

FORGE WORK ORDER

1 x Magical Mace

Please make the head look like an exploding sun that glows when commanded. Call it Lightbringer.

FIELD REPORT

Signs of raider activity in the region. They have gotten through the Wizards' wards somehow ~ we must ask Mormesk how this could be possible. They could threaten the Mine.

Graham,

I have been informed of your intent to prank me by stealing the eyes of Dumathoin. Do not do this. You have been warned.

Pastor Wallace

Mr. Cromyr,

Ideally the plaque should read:
"This plaque commemorates the signing of the Phandelver Pact" on a copper plate with fancy engraving.

Kind regards,
Assayer Morrison

FIELD REPORT

The entrance is inaccessible.

The booming cavern may be an opportunity to escape, but even the great knight drowned there, so I doubt we will see sunlight without digging our way out.
