

Centaur Jaden

Jaden lived his young life in the shadow world, a place where human's would say duel monsters lived. Jaden himself wasn't human he was a centaur...well half...using a shadow charm left behind by his father he is able to shift back and forth. He's come to learn all he can, fighting in the shadow world, he decided it was time to test his skills in the human world. Tier 1

Chap 1

Jaden Yuki, a young centaur who lived in the shadow world. Most humans would say this is the world of Duel Monsters, where the ancients tapped into this world using dark magic. His skills were honed on the battlefield as just as humans could tap into their world, they could tap into the human world. Monsters with higher intelligence battled through dueling, while monsters with lesser intelligence acted as wild beasts.

He wasn't a full centaur, his father was human his mother was a centaur. Because of this with a special shadow charm crafted by his brothers he was able to shift between human and centaur form. Jaden liked dueling, but he didn't like those who ganged up upon the weak.

Centaur's fought with honor, and Jaden had the centaur's pride. He has grown up brave, strong, and smart. His brothers believed he was ready to go to the human world and explore the other side of his blood.

Jaden was making one last run through the territory of the centaurs. Their forest was Jaden's home, has been since the time he could walk. His brothers taught him everything he knew, how to fight, how to hunt, reading, writing, and even dueling history thanks to mystic arts. He gained other skills by passing trials from other monsters.

"Mew Mew," he heard.

"Who's there!?" Jaden calls out, he dashes forward, his hooves striking the ground, letting out a heavy sound. He followed the noise and found a Dandylion all tied up by some strange insect monsters. There were seven of them, and they had poor Dandylion all webbed up he couldn't move or defend himself. "Hey! Leave him alone!" Jaden charged in, he scattered the bugs away with his wooden sword, they spat at him with webbing, he dodged, landing on the ground with such force the earth trembled. It knocked the bugs off their balance giving Jaden the perfect chance to strike. "Hah hah hah hah hah!" he finished the bugs and got Dandylion out of the webbing.

"There you go, all safe!" the creature pounced on him and licked his cheek. "Hehehe, quit it, your welcome," he says. The little monster purrs and nuzzles him. "Do you wanna come with me?" It nods and a glow was shared between them as Dandylion's card appeared. Jaden took it. "Looks like I made a pretty cool friend!"

He returned to the village to find his brothers waiting for him. Some were crying, others were clapping. This was Jaden's going away party in a sense. Jaden has faced many trials in his life and passed them. The older centaurs were drinking and singing. A mighty feast was brought together, and no centaurs were not herbivores, they are omnivores.

Another fun fact about centaurs they are born with 2 cocks, one is the massive cock born onto their horse half, they also have a secondary dick in a sheath hidden where the horse and human half meet. A centaur's body had powerful stomachs, they break down all food and convert it into energy, they didn't produce solid waste, their holes were just for mating.

Centaur's loved to party, even if it was a going away party. The centaur tribe leader raised his glass. "Everyone, our young Jaden will be leaving us to explore the human world, so let's raise our glasses." they did. "To Jaden."

"To Jaden!" they cheered and chugged their drinks, blushes spreading across their cheeks.

"Aww thanks, guys!" he chuckles and drinks his drink. Atonne, a male centaur, blue hair, and blue horse body, he keeps his hair long and in a braid. He stood up and brought over the charm. It was a bracelet with a green gemstone.

"This charm will allow you to take human form, it's powers are infused with the power of nature, use it well." he took it placing it on his right arm.

Balla, a male centaur with red hair and red horse body, he keeps his hair short, and he has dark skin. He stepped up. "Though you leave us, we will always be with you." he offers Jaden his deck. "We've put ourselves in your deck along with gathered the rewards of your trials." Jaden takes his deck and adds Dandylion to it.

"Thank you!" he received a hug from everyone.

Cendrio, a green hair and green body centaur, he is well built strong arms and mighty pecs, he stepped up to Jaden. "When your father left us, he promised to provide you with means of survival on the other side." he handed over a pack to Jaden. Inside was information, some money, and some rations. They told Jaden he could make a living by becoming a duelist, and that he was the perfect age to try and get into Duel Academy. It was a solid plan. 'Everyone, thank you so much, for everything, for raising me, teaching me, I promise I will do you proud.' They march towards the ritual site, they carried torches and horns were sound.

"This isn't goodbye, we'll see each other again, and when we meet I'll be the number one duelist." The other centaurs cheered and Jaden activated his charm. A portal opened up, the centaur approached, taking one last look at his family, before charging forward.

The portal closed behind him. "I wish Jaden could have stayed."

"This is what he wanted, he's half human. The boy will become a marvelous duelist."

"It's safer for him in the human world, now that Jaden has reached the age of maturity, it means she will come looking for him."

"Our best warriors have tried to stop her, but none have returned."

"She will not find him here. Let us pray those two will never meet."

He found himself alone in a park, using his charm he took human form for the first time. He looked himself over, in all his naked glory. "Not bad," it was a little weird walking with only two legs, but he got the hang of it.

Searching his bag he found the address, he looked around, finding the bearings he soon found the small apartment. There was a letter and a key waiting for him, with the landlord. "You must be Yuki's boy, your father doesn't come around much, but he told me you may stop by someday," he says, and hands Jaden the key. "You raised in the jungle or something?"

Jaden was wearing only a loincloth, and let's just say it did little to hide his endowments. "You could say that." Jaden heads up to his room. He goes in and starts to read the letter.

"To my precious son Jaden, I'm sorry I couldn't be with you, but I made a promise to your mother that I would take care of you if you come to this world. I do a lot of traveling but I made sure this place was paid for and ready for you to use. It's all yours, I left some supplies, clothes, and about your lifetime's worth of money in birthdays in an account for you. It was in my travels I stumbled into your mother's world when I returned I wanted to go back and be with you both but knew I had to honor my promise to your mother. Follow the path you want my son, know I both love and support you." Jaden couldn't help the tears that fell from his face, it was his father's words, he could almost hear the man's voice, though it felt like a dream. "Well I know what I want to do, I want to become a duelist!"

His timing couldn't be more perfect, Duel Academy was holding its Entrance Exams soon. First was the written exam, this was more of the qualifier if you failed the written test you weren't even able to take the Dueling Exam. However, if you got the number 1 spot on the written exam, and if you passed the Dueling Exam then you could take a spot in Blue.

The written exam scores were displayed for all to see. A boy named Bastion Misawa didn't even look for his name at the low scoring end. 'Let's see if I made the top spot.' he looked at the high scores board for his name.

His eyes landed on his name, but he didn't have the top spot. 'I'm second!?' he gasps, seeing the 2 by his name. 'Then who's the first?' he checks. 'Jaden Yuki? Who's that?' As Bastion began his search for the boy who bested him.

Another young boy was panicking just trying to find his name. "Oh man, oh man, I hate tests, but please just tell me if I passed." This was Syrus Truesdale, and he had really bad test anxiety. He actually knew a lot of the answers on his test, but as soon as he read the question it seemed to leave his mind, then the pressure built up making it worse.

A hand lands on his shoulder, and he jumps. "Ahhgghh!" he cries out.

"Whoa easy there, are you alright?" Syrus turns and sees Jaden. 'Oh wow!' he blushes seeing Jaden's handsome face, the boy had a calming air about him.

"Oh um," he blushes and nods.

"Having trouble finding your name?"

"My name is Syrus," he says.

"Nice to meet you, I'm Jaden. Now let's see..." Jaden scours the board. "Ah, there you are." Syrus looks and blushes in embarrassment, he was in the bottom ten. 'Oh man, he must think I'm a total loser!'

"See that, you passed!" Jaden says with a smile.

"I get really bad test anxiety, no matter how much I study as soon as it's test time it's like everything I learned flies out of my head."

Jaden ruffles his hair. "Tests can be scary, but you got through it and you passed!" Syrus blushes. "But when that fear wells up inside you, hold onto this." Jaden pulled out a green marble, he gave it a kiss and handed it to Syrus. "It'll draw in all your fear."

Now the marble was nothing special, his dad had a bowl of them in his place. Syrus took the marble and blushes. "And if you need something extra, Jaden leaned down and captured the boy's lips. In seconds Syrus' brain melted.

Chap 2 Duel Exam and Placement

With the written tests finished, it was time to prepare for the practical exam. Duel proctors were assigned to students based on their written scores. Everyone was looking forward to seeing who was gonna duel the boy with the highest score. Most students only got into Obelisk Blue because of connections or going through Duel Prep School, but the student with the highest score if they passed the practical exam they got to join the elite ranks.

Duels began, a boy named Bastion had the duel in the bag, the proctor thought he had Bastion on the ropes, to the point of giving him a multiple choice question. Bastion had his own answer, it cost him some life points but it won him the duel. By using Ring of Destruction on his own monster he was able to destroy his opponent's life points.

Syrus held onto the green marble Jaden had given him. 'Let's do this!' he was actually able to do well during the practical exam. 'I did it, I did it!' he mentally cheered. He thought clearly and didn't panic, and was able to use his cards well. He stared at the little marble and brought a hand to his lips. 'That was my first kiss to.' he thinks, his heart fluttering. 'I hope we'll be able to see each other at Duel Academy.'

Jaden was waiting for his turn to duel, but he was enjoying watching the others. The exams were ordered by the written scores, test decks selected based on the written score. Dr. Crowler was overseeing this exam, and he was the dorm adviser for Obelisk Blue. "Doctor Crowler, we've completed the other exams, all that remains is the student who scored a perfect score on the written test."

"Excellent, I wanted to test this one myself," he says standing up.

"Which test deck shall you be using?" One of the examiners asked.

"Oh I have that covered." he planned on using his own deck for the exam. 'I must test the student myself to see if he's worthy of being in Obelisk Blue.' Getting the top score on the exam was impressive but Crowler didn't let just anyone get to the high status of Obelisk Blue, they were perfection, they were the ultimate class. 'I can't allow some riff-raff to enter, I'll see if he has some talent, if not I'll fail him.' he chuckles. 'Now let's see what this boy has.'

-x-

"Man, when is my duel gonna start?" Jaden frowns. Watching everyone else duel had gotten him all excited.

"You still haven't dueled yet?" Syrus came up to him.

"Nah, guess they wanted to save the best for last," he says with a smile.

"Well, you certainly have confidence." Bastion took a seat near him.

"Thanks, I saw your duel, you might just be the second best duelist here," Jaden tells him, making the stoic male turn.

"Second best then you must be the one that scored a perfect on the written exam?"

"Yep, that's me." Before the talk could continue...

"JADEN YUKI TO THE DUEL AREA, JADEN YUKI TO THE DUEL AREA!" came over the PA system.

"Looks like I'm up, I'll see ya around then."

“Jaden wait...” Syrus wanted to return the good luck charm to him, but Jaden was surprisingly fast.

“I hope your friend duels as good as he says.” Bastion crosses his arms, seeing who he would be dueling against.

“Did you really think we were friends.” Syrus blushed, twiddling his fingers happily. “Wait, why?” he snapped out of his little happy daze.

“Just look who he’s dueling.” Crowler stood ready, with his fancy duel vest. Even Jaden was impressed with the tech, the greatest warrior Centaurs were said to wield great gear, having the power to use it. The kid dueling Crowler gave people some pause of shock, as he didn’t look to be the type to have gotten a perfect score on the written test.

Some of the prep students shared the same thought. ‘Could he have cheated, he doesn’t look too bright.’

“He’s up against Crowler, we’ll see if he’s worthy of Obelisk Blue or not.” Chazz Princeton says.

"I trust you are ready, young scholar?" Crowler asked.

“Yes I am, let us begin, Prepare For Battle!” Jaden calls and draws his cards. The battle cry shocked Crowler.

“How odd, quite let’s duel!” he activated his duel vest.

"The first move shall be mine," Jaden looked at his hand, two monsters, two spells, and a trap, he draws his first turn card and gets another monster. "I summon Centaur #2 Balla!" the red centaur appeared on the field. ATK 1600 "Next I play two cards two end my turn."

‘Not the worst opening move, but since I’m using my own deck he’ll need to do better than that...’ His thought was cut off as a barrage of arrows hit him. “What the?”

“This is Balla’s effect, at the end of each turn he deals 400 points of damage.”

Crowler 3600

"Not bad young scholar but now it's my turn." he draws. "First I activate the spell card Confiscation, by paying 1000 life points I can send one of the cards in your hand to the graveyard."

Crowler 2600

Jaden gasped as his cards became on display. “I see you use the Centaur deck, I’ve heard it bares power equal to the Harpy deck.” Crowler chose the remaining spell card in Jaden’s hand Monster Reborn. “Next I will play two face downs, before playing Heavy Storm!”

“Confiscation and Heavy Storm?” Bastion says, his eyes narrowing.

“What’s wrong?” Syrus asked.

“These are quite the powerful cards, not one you would see in a test deck.” Bastion explains.

“Oh no!”

The spell card released a powerful wind destroying Crowler’s cards. The wind rushed towards Jaden’s side of the field. “Not so fast, I activate Storm Shelter!” one of his own spell cards activated, this one being a quick play. “Since you tried to destroy one or more of my face downs this card activates.”

“Storm Shelter!” the card blocked the effects of Heavy Storm.

“Since you used Heavy Storm specifically I get to use this card’s second effect allowing me to add a spell card from my deck to the field.” a new card appeared on the field.

“You may have protected your cards but my play is still perfect.” the destroyed cards allowed him to summon Wicked Tokens which he used as sacrifices to special summon his boss monster. "Now rise Ancient Gear Golem!" The mecha behemoth appeared on the field. ATK 3000

“I activate my face down, Fairy Shield! For the rest of this turn, neither of our monsters can be destroyed by battle, and all battle damage is reduced to 0.” Crowler grit his teeth. ‘He got me again.’

“I see, so you're a defensive duelist,” he says and calms down. ‘No matter, I can deal with a defensive duelist. I do have my best monster on the field already, and even if he goes into defense mode my monster can still inflict damage. Plus when he attacks he can't activate any of his spells or traps.’

“I’ll end my turn.” Jaden draws.

“My turn, first I summon Centaur #1 Attone.” A blue centaur joined the field, wielding a shield and sword. ATK 1600 “Now that he’s on the field all Earth and Beast Warrior type monsters on the field gain a 400 ATK and DEF boost.”

Attone and Balla ATK 2000

Ancient Gear Golem: 3400

Crowler chuckled. ‘What an airheaded mistake all he did was boost my Golem’s power as well.’

“Next, I play the spell card Pot of Greed!” he draws two cards. Fairy Breath and Nature’s Spear. ‘Alright, everything is in place, now I just gotta hope he takes the bait.’ he sets 1 card face down and ends his turn. Balla’s effect triggers and he blasts Crowler with arrows.

Crowler: 2200

“Amazing, so far Jaden has managed not to take a single bit of damage.” Bastion says. The audience was surprised, had Crowler been using a test deck, the shock wouldn’t be so high but since he was obviously using his own, the deck of an elite spoke so much more.

“Go Jaden you can do it!” Syrus cheered.

“My move,” he draws. He drew his own monster reborn, which was useless as there were no monsters in the graveyard.

“I activate one of my face downs, Fairy Breath!” a green fairy appeared and breathed all over Crowler’s field. “This negates your monster’s effects until the end of the turn.”

‘Another quick play spell?’ he smirked. “I see you are a defensive duelist, but you made one mistake you kept your monsters in attack mode, had you used this effect while switching them to defense you’d have saved your life points. Now my Golem attack!” the golem threw a punch only to have it hit with a barrier.

“Sorry Professor looks like you forgot about my first face down,” he revealed the trap card.

“Draining Shield!” Crowler gasped. It took Ancient Gear Golem’s ATK and added it to his life points.

Jaden: 7400

‘Centaur combat mounts a strong offense to keep your enemy focused, so they don't see your second strategy.’

spell cards and trap cards were like weapons to centaurs. "My monsters are safe, what do you think of that teach?" he expected praise but instead Crowler got mad. Of course, he would, he was being toyed with, his deck was getting bested.

"What do I think?!" he snapped. "What I think is you can play defensively all you want, but you don't have a monster in your deck that can topple my Golem, especially since you boosted his ATK as well with your last move. One way or another I will destroy your centaurs and make them into glue!" Crowler's hand was all but empty, using his best cards to bring out his best monster on his first turn.

"I will topple him!" Jaden declares. He radiated a powerful aura. "You dare mock a centaur's pride, we fight with honor and respect our opponents even in defeat."

"What nonsense, just make your move." he shook his head.

"I will teach you something sensei!" Jaden says and draws. He drew Pot of Honor. "I activate this card Pot of Honor allowing us both to draw 4 cards."

'Four cards what a fool, he's practically handed this duel over to me on a silver platter.' they both draw. Crowler got Lightning Vortex. 'Perfect, now no matter what he does I'll wipe his field away in one go.' he also finally gained some monsters he could actually summon. 'I'll be able to tear his life points apart.' he chuckled.

Jaden's draw... Dandylion, Giant's Hammer, Double Summon, and Centaur # 5 Elaine

He could destroy Crowler's Golem with Giant's Hammer but that wasn't good enough, no he wanted to beat him fair and square. Dandylion appeared to him and agreed with his choice. 'You ready my friend?'

"Mew!" he nodded.

"First I activate the spell card Double Summon, letting me normal summon twice this turn." he summoned Dandylion first, then summoned Centaur #5 Elaine. The blonde centaur appeared on the field, carrying a shield and a small dagger.

Crowler chuckled. "It doesn't matter how many of those pathetic monsters you summon, they still can't beat my Golem."

"Not alone, but together they can!" he plays his the equip spell. "I give Attonne the Equip Spell Nature's Spear!" his sword changed into a powerful spear. "Now for each monster that's on the field he gains 300 ATK!"

"What?!" Crowler gasped.

"You should know Teach, when dueling it's not all about the powerhouse monsters its how you use them in combinations with spells and traps. Isn't that dueling 101?" Crowler grit his teeth. "With three centaur, one Dandylion, and one golem, well that's five." energy from the 5 monsters flowed into the spear and it grew, surging with power.

Attonne ATK 3500

"No way it's stronger than my Golem!"

"Go Attonne!" The centaur charges, jumping high before launching the spear. It pierced through the golem, shattering it to pieces. Crowler gasped as his golem collapsed onto him.

Crowler 2100

"Go get em guys!" Balla and Dandylion charged and dealt the killing blow.

Crowler: 0

'No way, how could I lose, with my own deck!' his frown twisted into a smirk. 'It matters not after all this boy will be joining Obelisk Blue, with his level of skill perhaps I can finally get rid of those slackers...' he chuckled. While Crowler plotted everyone else was stunned silence.

Jaden had won sure, but more than that, he didn't lose a single life point. In truth Jaden's strategy wouldn't have worked if Crowler had taken his time to prepare, had he not wasted Confiscation he could have disrupted Jaden's plan with ease. The duel could have been dragged out, but Crowler instead chose to show off his elite power.

-x-

With that, the results of the practical exam were met with the written exam to decide placement of the students. Outside of the top student, others were placed in Ra Yellow or Slifer Red, but the top student that lucky one got to join the ranks of Obelisk Blue...

To be continued...Chapter 3 Duel Academy Order

Chap 3 Duel Academy Order

The new students were airlifted to Duel Academy. Looking out they stared in wonder at the island that would be there home for the next four years. "Wow, it looks amazing." The island was huge, the academy itself stood proudly at the center. The helicopter landed and the students marched towards the schools. "Single file everyone, you will be receiving your duel academy ideas, along with your uniform for your respective dorm, you will take them and go get changed for the assembly after your assembly you will be given your Student Handbook, don't lose it as you will need it. It has various functions including communication. Lastly, you'll be given your room assignments upon heading to your dorms. Is anyone unclear about these instructions?" Their guide asked.

"No, sir!" Was the resounding call.

"Good, move along." the students collected their items and headed towards the locker rooms. The guys began to strip down, it seems the academy's uniform went down to the underwear. After Jaden stripped things started happening, the locker room smell was filled with a strange aroma. He smelled like an exotic forest. Believe it or not, Centaurs do not smell like a barn, a centaur's sweat glands aren't like a normal human, one of the many things different from a centaur's body to a human.

The scent filled the room, and the boys grew more and more excited. The boys blushed and soon got excited, cocks rising up. All sense of shyness melted away as some boys started fapping right there in the locker room. Jaden removed his underwear and released an even more potent aroma. This drew everyone's attention. "Holy crap!" Now Jaden had their attention and erection.

Naked horny boys swarmed around Jaden. "He's so big!" Jaden's cock was only 16 inches soft. "Guys that strange smell it's coming from him?" some of the boys started sniffing Jaden. "It is him!"

"Oh fuck he smells so good." Jaden blinked and sweatdropped. "Fuck his ass is great too!" some guy pressed against Jaden's backside, hot dogging his ass. "His balls are so huge!" One guy lifted Jaden's leg and began licking the underside, another guy took the opportunity to sniff Jaden's foot. Two other boys went to lick Jaden's other foot.

"Uhh, easy guys!" They should have heeded Jaden's warning, one guy buried his face in Jaden's pit, sniffing and licking and he lost control, cumming all over the ground. 'Oh, crap here we go.' The weaker males started cumming from Jaden's scent alone, one whiff of his crotch pushing them over the edge. A powerful scent-gasm rocked them to the floor, trembling as they came themselves silly. Those that took a taste of Jaden's body soon followed suit, his sweat tasting sweeter than fruit. 'I tried to warn them, only strong males can handle a centaur's musk.'

The other centaur told Jaden, that his father nearly lost his mind when he first came to live in their village. One can get used to a centaur's aroma and others can go completely mad. Thankfully Jaden was able to use his shadow charm to make them forget about his scent. 'Best not start an orgy on my first day.' Clothing an armor could dilute the aroma, so it was best to get dressed.

There were two boys also affected by Jaden's scent but didn't lose themselves. Syrus was on his knees pumping his hard 7-inch dick. One hand pumping his cock, making his balls bounce as the other played with his perky nipple. 'Jaden...' he shivers in delight as his climax hits him. Seeing Jaden's big dick did excite him as did Jaden's plump rear.

Jaden got back to getting dressed, bending over to put on his blue underwear. Syrus pants and moans, finding his release, spilling his seed all over the floor. After cumming, Syrus felt his heart flutter. 'Oh man, oh man!' his body felt warm and yet refreshed. He just jerked off to Jaden! Syrus wasn't the only one, Bastion had caught a whiff of Jaden's scent and felt his heart race.

He heard the commotion with the other boys clamoring over Jaden, upon seeing his big dick Bastion felt his knees buckle and his hole throb. He watched the big man meat sway as Jaden moved. He was brought to his knees and he couldn't stop himself. Bastion brought two fingers to his wanting hole, the twitching entrance opened up for his fingers and let them inside.

Bastion fingered himself, with one hand and pumping his 8 incher with the other. 'What is this feeling, I can't hold back.' from his position he could see Jaden's sexy body and he was fingering and playing with himself out in the open. 'I should stop, I'm gonna get caught!' He pants, scissoring his ass hole open. With a moan, he cums painting the floor with even more seed.

Jaden finishes dressing, dressed all in blue and white, and catches both of them in their naked released state. The two blushed. 'Busted!' the two think, and a wave of fear hits them. Is he gonna be mad? Is he gonna call them disgusting? Is he gonna insult them? No, instead Jaden smiles. "You two are special, I'll be keeping my eye on the two of you." he grabs the naked boys and lifts them up taking them to the shower room. "These guys got too ahead of themselves."

He showed off massive strength carrying the boys of various size with ease and putting them in the showers. "They'll be fine." he turns on the water and washes away the seed. "You better get dressed, we'll be late for the assembly." he heads off.

The two rush and start putting on their clothes, the random Ra and Slifer boys came to, having no memory of what happened. They rush to the assembly. The first years stand together, with the year 2 and 3 duelists up in the stands watching the new meat.

Chancellor Shepard came on the large screen in the room. "Good morning and welcome, my students. I'm Chancellor Sheppard, the headmaster here, and you are the best and brightest young duelists in the world." Jaden looked around excited. "I trust you will work hard and hone your skills here, now please get yourselves settled in at your assigned dorms. I think you will find them quite comfortable-- depending on how you ranked of course." He chuckles.

The students pooled out. Jaden was hanging outside with Syrus outside. "I think I'm gonna love it here," Jaden says, taking in the fresh air.

"Yeah, do you think we can be friends?" Syrus asked. 'Hopefully more than friends,' he thinks.

"What are you talking about Sy, we are friends." he throws an arm around him, the closeness makes Syrus tingle in delight. "I'm looking forward to getting to know you Sy, we got 4 years together."

"Yeah...assuming I don't flunk out." he sulked.

Jaden sighs. "Sy, we gotta work on that confidence of yours," he says. That's when Jaden got an idea, he suddenly grabbed Syrus and pulled him in for a heated kiss. The bluenette blushed as red as his blazer. His gasp allowed Jaden to deepen the kiss, the centaur's tongue slipping onto Sy's mouth and playing with tongue.

The kiss ended and Sy needed to sit down, he couldn't feel his legs. "Wow!" his heart was beating fast. His cock pulsed and throbbed in his tight pants. Jaden cupped his crotch and palmed him.

"I can see how special you are, don't doubt yourself kay?" Syrus just nods, his words locked in his throat at the moment. Jaden sits down next to him. "Looks like I'm in the Obelisk dorm."

Syrus blushes and checks his handbook. "Looks like I'm in the Slifer dorm."

"That's sweet, red is sweet, the color of passion," he says giving Sy a thumbs up. Bastion comes up to the two. "Hey, Bastion what dorm are you in?" he asked.

"I'm in Ra Yellow," he says, showing off his jacket. "Tell me Jaden, you seem to be quite open about nudity and sex, do you have a boyfriend or something?"

"No, just where I'm from we believe that love is not a limited force, sharing love and passion in a group of men, you love and trust and respect there is no greater joy. Sex is meant to be an experience, a good experience, sometimes you have only a temporary partner and other times you may find a mate to stay by your side," he explains.

"That's beautiful," Syrus says.

"Well, you certainly are interesting." Bastion says. "I may be in Ra now, but I will show my skills and reach Obelisk Blue. I hope we can have a duel to see who the number 1 first year is."

"Sounds fun, and maybe you and I can have some fun after the match." his words pierced Bastion's heart, making his cock twitch.

"I uh don't have time for such distractions," he says, but the blush and bulge in his pants give him away.

"You should relax, like in the locker room." Jaden grins, and Bastion's blush grows darker.

"I have to go!" he says and walks off.

"See you around the dorms," he calls, making Bastion stop.

'Does he not know how this academy works? Well, he'll learn.'

-x-

Syrus accompanies Jaden to his room in the Obelisk Blue dorm. It was huge! The place was clean, a large couch, it's own private washroom. The place had a big bed, nice furniture, a large TV, a fancy desk, and a great view. "This place is huge," Syrus bounces on Jaden's bed. "It's so fluffy."

Jaden chuckles. "It's very nice," he looks around. "So this is gonna be my place." he unpacks some of his stuff.

"I wonder if my dorm is anything like this?" Syrus says.

"I can walk you there, let's go." They head out and bump into Chazz and his cronies. The trio glare at Syrus as they pass by.

"What's that slacker doing here?"

"I don't know, but the newbie needs to learn the pecking order," Chazz says glaring at Jaden's back.

Upon arriving at the red dorm, Syrus groans. "It's awful!" Jaden didn't have words. The place was falling apart, the stairs were shaky at best. The place looked run down, the floor was creaky and the floorboards not level. "This is their dorm, I've seen prison cells nicer than this.' Their facility was a joke.

"Ahh you must be Syrus, the Slifer dinner will be starting soon." A tall teacher named Prof. Banner found them. "I'm Prof. Banner the head of this dorm. Who are you?" he asked Jaden.

"I'm Jaden Yuki, nice to meet you." he gives a polite bow. "Syrus was hanging with me, I walked him back."

"How nice of you, but you should run along, the Obelisk Blue dinner will be starting soon."

"Right..." he looked at Syrus. "I'll see ya around."

“Bye Jaden,” Syrus said and was led inside. He goes to put his stuff in his room and runs into a boy named Chumley.

“You think that Obelisk Blue student is your friend?” he laughed.

“He is my friend!” Syrus snaps.

“Not for long he’s not. I came to this school with friends too, but once they went to Ra and Obelisk let’s just say we couldn’t be friends anymore.” They go down to eat their meager meal.

Meanwhile Jaden made it back to the blue dorm, and despite the glorious feast prepared his hunger was soured. “Not hungry?” Chazz comes up to him.

“Not really.” this wasn’t like any party he’d been to before.

“Listen, let me let you in on how things work at duel academy.” he leans in close to Jaden.

“Oh?” he doesn’t back away.

“Yeah, at this school there are three kinds of students, Obelisk, Ra, and Slifer. We are the Obelisk Blues, we are the elites, the best of the best.” At the same time, Chumley was explaining the system to Syrus, telling him how the Blue’s got in either through money or connections, though some are pretty skilled duelists. “The Ra’s are okay, they the closest to us, those with potential to become great.” Chumley explained that Ra’s had the best scores from the duel exam, and had the most potential. “And then there is the trash, the Slifer Red’s, the slackers and weakest duelists here, it’s best not to associate with those beneath you.” Chumley pretty much said the same, calling them the Red Wonders, as in I wonder when these losers are gonna drop out.

“You should ditch that little twerp, you are among the elites now.” Jaden hung his head low, and Chazz thought the boy was gonna see the light.

Chap 4 A Centaur's Pride

Chazz was going on and on about the elites, and how the elites should be with the elites, and he put his hand on Jaden's. He caressed his hand, in a flirtatious way. Jaden pulled back and brought his down on the table. Bam! The table cracked under Jaden's strike, shocking Chazz, the Obelisk blue student falling flat on his ass. "Holy fuck!" the table collapsed.

Jaden's aura flared in his rage. "Who are you to tell me who I can and cannot hang out with?" he grabs Chazz and lifts him up into the air. 'He's so strong!' his feet weren't even touching the ground.

'It is a centaur's pride to never turn their back on a comrade. When we fight we stand together.' Jaden glared at Chazz. "I don't care about the elites, we are all weak once, but if you don't give someone the chance how will they ever grow." he dropped Chazz. "Excuse me!" Some other blue students raced over to help Chazz up.

"What happened Chazz?"

"Nothing," he says. Crowler was wiggling out over the table. Chazz was stunned, Jaden's actions and strength took him completely by surprise. Even a greater a shock, he was rock hard in his pants.

Jaden left the party, angry beyond belief. 'I should have decked the ass, what nerve!' Dandylion appeared and nuzzled against him. "I'll be alright," he flexed his hand. "I need to watch my strength though." he took a deep calming breath. "What nonsense, elite this, elite that. It reminds me of the vampires, they act like their status is the most important, and if a vampire is weak that's all they are." Jaden sighed. 'I need to clear my head.'

He stripped off his clothing and stretched, it felt so nice to be free and naked, only one thing could make this better. So he transformed, returning to his centaur form. Dandylion rode on his back as Jaden ran off into the night. The cool night air and running helped clear his head. "I like Syrus, I don't want to stop being his friend. But what if being friends with me causes him trouble?"

"I mean, I am hiding stuff from him already, how can I ask him to trust me or stand with me when I'm keeping a secret from him." He had his eyes set on both Syrus and Bastion. Dandylion pondered it, then got an idea. He whispered his idea to Jaden. "Hmm, that could work, let's go!"

Jaden rushed towards the Red Dorm.

Syrus was upset, what Chumley told him, he didn't want to believe it. "I'm telling you Syrus, it's true. The weak get left behind." he rolled over in his bed to get some sleep. The bluenette couldn't rest, tears falling down his cheeks. He didn't have many friends growing up, even his own brother was focused on his own future, his own goals. His brother was so strong, and Syrus felt a large gap expanding between them.

He could see the same thing happening to him and Jaden. They were already in different dorms, and their skill level was clearly night and day. The boy sobbed, as his heart ached. 'I thought...I thought...things would be different.' The poor boy cried himself to sleep, clutching the marble Jaden gave him.

Jaden stood outside the Red Dorm. "My friend, go get Syrus for me," he infused Dandylion with his power, allowing him to take form in their world. Dandylion sprang into action going up and unlocking the door. He entered the room and found Sy's bunk, he raced over and pulled back the covers.

He bounced up and down, waking the boy up. "Whoa!" Dandylion rolled back, shaking his head he stood up and brushed himself off. Syrus rubbed his eyes and cleaned his glasses. "No way, I must be dreaming." The monster jumped and yanked out one of Syrus' hairs. "Oww!" he yelped.

Dandylion got out of his bed, it pointed to the door and gestured Syrus to follow. "I must be crazy," he gets out of bed and follows the monster. Dandylion led him out to the woods. "Wait slow down."

"Syrus," Jaden's voice made the boy shiver.

"Jaden? Where are you?" he looked around, but in the dark, he could barely see.

"Syrus, when we met I admit I liked your spirit. You weren't the strongest, you were scared, but you were still willing to try." Jaden's voice seemed to come from everywhere, and yet nowhere at all. Syrus blushed.

"That's because of you and your charm. Without that good luck charm, I never would have..." Jaden chuckled.

"It was just a marble," he could have infused it with magic but he didn't. "It was all you, you have something special in you Sy, I see it, and I like you a lot." Syrus heard something moving. "I don't want this school to separate us, and I want you to trust me that I won't turn my back on you."

Syrus smiled. Hearing Jaden's words made him feel a lot better. "I do trust you Jaden."

"You can't, not yet, you need to see the real me," Jaden stepped out of the shadows, and Syrus gasped. He couldn't believe what he was seeing, Jaden was a centaur! His jaw dropped, 'I hope this was not a mistake.' Jaden thinks as Syrus continued to stare at him.

After a long pause, Syrus approached him. Hesitant he reached out and began to touch Jaden's horse half. "Wow, you are amazing!" he ran his hand over him. "Never in my wildest dreams, you are a real centaur!" he sounded almost excited. "But how can you be human?"

"Well it's partly thanks to this," he showed Syrus his shadow charm. "I'm also part human, which makes it a bit easier."

"Part human?"

"Yeah, my dad entered my homeworld and met my mom, and well you know..." he blushed.

"So who is he?" Syrus asked. "Oh sorry, I probably shouldn't pry."

"Nah, it's cool, I don't really know him, he left me an apartment and some money, but there weren't any pictures in the place. I don't even know what he looks like."

"Sorry," he hung his head and Jaden laughed ruffling his hair.

"It's all cool." Jaden talks about his life with his centaur family, talked about his world, and his past.

"I've had a good life, my dad may not have been there to see it, but I know he cares."

"Well no wonder you don't get scared when dueling, you've actually fought in real combat."

"It's exciting, just like duels. If you want I can help train you."

"What? You will?" he looked down. "Why would you wanna help me?" his brother always said he was weak, his brother's words left a heavy weight on his heart.

"Because I like you Syrus, you don't have to accept training, I'm still gonna like you."

"You will?" Syrus blushed.

"Oh yes," he tilts the boy's chin up and kisses him. The kiss was soft and sweet and made Syrus' heart flutter. When the kiss ended Syrus felt like he was floating on air.

"Say Jaden, in the locker rooms, you said you had your eye on me and Bastion." he blushed, twiddling his fingers.

"That's right, centaurs have a harem-based mating system, due to our unique bodies." Jaden rubbed the back of his head. "We don't sleep around with just anyone, we must feel a spark with that person, and said someone can't be overwhelmed by our scent."

"You do smell really good!" Syrus says blushing, sniffing at Jaden and trembling as his cock hardens in his pajama bottoms. Jaden chuckles.

"Yes, the other part of it is, Centaurs are all born switchers," Syrus blushed. "We liked to get fucked as well as fucking." the words hit Syrus like an explosion. His penis throbbed and began to leak pre. "We also have two cocks." That did it Syrus got a nosebleed. "Sy!"

The boy came to a few minutes later, the first thing he saw was Jaden's face. "Oh man, I had the weirdest dream, you were a centaur, and you said you have two dicks, and that you were a switcher."

"Right, right, and right," Jaden says and Syrus sits up seeing him still in all his centaur glory. "You see a centaur's body is quite unique, our bodies break down all food for energy so our holes exist purely for mating."

"You said you had two dicks, but in your human form you only had one, a really big one!" he says blushing.

"In my human form, my dick gains the benefits of both my cocks in my monster form. Taking a human shape and my balls are quite large." Syrus couldn't help but look seeing Jaden's monstrous centaur cock between his legs and the hefty balls, looking even larger in this form. Syrus gulped feeling his hole clench, some parts terror some parts anticipation.

“How could I take something so large?” he asked out loud.

Jaden chuckled. “Well not as you are now, you need to drink some of my cum first.” He guided Syrus’ hand towards where his human body met his centaur one. “Feel here,” Syrus does and there was a small opening, you couldn’t see it by a glance but Syrus could feel the opening. “This is my sheath it houses my other cock if you drink my cum and your body absorbs it, it will evolve allowing your body to handle my monster cock.”

It sounded crazy, but this has been a crazy night, and he trusted Jaden. The centaur knelt down and gave a bow. “Syrus, on my pride as a member of the centaur race, I am not gonna turn my back on you. Should you seek strength to become strong I shall guide you, should you seek to stand by my side I shall love and protect you, and should you seek to be mine I will do all within my power to make you happy.” Syrus blushed.

He couldn’t help but cry, he was so happy. He embraced Jaden and cried, the brunette smiled and embraced him. “So is that a yes?”

“Oh yes!” Syrus smiled, wiping away his tears.

“How about a night run?” he rubbed the boy’s back.

“I’ve never ridden before.”

“Do you trust me?”

With no hesitation. “Yes,” he says happily.

“Alright, take off your clothes and climb onto my back.” Syrus blushed red, he was still hard as a rock. He took off his pajamas, shaking as the cool night air caressed his heated flesh. He climbed onto Jaden’s back, moaning as his hard cock and balls brushed against him. He took Syrus’ clothes and packed them with his own. Dandylion joined sitting behind Syrus.

Jaden stands up and begins to move. Syrus yelps and clings to Jaden as the centaur gallops away. The wind danced around them, the air caressed Sy’s naked form, his nipples hardened and his penis twitched. He blushed and shivered, the wind was carrying Jaden’s scent to him, and Syrus found himself getting more and more excited.

His body was so warm, Syrus felt like he was melting into him. Even as he ran, Syrus didn’t feel cold, he shivers in pleasure and rocks his hips against Jaden’s back. Jaden smiled feeling him rub his cock and balls against him. He was leaking but it didn’t bother him in the slightest.

Jaden carried Syrus all over the island, the boy getting hotter by the minute. By the time they got back to the red dorm, Syrus came, his seed pelting Jaden’s sexy backside the cum splattering over the wall of muscle. He blushed seeing his cum run down Jaden’s sexy back muscles. “Sorry,” he says.

“Don’t be, did it feel good?” Syrus nodded and hugged him from behind. “This is just a taste of what I want to offer you, there is so much more.” he turned his head and captured Syrus’ lips.

Syrus moans into the kiss, and even though he just came, he finds yet another release. “Wow!” he slides off Jaden his legs feeling like jelly.

“Careful now,” he’s supported by Jaden. The bluenette felt so special, he hadn’t felt like this in so long. He walked Syrus to his door, but he had to revert to human form. “Things won’t be like this forever, it’s gonna be better!” He shared one final goodnight kiss with Syrus and returned his clothes to him. “Good night, sweet dreams.”

“Jaden...” the brunette had turned to walk away but stopped. “I do, I do want to get stronger, will you help me?”

“Of course, tomorrow we can begin.” Syrus smiled and entered his dorm room. He felt like he was walking on air, feeling light as a feather. He got in bed.

Jaden transformed and raced back to his dorm, and though they were apart, this night created something between them. Something that no distance could break or tear.

Chapter 5 Strength of Red

The following day was an interesting one. It was bright and early for Jaden Yuki, and he headed out into the woods. “Oh spirit of the earth, I ask for your blessing.” his charm reacted. He followed the pulse of the earth and found some older trees. “I thank you for your blessing.” he cut down some trees, and used his power to help speed up the trees recovery.

Jaden came over bright and early and he was decked to the nines with wood, hammers, and nails. Taking his centaur form he was able to move the lumber and supplies with ease, returning to human form before he got to work. The red dorm residents were greeted by the pounding of wood and nails. It sure was a shock to see Jaden, an Obelisk Blue, dressed in loose pants and tight shirt. Centaurs were skilled in more than just combat, Jaden had built his own house, made a fence, and made furniture.

So making some repairs to the red dorm was right up his alley. “What’s with all the banging?” Chumley asked rubbing his eyes.

“Jaden!” Syrus cheered happily, rushing over to him. Jaden had worked up a nice sweat, his manly musk, making the small bluenette shiver. “What is all this?”

“Just setting some things right.” He was now working on the run down stairs. “It’s good to see you Syrus.” he hugged the male, and Syrus’ manhood poked against him. The brunette chuckled. The manly musk washed over Syrus, and he felt like he was standing in a vast forest. His cock twitched and throbbed, weeping into his pajama bottoms.

He breathed in the male’s manly musk, trembling in excitement. ‘I feel so hot, I feel like Jaden could take me right now in front of everyone and I wouldn’t mind.’ his hole felt hot and twitchy. Judging from the tents in the other red duelists’ pants they were sharing similar feelings. Being pressed against Jaden he could feel the boy’s muscles, Jaden sure looked toned but the feel was incredible.

“My my, isn’t this nice.” Banner came out. “Good morning Jaden.”

“Good morning to you sir,” he gives a polite bow. “I hope I’m not causing too much trouble?”

“Well it is a bit early, but other than that, are you sure you want to do this?”

“Help out? There isn’t a rule against it is there?”

Banner chuckles. “Not that I’m aware of, the current system was initially a joke Seto Kaiba intended at Yugi after all, but I’m afraid over time it became the norm. This is splendid work!” he exclaims, patting the new stairs Jaden put in. “The craftsmen ship is amazing.”

Jaden blushed. “I’m a pretty good builder.”

“Please, join me for some tea, I’d like to have a chat.”

“I could use a break, mind if Syrus joins me?”

“The more the merrier.” Jaden and Syrus follow Banner into his room, and even his place was run down. He makes some tea, and the other red students head to the dining hall for breakfast.

“Tell me Jaden, what is your impression of Duel Academy?”

“It’s weird, I was so excited to come here, but how everyone acts, everything seems so imbalanced.” Jaden confesses.

“Believe it or not originally all three dorms had equal facilities, though blue was held in higher regards as the elites and the yellow dorm was set up for the most skilled.”

“So what happened?” Jaden sipped some tea.

Banner sighed. “Well the ante rule, was banned from the academy as a way of stronger duelists bullying other students out of their best cards. One rule was established in the academy though, known as a test war. In a test war the dorms challenge each other, in order to partake in a test war, you need at least three to participate but you can have up to five reps. In these duels one dorm can take funding and supplies from another dorm.”

“To the victor go the spoils huh?”

“Yes, sadly the red students became more and more overwhelmed, those that developed their skills went to Ra Yellow, and even Obelisk Blue.”

“Leaving the Red Dorm to fall into disrepair.”

“Fraid so.” Jaden crossed his arms.

“Hmm, but that system still exists yes?”

“It does, but you’ll be hard pressed to find any red students who are willing to take part.”

“Does it have to be only red students?” Banner raised a brow. “If you need a rep, can you get one from another dorm?”

“Well if one was kind enough to volunteer, I don’t see why not.” Banner smirked, and Jaden grinned. “But you’ll need to find some red students to form a team.”

“Me!?” Syrus gasped.

“Of course Sy, I wouldn’t dream of doing this without you,” he says smiling. Syrus blushed. He told Jaden he wanted to get stronger, and Jaden said he would help him do it.

“I’ll do it!” he says.

“Wonderful, now you just need a third.” Jaden gets up.

“I’ll be getting back to work, Syrus do you think you can ask around see if anyone else wants to team up?” he stretches and heads back outside. Jaden finished up on the stairs, floors, and supports. The bluenette had checked with so many red duelists, but while some were certainly interested because of Jaden, most didn’t want to be crushed.

Syrus went to Chumley. “Please Chum, Jaden really wants to help.”

“Yeah, and it’s suspicious.” Chumley grumbled. “You can’t trust an Obelisk Blue!”

“What has you so hurt?”

“I’ve been here two years, I’ve seen it all, there was another guy who wanted to help us Red’s out and it went nowhere. I bet he’s just looking for some piece of ass.” he huffed and rolled over in bed. Syrus frowned. Someone hurt Chumley, somebody in blue. A loud banging could be heard outside. Chumley covered his head with a pillow. “Tell your boyfriend to try and keep it down.”

“You know Chumley, ever think your just as bad looking down on Blue’s before you get to know them, thinking they do the same to you?” Chumley said nothing, and Syrus left the room. He knew Jaden was legit, he told him his secret, he put his trust and faith in him, he could do the same.

Some red duelists were sitting and watching Jaden work, cocks standing at attention, tenting pants a plenty. Syrus could see why. “Oh Wow!” Jaden was shirtless, sun bathing his glistening skin, his muscles flexing as he fixed their roof. Syrus joined the crowd watching the sexy Obelisk Blue work hard and look damn good doing it.

Even Syrus found himself fondling his crotch as he watched the boy work. ‘Oh, I know!’ Syrus went and got Jaden a bottle of water.

“Thanks Sy,” he drinks about half then dumps the rest over his head. The water washes over him like a waterfall hitting a beautiful rock face below. It cascaded down over his muscles, making his sun kissed skin shine even more. Syrus found himself staring, face red and cock hard as a rock! “Sy?” Jaden noticed his staring and smirked. “I think I’m in the mood for a break, care to join me?”

“Uh huh,” he nodded. He was led away from the red dorm, he passes by the horny onlookers, and they jizz themselves silly.

Meanwhile

Breakfast at the Blue Dorm Chazz was missing a certain brunette. “Dr. Crowler, I noticed Jaden isn’t at breakfast.”

“What?!” he gasped. “An elite student shouldn’t be skipping meals, let alone being late to them.” After breakfast classes would be starting. An a tardy student would tarnish Obelisk Blue’s reputation. He went to Jaden’s room, only to find it empty. “Where is that boy?” Something strange was going on and he didn’t like any funny business going on in his dorm.

He went looking for Jaden, but he wasn’t gonna find him. He was safely hidden in the woods, away from any prying eyes.

-x-

Syrus and Jaden had removed their clothes, the bluenette once again becoming a tad intimidated by Jaden’s size. He was already pretty shy about being naked, let alone being naked in front of someone he liked, add that to Jaden’s massive size it really added on the pressure. ‘It’s hard to believe that will go inside me!’ he blushes, his hard 7 incher twitches and begins to leak pre, the thought of having it inside made him so hot. His crotch was pretty soaked already, getting whiffs of Jaden's musk could do that to a guy.

The kiss that came was gentle, melting away Syrus' nervousness. Jaden's hand gripped his length and slowly stroked it. The bluenette was so wound up, he thought he was gonna explode right away. Their kiss grows more and more passionate, as his hand pumps him faster. Syrus couldn't hold back, he moans into Jaden's mouth, as his penis pulses in his hand, exploding all over Jaden's hand and the ground.

He basked in the glow of his release, until he noticed Jaden's erection. "Oh wow!" he didn't think he could get any bigger but the girth and length looked bigger fully erect. His penis twitched, and his hole spasmed at the sight of the massive erection.

"Turn around Sy," Jaden says, and the bluenette obeys.

'Is this happening?' he turns around, trembling in excitement. Jaden moves behind, hands, supporting his smaller frame. Firm yet gentle, as they glide down to his hips. Jaden's cock lines up but not at his hole, between his legs.

"Keep your thighs together." he slides forward, his length slipping between the boy's legs, rubbing along his taint, his balls, his dick and beyond.

"Ohh!" his thighs tighten and squeeze his dick.

"Yes that's excellent!" Jaden began to move faster, loving the friction against the smaller boy. His pubes tickled the boy's ass as he ground his hips against him. Syrus was panting, seeing Jaden's dick and feeling it glide against him made him imagine how it'd look and feel inside him. It made him hornier.

"So hot!" Jaden supported him as his legs threatened to give out. He'd never thought of this, but as the length slid back and forth, he wanted to do it more. Jaden chuckled as he watched the boy's hole twitch in anticipation. Like this, he was able to feel every twitch, every quiver. His size combined the elements of intercrural and frotting.

Pleasure spread through Syrus, washing over him as fast as his pre washed over Jaden's massive dick. "Ahh Jaden, I'm close, I'm gonna cum again!" Jaden's hands came up and began to play with his perky nipples in response sending the bluenette over the edge. His toes curled, and his body tightened as he came, his seed pelting Jaden's penis.

"Now me!" Jaden sped up his thrusts, increasing the friction between them. "Ohhh!" his heavy balls lurched and he came. Not in spurts, his manly essence erupted like a hose that covered Syrus head to toe in his thick man milk. Syrus licked his lips, tasting some of it, and found another orgasm.

He presses forward as he cums, suckling from the tip of Jaden's dick, his rich seed rushes down his throat and fills his belly. "Yes, Sy that's excellent," he pets the boy as he drinks down the last of his orgasm. Centaur semen was highly nutritious, a human could probably live on it if they wanted. The true benefits would come later. After about a week of drinking his cum, he'd be ready to take his cock.

Jaden transformed into his monster form and scooped the cum covered boy up. “Let’s get you cleaned up, we got classes later.” Syrus was in too much of a daze, he looked like a cat who got the canary looking positively pleased with himself.

Crowler had checked the Ra dorm, and no Jaden, so now he was gonna check the red dorm. “What the hell is this!?” Crowler screeched.
