyes slowly opened.

"Good morning." She said with a small smile. Her eyes were only partially open; she looked tired. Well, I overdid it a little last night... It's expected that she is tired.

"Did you sleep well? I overdid it a little last night."

"Don't worry, yesterday was wonderful." Hestia sat up, and the blanket protecting her body fell, revealing her boobs. She was completely naked.

Her soft white skin made me want to touch her.

"What do you intend to do today? The War game is coming up, and I will go to the dungeon to start getting ready. It's been a while since I've moved my body."

"I think I'll stay home with Lili today. She said she wanted to show me some things."

"I see." I wonder if she will say something about the pregnancy to Hestia. No, I doubt it will be that; she probably wants to talk to Hestia about something else. I will not intrude on that.

"Okay, I'm going to get up now. Do you want me to bring your clothes for you? Your dress is all dirty." Hestia's dress was in the corner of the room. I'll give it to Jessica to wash later.

"I'd appreciate it if you'd do that." Hestia grabbed her boobs and bounced them around as she smiled at me. I giggled and went to her room to get some clothes. Lili was in the room but didn't question me since she knew what happened last night.

Hestia had other sexy dresses similar to what she usually wore, but I decided to get a different outfit.

I got her a pair of pants and a basic white shirt. She usually wouldn't wear pants at home, but I want her to start wearing them. I wouldn't say I like it when she wears an oversized shirt as a dress, and it shows much more of her body than necessary.

"Here you go."

"Hm? Pants? It's been a while since I've worn something like that."

"It looks good on you." I put on a shirt and went downstairs together with Hestia. Bell was no longer home, and Jessica was resting on the couch.

"Good morning, Jessica."

"Good morning~~"

Hestia and I greeted her, and Jessica got up from the couch with a smile. "Good morning. Did you guys sleep well?" She already knew what we had been doing all night. Jessica bumped her elbow into me and gave a smug smile.

"Yes, we slept very well," Hestia said with a red face.

I sighed and sat down at the table. "Could you bring some tea? Jessica."

"The same tea I served that time?"

"Yes, that's right. Has Hestia tried it yet?"

"What?" Hestia didn't seem to know about it.

"It's a new tea that Jessica served me a while ago. It's tasty; you should try it."

"Hmm, I don't like tea very much, but if you find it so tasty, I think I should try it."

Jessica served tea for both of us, and we drank it while we ate a piece of bread with some sweet and quite tasty jam. I noticed that we only had a few options for breakfast; we needed to buy some things.

And after almost an hour at the table talking and eating, I left the house to go towards the dungeon.

Or at least that was my goal. My goal changed when I found Tiona standing before a nearby store.

'It's been a while since I've seen her. I need to know if everything is okay. Besides, I don't want my relationship with the Loki Familia to get bad again.'

####

I approached Tiona and stopped right behind her. I then put my hands in front of her eyes. I thought she would be startled, but in the end, she stood still. "What are you doing, Luan?"

She knew it was me.

"It's been a while since I've seen you; what happened? I thought we would see each other again more often after that day."

We started walking through town next to each other. Tiona was acting like usual and seemed in good spirits. It didn't seem like anything was wrong with her.

"I was busy; nothing much happened. Don't worry about Ais; she's not worried about you anymore."

"I see... that's good. I wanted to talk more with the people in your Familia; they are good people. Especially your sister and Ais. I enjoyed talking to both of them."

"You don't seem to like Bete very much, do you?"

"It's not that I don't like him. It's just that he's a bit too 'prickly.'"

"Oh, I see what you mean. He acts very unpleasant at times, but he's very nice."

"I do not doubt that." I knew Bete. I know he cared a lot about his Familia and friends. "So, what do you think about having a drink? I don't think I'll have another chance to invite you over for a while if I don't do it now."

"Hm... We can go out together today, but only at night. Can I bring my sister with me? You want to talk to her, aren't you? She seems to be a little interested in you, too."

She is probably just suspicious of me, just as Ais was. Tione already likes someone, and she's certainly not interested in me.

"Okay, bring your sister. I look forward to talking to her." We set a meeting place and time.

"Alright, I'll see you later. I would kiss you if we weren't in the middle of the street. We can do that later." Tina said with a red face, and then we said goodbye. She is so cute!

After that, I went to the dungeon and killed some monsters before returning home. Before I knew it, it was time to meet up with Tiona and Tione.
