

Expanding Horizons: Enchanted

In a small town on the outskirts of a wooded land, a sorcerer busied himself around a room of artifacts and odd-colored concoctions. Neat silver hair tinged with age and experience tickled at his ears. He would need to trim it soon before it became too much of a bother. Around his body drifted a black cloak glowing with the light of a rising night sky. On a table sat a large leather bag faded from centuries of use and repair. It was one of his few possessions he didn't care to use magic to fix. Mutters fell drifted through the air as he ran through his list to pack.

Watching from the sidelines was his apprentice, Minerva. She'd been summoned to the workshop but was yet to be addressed. It wasn't easy talking to him when he was so preoccupied; she didn't dare speak before spoken to. Restless, she played with her flowing sleeves and brushed them against her dress. It matched her master's in fading from purple to black with silver stars dotting the fabric. There was a matching cloak, though it was reserved for special occasions.

Finally he spoke while grabbing several bags of powder. "I'll be back in a few weeks. You are to run the shop, understand?"

Minerva straightened her back. "Yes, Master!"

"Your studies are to be continued in the meantime as well."

Minerva stared at the table. Her master, Akir, had left a mountain of tomes waiting. A wide variety of spells, enchantments, and potions were certain to fill their pages. Manning the shop and keeping pace with her apprenticeship workload was going to be a challenge.

"Minerva?"

She spun back to Akir and sent black hair clinging to her nose. "Sorry! Yes, Master! I'll maintain my studies!"

Narrowing his eyes, he said, "I'm trusting there will be no trouble: no messes, nothing broken, nothing set ablaze. No goblins getting in and wreaking havoc, again."

"When have I ever--"

Catching her question, Akir turned his attention to the corner of the workshop where a pile of broken glass remained from the previous night's potion mixing. He forbade the use of magic in cleaning the mess and Minerva was yet to finish the chore.

She blushed at her clumsiness. "Oh... Right." Minerva didn't want to tell him it probably wouldn't have broken if he hadn't been breathing down her neck with eyes like a hawk. Voicing such an opinion could never be done; Akir was too respectable as a sorcerer to risk losing her apprenticeship.

Akir returned to gathering his belongings. The silver-haired sorcerer had been her master since Minerva showed promise as a sorceress. Since then he'd assumed the role of her guardian and teacher, as was customary for so many other masters and their apprentices. However, not many apprentices could count themselves as lucky as Minerva; harboring latent skills in sorcery was fortuitous in and of itself, but being an apprentice to someone of Akir's caliber was akin to winning the lottery.

Minerva's master was one of five council members of the Sect of Twilight. Together with a network of less-skilled sorcerers, they made up one of two main factions of magic users. Conversely, the Sect of Dawn stood as their counterpart. Conflict was rarely an issue between the two; they differed only in the areas of study. Both possessed combat capabilities, though the Dawn sect excelled at it while the Twilight's devoted studies to the mind and emotion. Akir often reminded Minerva that a Dawn sorcerer would burn an attacking bear to a crisp, but a Twilight sorcerer would make the bear forget what it was doing.

Over the years, Akir had watched Minerva grow into a young woman and an adept sorceress. Her skills blossomed over the years into respectable representations of the trade. Within a few years' time, Minerva was confident she could become a colleague to Akir instead of a student. Reaching his skill level within several decades was laughable.

Akir's council position made for a busy schedule. If he wasn't pouring over old tomes, his presence was required to help resolve more pressing matters. Minerva was yet to see him face a challenge he couldn't overcome. He was as much a role model as he was one of the most powerful sorcerers in the entire country of Ghalrha.

The leather bag was closed matter-of-factly. Donning a hood, Akir approached Minerva. "Keep up your spell practices. There will be an exam on both your incantations and enchantments when I return; I won't tolerate any loss of skill. Don't hesitate to contact me if there's trouble."

Minerva nodded with confidence. "I won't, Master!"

"I'll return in two weeks' time. Don't forget to maintain the protection wards around the shop."

Having said all he wished, Akir took his leave. He exited the workshop into the adjoining storefront where various enchanted items and wares were sold to the general public. A midday summer sun greeted him on the dirt path in front of the building. Watching his twilight cloak wave out of view from a window released a layer of tension.

"He's gone..." she sighed. It was incredible how tense of an atmosphere her master brought into a room. A weight lifted from her chest in the absence of his watchful.

Even with him gone, Minerva knew she couldn't waste time; Akir would have made sure of it. She approached the pile of books and chores with a searching gaze.

"There is it."

On a list of enchantments to prepare was a particularly challenging request: an advanced potion-based enchantment. If done correctly, its consumption would allow the user to stay awake for months on end without the need to sleep. Such a concoction would take weeks to ferment even in the best conditions.

"He's testing me already..." Minerva straightened her dress. Had she not thought to look immediately, she never would have found it in time to finish before his return. "Better get started on it first thing."

Several elements of the enchantment were gathered until Minerva stood at a wooden table worn smooth and dyed over years of use. A large glass bowl would be used to contain the mixture of powders and essences until it was ready to imbue with magical energy. She set to work immediately. However, becoming so engrossed on mixing and carefully studying the recipe, Minerva failed to notice two sly hands reaching around the sides of her body.

“GOTCHA!”

Fingers groped her chest without mercy. Large enough to fill the attacker’s grasp, Minerva’s skin bulged into the soft white ruffles of her dress’s bust. Such soft, thin fabric offered little protection.

“A-Ahh!! Let go!!”

Minerva scrambled out of the clingy palms in a flurry. A bottle was knocked to its side in her haste, though she was fast enough to catch it before it could roll to the stone floor and shatter. The apprentice sorceress’s heart raced at the narrow catch.

“ERIS!!!” she scowled, looking at the intruder with frustration.

A red-haired girl stood grinning. Traditional scholar garb wrapped her body in ruffled whites and tans. A long red braid raced down her back like a streak of fire. Sometimes Minerva questioned why she stayed friends with the scholar for so many years when she continued to bring such unwanted sexual advances.

“Did I scare you??” Eris giggled.

Minerva held the bottle close to her chest; the cushion was sure to be her safest bet after it nearly shattered. “YES!! And you almost cost us the ability to fall asleep ever again!!” The thought of dying a slow death of sleep deprivation while descending into madness wasn’t pleasant.

Eris’s eyes widened. “Oooohhh, dawnroot essence? That’s strong stuff.”

“I know. So don’t grab my chest when it’s out in the open! In fact, just don’t grab me!”

“I was just having fun... It’s hard to ignore them in that outfit.”

Minerva sighed and replaced the bottle on the table, far from the edge and against the backing wall. She had to be careful around her friend; Eris was always handsy and wasn’t ashamed to let it get the better of her. Her attraction to Minerva’s chest started during their sexual maturity when Minerva’s bust saw heavy development while Eris’s saw relatively little. This interest applied to many well-endowed girls when they passed through Eris’s view, though it centered on Minerva the majority of the time. This was not reciprocated by the sorceress, though it did not stop Eris from copping a feel when an opportunity presented itself. Minerva didn’t mind too much when it was in good fun and they were alone.

She pulled her dress up and stared at Eris. “Shouldn’t you be in the library?”

“Not today! Or tomorrow. Or for several months.”

Minerva’s eyes lit up. “That’s right! Your excursion started yesterday! Have you settled on a research topic yet?”

“Noooope.” Eris rocked on her heels in boredom. “And my Master is really hounding me about finding one.”

It was customary for scholars of a certain age to explore the world and contribute to an area of study lacking research. Eris was smart, but Minerva feared her whimsey and go-lucky attitude might jeopardize her chances of advancing in her craft and profession.

Eris looked around the empty workshop. “Where Akir? Out yelled at kids for running too fast?”

“He’s on a trip for the council. It sounded like a member is missing or went rogue. He wouldn’t tell me everything.”

“Wow. My master tells me everything.”

“You’re a scholar. You’re supposed to be learning everything. Like you would on an excursion.”

Eris noticed the hint. “Learning stuff can just get so boring! I feel like we were studying anatomy for years. How many parts can there be in a human body?!”

“Quite a few.” Minerva’s words were short as she tried to focus on her enchantment.

Standing at her side, Eris couldn’t help but stare down Minerva’s dress as she leaned forward. Stirring the bowl sent her chest into swaying motions. Friction against the fabric brought her nipples to points.

Eris snickered. “I did learn something interesting, though! Did you know breasts swell a little when you’re excited?”

Color flushed Minerva’s cheeks. She could immediately feel Eris’s eyes on her. Covering herself, Minerva insisted, “Well mine aren’t if that’s what you’re saying!!”

“Let me check!” Eris stepped towards her with hands outstretched.

“E-Eris! No! I need to work! This is important! Go read a book!”

She crept closer but Minerva’s gaze was overpowering. Waiting for a later chance to strike, Eris occupied herself around the workshop while Minerva cautiously returned to her enchantment. Several minutes passed until she came to a challenging section of the recipe. Her hands grew clammy at the necessity for a rare and volatile ingredient.

A cabinet with a glass door hung along the wall of Akir’s workshop. Containing his most precious substances, he kept the cabinet under magical protection. A wave of Minerva’s hand released it temporarily. The door creaked in warning when it swung upwards.

Stretching her arms up, Minerva should have known better than to enter such a compromising position with Eris prowling the room. Eris watched as Minerva’s nipples came close to rising over her neckline.

“Are you suuuuuure they’re not a little swollen?” Eris teased, stepping behind the sorceress.

Minerva froze with her hands around a wide jar full of dense marrow crystals. She could feel her friend creeping closer. “Eris, don’t! I’m not kidding!”

Hands slithered around Minerva’s exposed chest. Minimum effort was needed to slip the dress off her nipples. “They sure look a little bigger to me!” The pink nubs found themselves pinched between Eris’s fingers.

“Ngh!” Minerva gasped. She didn’t dare move with such a heavy container held aloft. Setting it down in haste could knock over other materials in the cabinet. “A-Aahh!! Eris!!”

“I’m surprised they haven’t torn through your dress! It must be chilly in here...”

Minerva’s legs were weak. If there was one thing Eris knew how to do, it was bringing sanity to the brink with simple pushes of her buttons.

“S-Stop! Really! I can’t drop this!!”

Giggling, Eris released her hold of Minerva’s nipples and stepped away. “I love how flustered you get. Your nipples are so sensitive!”

“No, they’re not!” Minerva lied. “I’m flustered because somebody is groping me while I’m handling dangerous materials!!”

Watching Eris like a hawk, Minerva brought the jar to the table. Her arms ached from holding it aloft for so long. A brief measurement and several scoops gave her enchantment what it needed and she brought the jar back to the cabinet; the sooner it was replaced, the sooner her heart could settle.

GLUB

GLUB GLUB

Eris noticed a concerning sound rising from the glass bowl. Leaning over the table revealed quickening bubbles churning through the mixture. They rose as thick mounds before bursting in anger.

“You added too much,” Eris warned.

Minerva was busy replacing the jar in the cabinet. “Huh?” Concern filled her voice. If Eris was telling her something was amiss, it was good to listen; the scholar was seldom wrong.

“The marrow crystal; you added too much. This recipe doesn’t take that much.”

The jar was quickly pushed into its original position. “Eight measures!” Minerva said with certainty having checked the recipe multiple times, though it wasn’t beyond her to make a mistake when flustered.

Eris shook her head. “Noooo, it’s three measures. Trust me.” She leaned closer to an open book. “See? It says three; the book is just smudged.”

“WHAT?!”

RUUUBBBMMLE

Both girls looked at the bowl when it rattled and growled with bubbles.

“Uh oh.” Eris took a step back. “Minerva...?”

The sorceress knew nothing good would come of this.

“ERIS, GET DOWN!”

One step ahead of her, Eris ducked below the table as the bowl thrashed.

BOOM!!!

A dark purple explosion filled the air alongside a powerful shockwave capable of rattling the windows and mortar. Unable to find cover soon enough, Minerva was thrown several feet back by the force of the blast. Her ears rang until the concussion faded away. Dread gripped her heart when rattling came from overhead. Minerva glanced up and prayed.

An ancient ornately decorated dragon’s tooth teetered on a delicate mount. Hollowed out, it was one of only a handful of materials capable of containing pure dragon’s blood without activating its effects.

“N-No...!”

Minerva squeaked as the tooth tipped over in slow motion. It clattered to its side and broke the seal across its top. Like a waterfall of fate, a column of pearlescent purple goo fell onto the horrified sorceress. It washed a portion of her dress away to expose a nipple brought to immediate attention.

“Ahhh!!”

Minerva was beside herself. There was enough of the substance to leave her chest coated in a thick layer of slime. It heated her skin with its magical properties and reflected candlelight in dream-like waves. She didn't dare move, hoping at any second to wake up from a nightmare. Eris didn't dare look at the scene. Turning away and covering her eyes, she could hardly stand to look at Minerva through her fingers.

Not wanting to hear the answer, Eris asked, “I-Is that--”

Minerva's mouth twitched as she searched for words. “Please tell me I didn't just waste pure dragon's blood...”

She didn't need to be told. Both knew exactly what was running over her breasts and into her cleavage. The empty tooth continued to drip overhead, now empty of its precious contents.

Anxiety raced through Minerva. She cursed fate under her breath.

“Are you all right??” Eris asked, stooping down to help her up.

Minerva shook her head. “NO!! This stuff is worth more than my life!! When Akir finds out, he is going to--NNGH!!!”

Her body trembled. Intense sensations spread through her chest to make every pore and nerve ending sing. Under the dragon’s blood, her breasts seemed to breathe and swell slightly.

“N-Nnngh!!! Ahh!!!”

Minerva rolled onto her hands and knees to clutch at her chest. It burned hot in her grasp and seared with intense sensitivity.

“Minerva??”

“M-My chest!! It’s burning my chest!!!”

Feelings of tightness pulled at her skin. Panting and groaning, Minerva endured the event until it faded away several moments later. She rolled onto her back and collapsed in exhaustion. Not a care was given for her skewed dress or the scene on display.

“Minerva...?” Eris whispered. The dragon’s blood was gone without a trace to leave her chest bare and smooth. The scholar looked on in worry. “It... It absorbed into you... Dear goddess, are you all right?!”

She stared at the stone ceiling in dismay. Bleary-eyed, Minerva whimpered, “Does it matter?? My life is over when Akir returns!!”

(. Y .) (. Y .) (. Y .) (. Y .) (. Y .)

The mess from the explosion was cleaned in relative silence. Though Minerva showed little concern for what effects the dragon’s blood might have on her body, Eris was intent on keeping an eye on her friend. After removing any evidence and hiding the emptied dragon’s tooth, the two girls left the shop to be greeted by setting twilight. The cool air brought a sense of peace on their way to the local tavern. It was rowdy and smoke-filled from charred meats, though neither felt like enjoying the atmosphere.

“You’ll feel better after some mead,” Eris suggested upon bringing two small flagons to their table in a corner.

Minerva sat quietly staring into the drink. “I’m dead... My apprenticeship is over... Do you know how hard it is to get dragon’s blood? That was passed down in Akir’s family for centuries! It’s the universal material! It can be used as a substitution for any ingredient or element! It’s priceless! And I dumped it down my dress!”

Her friend shrugged. “Maybe he should have locked it up or something.”

“He did!! And I’m the only other person he trusted with the security spell!!”

Eris couldn’t speak much to the magic supposedly protecting such a precious item. Looking at Minerva’s chest pushing against her dress, she confessed, “I’m more surprised your body absorbed such a volatile material without any side effects. Are you sure you're feeling fine? Maybe I should take a look at--"

"No, you cannot examine my breasts."

"I'm serious! Dragon's blood is so rare, there haven't been many opportunities to study its effects on humans! Scholars would lock you up if they knew, just so they could see what will happen!"

"Thanks, Eris... Now I won't just lose my apprenticeship and probably have my magic stripped away, but there is a rare substance in my body doing who knows what! I feel so much better."

They sipped their mead in contemplation until Minerva spoke. "I have to replace it."

"Come again?"

"I have to replace the dragon's blood before Akir returns."

Eris's boisterous laughter garnered attention from the surrounding tavern patrons. Minerva did not share in her amusement.

"I'm not joking," Minerva promised. "Either I somehow replace it, or I lose everything I've worked for. I'll likely end up a peasant after Akir is done with me."

"I don't know, being a peasant still sounds better than dying! You can't get dragon's blood! Do you know how rare dragons are?! Not to mention how many teeth there will be if you manage to find one!" Eris drank more mead. "I think you're overreacting. Akir isn't going to banish you or something."

Minerva shook her head. "You don't know him like I do. You've never seen him truly angry. Losing something like dragon's blood is the same as a king losing his wealth. He treasured that blood among all else."

"Maybe she should have kept it in a more secure cabinet then," Eris mumbled.

Minerva put her head in her hands. "I'll be cast out of the Sect. My entire life has been devoted to becoming a sorceress. I'll have nothing if I lose that."

"You're barely nineteen." Eris watched some of the patrons roughhousing then asked, "Wait, you're not actually serious, are you?"

Minerva nodded and finished her drink. A slight buzz had turned her cheeks pink. "I don't have a choice."

Eris thought momentarily. "Fine. Then I'm coming with you."

"What?!"

"Think about it! It's perfect for my excursion! We'll travel Ghalrha and learn about dragons and their habitats! If we even see one, I mean. Plus I can't let you go alone; you'll never survive! You've got the magic and I'll bring the brains."

"Eris, I can't let you--"

"I'm coming whether you want me to or not."

Minerva stared at the redhead. She could try arguing, but when Eris wanted something, there wasn't much you could do to stop her short of using a length of rope and a large rock or sturdy pole. Given such a daunting task, Minerva found some relief to have the company.

"Fine..." she sighed. "Welcome aboard the Doom Wagon!"

Eris laughed. "Hear that, dragon?? We're coming for your blood!"

"We also have only two weeks."

"TWO WEEKS?! We'll barely make it out of town before we have to turn back!"

"Akir said he would be back in a few weeks. If I die trying, it's still better than having to face his wrath."

Eris groaned. "We'll need to teleport to pull something like that off."

"I'm a sorceress, not a miracle worker. We're going to have to go by foot."

Two weeks wasn't nearly long enough time to find a dragon, let alone fill Eris's excursion requirement. She jumped up to approach the bar. "We better get some more mead then... All this talk about finding a dragon just to get roasted alive is making me thirsty."

"EEP!" Minerva jumped in her seat and straightened in her chair.

Eris thought nothing of it until she returned with two sloshing flagons and found Minerva doubled over with her arms wrapped around her chest.

"Minerva...? Is something wrong? Thirsty?"

"N-Nngh!!"

Minerva's breath was quick and labored. Over the roaring tavern, Eris thought she could hear gurgles coming from the sorceress' body.

"Nnngh!!! Ohhhhh goddess, my chest!!"

Eris sprang into action. Setting the flagons on the table, she approached her friend. "Is it the dragon's blood?! What's wrong??"

"I...I don't know!" Minerva moaned and hugged her breasts tighter. They felt full and round against her arms and pushed back with minds of their own. "My chest feels...nnngh!!...s-so tight!!"

Minerva leaned back and rested her head against the wall with closed eyes. Against her arms pushed two full mounds of pale flesh rising like dough. Eris's eyes bulged watching the globes swell larger and strain Minerva's dress.

"What's...What's going on...??" Minerva moaned. Forcing her eyes open, she rolled her gaze down. "OH GODDESS!!"

Cleavage filled her vision. Fearful, she dropped her arms from the heaving masses and let them fall naturally. Usually ruffled and loose, the front of her dress stretched smooth against their rounded shapes and accentuated two thick nubs.

"E-Eris?? What's happening to my chest?!"

Skin rose and bulged around her shoulder straps. Heaping into a shelf, it wouldn't take much before the melon-sized mammaries sprang free. Several eyes were upon her from around the tavern. Watching the girl grow out of her dress was the best entertainment they'd seen all night.

POP!

POP!

"A-Augh!!!" Minerva cried out when her nipples found freedom. Wiggling from the release, they sent bolts of energy through her body and moistened her thighs.

Eris stared intently at the fleshy quivering nozzles. She knew their appearance from anatomical studies and recognized the pale veins appearing along Minerva's chest as it continued to engorge. Swallowing against a dry mouth, she began to say, "M-Minerva... I think they're filling up with--"

SPLUUURRRRTCH!

"AAAAHH!!!"

Minerva arched her back when milk sprayed from her chest and pattered over the table. The scholar stared wide-eyed at the breasts dwarfing her head.

"They're so hot!!! Goddess, they feel SO FULL!!!" She stared at the fluid spraying from her body. "Is that MILK?! W-Where is it coming from?! Eris, what's happening to me?!"

(.Y.) (.Y.) (.Y.) (.Y.) (.Y.)

Minerva stumbled out of the tavern with the support of Eris's shoulder.

Entertained hollers followed them until the doors closed, saying, "Hey, where ya goin'?? I'm thirsty for more after that show!!"

GUURRRGLE

"N-Nngh!! Ohhh they're getting bigger!!!" Minerva leaned forward from the weight of her chest. Like watermelons, they hung to her belly button.

"We'll get you out of here!" Eris insisted. "Then we'll figure out what's happening to you! It's probably the dragon's blood!"

"You think?!"

GUURRRGLE

They made it through several back alleys before Minerva's legs grew heavy. Sloshing came from her chest as it swung in her arm. Anyone could have followed the trail of milk to find its swollen source.

"I...I don't think I can keep going..." she moaned. "Eris they're too heavy!"

Slipping from the shoulder, Minerva stumbled to a nearby barrel and leaned on it for support. Her chest hung off her like swollen fruits. Her only hope, Minerva looked to Eris. "I-I think you're going to have to milk me!"

Eris stammered. "I don't know how to--"

"You grew up on a farm, didn't you?? You milked cows with your mom!! You told me so!!!"

“That was years ago!! And an udder is different than--” Eris stared at the engorging massed. “Different than those...”

GUUURRRGLE

“N-Nnngh!! Aahhh, Eris, please!! They’re getting really heavy!! If I go down, I’m not getting back up!!”

Eris’s hands twitched. They wanted nothing more than to grab onto the sausage-thick nipples and pull. She feared it may make it worse, however. “Can’t you do some kind of magic?!”

“I can barely talk!!” Minerva glared. “You’re grabbing my chest day in and day out, and NOW you’re hesitant?! Eris, I’m begging you!! MILK ME BEFORE THEY GET ANY BIGGER!!”

“All right!!” Eris’s heart raced as she stepped behind Minerva. She couldn’t believe herself as she reached around and pressed her hands into her soft flesh. “L-Like this?”

GUURRRRGLE

“I don’t care how you do it!! Just get this milk out of me!!”

Leaning into Minerva’s rear, Eris reached down and sank her arms into the sides of her chest until her hands found the dribbling pink mounds.

“MMNNGH!!!! C-Careful!”

“I’m doing my best!! You’re not exactly a cow!!”

“Well I feel like one!!”

With gallons of milk swirling against her arms, Eris squeezed and pulled both nipples.

SPLLLUURRCH

“A-AUGH!! MMNGH!!!”

Milk cut into the dirt below in thick streams. The sensations made Minerva tremble in Eris’s embrace. “K-Keep...going!!”

Eris began pulling in rhythmic alternating motions.

SPLLLUURRCH

SPLLLUURRCH

SPLLLUURRCH

SPLLLUURRCH

“MMMM!!! I can barely stand all the swelling!! My chest feels ready to erupt!!”

Eris agreed. Based on her experience with dairy cows who had gone too long without being milked, Minerva’s chest was in much the same state.

SPLLLUURRCH

SPLLLUURRCH

SPLLLUURRCH

SPLLLUURRCH

“AAAHHH!!!”

Minerva's thighs rubbed together in pleasure. Such a thing only drove Eris to quicken her pace and strengthen her grip. This caused Minerva to tense and buck in uncontrollable pleasure as she was drained like a child's plaything.

"Aahh!! MMNGH!!! E-ERIS!!! C-Careful!!! You're going to make me--AAHH!!!!!"

SPLLLUURRRCH!!!

Milk gushed from Minerva's chest in creamy waterfalls while her body convulsed.

"Augh!!! M-M-MmmnghhaahhhhHHHHH!!!"

An orgasmic scream echoed through the alley along with a torrent of steaming milk. Eris was awed by the feeling of Minerva's breasts shrinking within her grasp. Dairy poured from their forms until they fit in her palms as naturally as ever, leaving the girls hunched over each other in a sexual display of sweat and gasping breaths. It took several seconds for Eris to release Minerva's chest from her grasp, unwilling to let go of its timed rises and falls with Minerva's breaths.

"Thank you... Eris..." Minerva panted. "For a minute, I didn't think I was going to be able to walk anymore..."

Eris stood back and looked at her hands. Milk dripped from her fingers to make her mouth water. Before Minerva could see, Eris licked one of them clean. Honey sweetness filled her mouth from the thick cream. It was all she could do to stifle a moan while licking her lips.

Drained of energy, Minerva slumped against a wall to the ground. She could fix her dress later; right now, she had to catch her breath. Such sexual sensations had only been experienced alone at night in her chambers, and even they could not compare to what she'd just shared with Eris, who came to sit next to her in a puddle of milk.

It took a moment for either of them to address the event.

"Thanks for...uh...that," Minerva whispered.

Eris nodded, not wanting to admit she wished it had gone on longer. "Anytime..."

Minerva glanced down at her chest and saw it uncovered. Smooth, milk-covered skin reflected the dim light around them. "Ah!" She quickly righted her dress, thankful it retained enough stretch to cover her chest. "You were just going to let me hang out of my dress like that, weren't you?"

Eris giggled at the accurate accusation. "I certainly wasn't going to say anything."

Minerva cupped herself. "I wonder what happened... I've never felt anything like that."

"I have a theory..." Eris chewed on her lip.

"Well don't leave me in the dark."

"I-I think the dragon's blood fused with your breasts... Since it's capable of becoming any required substance, I think it's caused your chest to do the same... In its own way."

Minerva blinked. "You're insane."

"Think about it! In the tavern I said I was thir--" Eris caught herself. "I said I wanted more mead, and you started lactating! Then when I said it again, it accelerated! It happened again" when we left and someone called after us! I needed something to drink, so it provided it! I wonder what else it could cause your breasts to do...”

Frowning, Minerva considered the idea. It sounded ludicrous, though dragon’s blood was known for its fantastical properties of transformation. “I don’t want to believe it... But I also don’t have any evidence against it...”

“We could test it? Maybe if I say I’m thir--Mmph!”

Minerva clamped a hand over Eris’s mouth. “Even if it sounds crazy, I would rather not find out that it’s true right after I just released several gallons of milk.”

Eris nodded in understanding to earn her mouth’s freedom. “So considering what the blood has possibly done to you... Are you still planning on trying to find a dragon, get its blood, and bring it back all before Akir returns?”

She sighed. “I don’t think I have a choice. Why? Are you still planning on joining me?”

Eris glanced at Minerva’s chest. Given what the blood had already caused, and the countless other possibilities it could lead to, there was no other answer she could have given. “Are you kidding me? Of course I’m coming! This could be big!”

(.Y.) (.Y.) (.Y.) (.Y.) (.Y.)

Minerva and Eris head out on their quest unaware they are being followed by someone else from town who is intent on learning about (and enjoying Minerva's) condition.

“Mmmmm...”

Minerva rolled over in bed. A shifting weight helped pull her to the side before anchoring her in place.

“M-Mmm... Hmmm?”

Drowsy and still making her way back from dreamland, the young sorceress opened her eyes. Two curves of pale skin filled her view. Hugged between her arms like a child’s stuffed plaything, Minerva awoke to find two enlarged breasts squished in her grasp.

“No! No not again!”

Panic was quick to overtake her after the previous night’s events. Remembering the gallons of milk released from her bust, she quickly grabbed her nipples to help stop any leakage before too big of a mess was made. She found none, although there was an ocean of warmth radiating from the bulbous mounds.

“Ooohhhh... O-Ooohhhh that’s kind of...nice...”

Minerva allowed her heart to slow. Finding such massive assets pinning her down was concerning, but the incredible warmth was intoxicating. Blushing and feeling her nipples puff into her palms, she hugged them closer. Cleavage welled into her face with a milky sweet scent. It was almost enough to lull her back into a half-lucid state.

“I was shivering a lot last night...” she whispered. “Maybe they grew so big to help keep me wa--”

WHOOSH!!!

“KNOCK KNOCK!!”

“AHHH!!!”

A sudden opening of her chamber door brought Minerva’s pulse back to a racing speed. Eris waltzed into the room wearing her scholar uniform with a modest bag slung over one shoulder.

“I’m ready to go!” Eris announced, “Let’s get a move on before--”

The scholar glanced down at her friend. Between Minerva’s naked body exposed due to skewed bedding and the ripened melons overflowing her hugging arms, Eris found herself feeling especially lively.

“Whoa!” she giggled, catching Minerva’s blushing face hiding in her cleavage. “Having a little fun with your new curse I see!” Stepping closer, she teased, “Or maybe it’s become more of a blessing?”

“E-ERIS!!!” Minerva squeaked in embarrassment. Flurrying hands tried to reclaim her covers as well as some modesty, but that meant revealing her erect, betraying nipples. “Get out!!! How did you manage to get in the shop?!”

“A troublemaker never reveals her secrets,” Eris hummed. Her attention did not stray from the swollen mammaries for long. “Goddess, look at them! I’ve heard men wake up a little swollen, but I didn’t think women did!”

Minerva continued struggling for cover and the ability to sit up. “They did this while I slept! I think I was cold and they were trying to keep me warm...”

“Interesting.” Eris hummed and sat on the edge of the bed while taking mental notes. “You know, you wouldn’t get so cold at night if you didn’t sleep naked.”

“It feels more comfortable!!!”

“No need to tell me!” Reaching out, Eris prodded a breast. “I certainly won’t argue with the results.”

Several awkward moments passed of Eris sending her friend’s chest wobbling in her arms.

“U-Uh... Eris...?” Minerva squeaked from her cleavage.

“Hmm?”

“Can I get dressed please?”

After gaining some privacy to wake up and greet the morning, Minerva found her chest receding back to its regular size. The ample handfuls, once considered an annoying feature on her petite body, now felt small and manageable after her several bouts of growth. Minerva was glad to see them return and fit lovingly in her bodice.

“Are you dressed yet??” Eris moaned, rushing back into the room without warning.

“Almost...”

Minerva stood turned to her side in front of a small mirror. A dull purple glow enveloped her index finger as she ran it down a seam on her dress. Stitches pulled together like tiny snakes to mend the garment.

“I didn’t even notice the tears last night,” she admitted. “I honestly can’t believe they grew so big that my dress blew a seam.”

“Dragon’s blood is an odd substance! You’re probably lucky it didn’t melt a hole through your chest.”

The idea made Minerva shiver and she thought it best to keep her friend’s mental images locked away and change the subject. Allowing the flow of magic to cease and proceeding to inspect her work, Minerva informed, “I managed to buy us passage in the merchant caravan leaving town today. It departs by noon with or without us. I offered them minor magic services as well in exchange for coin, so we’ll make money as we travel with them.”

Eris groaned and slumped against a wall. “A merchant caravan?? Are you serious?? You’re a sorceress! Just teleport us to where we need to go!”

“Oh! Of course, why didn’t I think of that?” Minerva gently smacked the side of her head. “You should have told me you knew where we could find a dragon!”

Eris grew quiet. “I-I don’t...”

“Oh. Well then maybe you have a big enough focusing crystal so I can direct our teleportation?”

“Well... No... But Akir surely has one lying around your sho--”

“No.” Minerva’s voice was stern. “I’m already in the hole with one priceless magical item; I’m not using another just to dig myself deeper.”

Eris huffed. “Fine, we’ll travel with the smelly merchants.”

A boost to morale was needed. They hadn’t left the shop and already Minerva could sense Eris’s will weakening. “Come on, I need my trusty scholar! Who else is going to keep me on the right track? I certainly don’t know where we would find a dragon! But I bet you do.”

The scholar perked up. “Actually, the most recent legends reference sightings in the Snowlands...! But even those originated several hundred years ago.”

“You do realize it’s going to take months just to get there by hitchhiking caravans, right?”

“We’ll figure it out as we go. Maybe we can buy some horses along the way; I could only afford us passage and general supplies. We’ll need to buy weapons at some point as well. We can’t expect to harvest dragon’s blood with our bare hands.”

“Technically, dragons’ mouth constantly secrete small amounts of blood to mix into their saliva to give it its acidic qualities. So we don’t necessarily have to stab it.”

Minerva rolled her eyes. “Either way, we can’t do it with our bare hands. We could consider hiring a knight or another sorcerer to help us, but that would cost a fortune.”

Eris flashed a sly smile and stared at Minerva's chest. The plunging cleavage and gentle wobbling shelf it supplied for her black hair were mesmerizing now that she knew its latent potential for swelling. "I have one or two ideas how we could raise the coin for our jour--"

"NO."

Eris kicked at the floor. "You're not fun..."

(. Y .) (. Y .)

"Board for departure!!"

A booming voice alerted the merchant caravan of its imminent leave of Athria. It would be the first time in many years that Minerva would travel outside the town without her master at her side. The butterflies in her stomach didn't help quell the constant fear of her chest swelling out of control.

She and Eris approached one of several wagons. It was fairly lack-luster and carried only bags of spices and several piles of furs. Their seat would be at the back, as the driver insisted his dog stay seated at the front.

"I don't see why we have to ride on this cart..." Eris mumbled, jumping from the ground to a small wooden platform. Her legs hung off the end and swung a foot above the dirt. Scanning the two dozen other carts, she wished she could have been inside one of the larger carriages with an arching canvas cover. They looked to be piled high with goods.

"Because those were either full or have families in them!" Minerva informed. Her jump onto the cart made the wheels creak.

Eris tried to get comfortable. "My back already hurts and we haven't even left yet."

"It's just for a little while. We'll figure something else out as we go." Minerva glanced around the bustling town. Half of the men passing by were taking extra effort to inspect her and her front. "I feel like people are staring at me," she whispered timidly.

Eris snorted. "Well after the show you put on at the tavern last night, I'm not surprised! I'll bet every guy in town has heard about the girl and her magical overflowing bosom!"

"Nngh..." Minerva whimpered and tried to shrink into her seat. It was a relief to feel the cart lurch forward.

"So we're really doing this?"

Nodding, Minerva watched Athria dwindle around them. It wouldn't be long before civilization was out of sight. "I guess we are..."

The dirt road was well-traveled but far from smooth. Rocks and holes dotted its surface in an array of obstacles. Creaking wood and dust assaulted the girls' senses nonstop, though the biggest annoyance was the constant jolting. Every bump sent an uprising motion through the cart and its occupants.

"Y-You're staring at them," Minerva whispered while trying to pull up her dress without drawing too much attention from the cart driver behind them.

Eris didn't blink. "Do you expect me not to stare? I'm concerned you're going to get a black eye."

A sigh passed from her tired lips. "I just wish yesterday never happened. It was one little mistake. Now my breasts have a mind of their own, I'm probably going to lose my apprenticeship, and I can't even go to bed without waking up pinned to the mattress."

"It's not all bad!" Eris chirped.

"What makes--whoa!--you say that??" Minerva shrieked when the cart took an especially heavy lurch.

"We get to have our own little adventure! Maybe one day they'll write a story about us: Eris and the Swollen Breasts."

Minerva groaned in annoyance. "At least one of us is having fun. Listen, I barely slept last night. I'm going to close my eyes for a little bit and hope this is all a bad dream."

"You're going to sleep already?? You just woke up! How can you possibly--"

A glowing finger placed itself against Minerva's head as she muttered magical words under her breath. It left her eyes heavy seconds later.

"Oh, like that," Eris said.

"Wake me up if you see a dragon bleeding out on the side of the road..."

"Mhm!"

With her traveling companion asleep, Eris's attention was given fully to the slow-passing environment. The caravan moved with considerable speed for its number of carts, however there was also a significant amount of noise from other passengers. The families were the loudest among the bunch, accustomed to a life of loud surroundings and having to raise their voice. Listening to their familial difficulties and watching the road pass under her dangling feet could only entertain Eris for so long before her eyes wandered.

The cart behind theirs was one of the few scenes available: a large canvas-covered wagon rattling with crates and dry good. Its driver had zoned out for the long trek ahead.

"Huh?"

Eris blinked into the darkness behind the driver. A shadowy outline moved against the blackness as if it had taken notice of her glance.

"That was strange..." she hummed, trying to find the figure once more against the inky background. None revealed itself. "Maybe it was just a--"

"Waaaahhhhhh!!!"

Like a shriek of a banshee, an infant's cry rang out from several carts ahead. Eris couldn't see the vehicle, but she could hear it clear as a bell over the crunching dirt and gravel.

Eris groaned and pounded her head against the back of the cart. "There's always one..."

"Waaahhh!!!"

"N-Nnngh..."

A grunt from Minerva caused Eris's ears to perk and the shadow to reappear in the cart behind them. Eris noticed a glint reflect from where one of the shadow's eyes would have been.

“Waaahhh!!!”

“Nnngh!” Minerva squirmed in her sleep. Leaning against the frame of the cart, her body was victim to every bounce and turn. Tight, pale cleavage rose to reflect the sun like pearls.

“Sharise,” a tired father said from the baby’s cart, “He’s hungry again...”

“Mmmgh...!” Clenching her hands into fists, Minerva grabbed her dress. Eris couldn’t imagine the dream unfolding within her friend’s mind, but she was glad she was conscious to watch the show. Hearing the babe’s cries, Minerva’s breasts were engorging with milk at a rapid pace. Already they had stretched her dress into a taut surface. The pink of her nipples shown through the fabric as fluid leaked free.

“Uh oh,” Eris whispered.

CREEAK!!

SLOOOSH

“Mmmm!!”

A particularly heavy lurch from the cart sent Minerva’s plump globes back and forth. Even the cart driver behind them was awake for the show. Shaking and jiggling with their creamy contents, the head-sized breasts neared the tipping point in what the dress could handle.

“WAAHHH!!!” The baby cried louder than ever for its mother’s milk.

“I’m so tired, Damien...” The mother complained. “Can’t you get him to sleep?”

“Don’t you think I’m trying?”

“WAAHHH!!!”

Minerva’s mouth trembled in a sleepy cry of heat. “A-Ahh!!”

Oblivious to the rest of the world, Eris stared at her friend’s bust. Ounces of milk poured into her flesh every second to bloat her breasts full and heavy. Minerva’s dress couldn’t contain such weight. Somehow they appeared even fuller and more firm than the previous night.

CREEEAAAK!

SPLUURTCH!!

“M-MMM!!” Minerva whimpered and pulled at her dress again. The smallest amount of stimulation was enough to draw milk from her swollen nipples. Dripping from her overstretched dress, it covered her breasts in a thin layer of cream as they rose from the neckline. Plump nipples sprang into view to leak milk down her front.

“WAAHHH!!!”

“O-Oh my,” Eris squeaked. At this rate, Minerva was going to be so top heavy she would fall out the back of the cart, but Eris didn’t dare draw attention to her friend’s chest. Their journey would be difficult enough without rumors swirling around them. Staring ahead, Eris blushed and pretended the massive amount of lactation wasn’t occurring. If the situation called for it she would save Minerva from falling forward. Curiosity still made her look at the heaping cleavage from the corner of her eye.

“W-WAAHHH!! WAAA--”

The baby stopped suddenly and the entire caravan heaved with a sigh of relief. The mother had given in.

“Mmmmm...” With no more auditory stimulation, Minerva’s breasts swelled one final inch before settling. Milk flowed free, but it was no longer being replaced. In time they would empty onto her lap and the road below. Eris hoped it would all dry before she awoke.

“This might be a long tip,” the scholar sighed.

Ahead of them, she heard the mother groan from lack of sleep. “Drink up, ye greedy bastard.”

(. Y .) (. Y .)

Twilight arrived as the merchant caravan reached the edge of a small forest. Under the leader’s direction, they were to make camp for the night. Carts were arranged in a large circle big enough to encompass the entirety of the group with plenty of room to spare between various cliques. Eris and Minerva were happy to find a suitable place on the outskirts of the circle away from everyone else.

“Are you sure you want to be this far away from the group?” Eris asked while laying out her bedding.

“It’s better than waking up surrounded by strangers wondering why my chest ballooned during the night because I was cold. I can’t trust my own body to stay in its clothes!” Minerva wiped the front of her dress. “I’m going to have to wash this soon, too! It feels so dirty...”

Eris gulped; Minerva had awoken long after her milk had dried up, though the residue remained. “Yea, I tried to warn you, but you were totally asleep! You should have seen the size of the mud puddle we hit.”

“I’ll have to be more careful about--”

“Hello! Ms. Sorceress! We’re in need of your services!” a cart driver called from the center of the circle.

Eris watched Minerva leave to light several campfires. It had already been a day and their adventure felt insurmountable given the time available. Finishing her bedding, she wondered how they could possibly find a dragon before Akir returned home.

“Your friend seems nice.”

“Huh?”

Eris glanced up at the odd greeting. Nearby, too nearby for comfort, an older man was setting up his own bedding by the side of a cart. A bushy white beard reminded Eris of a dwarf’s, but a metal eye resting in an otherwise empty eye socket told of a different profession. It reflected various campfires with strange dancing colors.

“Never seen a sorceress cast magic like that, much less on herself,” he continued.

Eris took a step back. “O-Oh... It wasn’t magic... She has a condition...”

“A condition, you say?”

“Yea... A...uh...a cow cursed her.” The story felt ridiculous, but was the only explanation to come to mind.

A grin spread over the man’s face, causing his cheek to bulge unnaturally over his fake eye. “Interesting. That explains her extreme swelling and leaking bosom.”

“R-Right!” Eris laughed weakly.

“So odd it would coincide with the child’s cry for hunger.”

Eris did not have a quick answer for this. Instead, she grabbed hers and Minerva’s bedding and pulled them away. “Well, i-it was nice meeting you! I hope you have a safe trip.”

The man stood in place while Eris withdrew. “And the same to you and your lactating companion.”

Eris continued dragging their beds until gaining a sense of privacy and security. Minerva returned some time later to immediately grab her water-skin and guzzle half its volume after finding a seat on a stump. “I can’t believe how thirsty I am after a day of napping. All that dust must have gotten to me!”

“I-It was pretty dusty!” Eris didn’t dare tell her it was likely because her body produced so much milk.

“Why did you move our bed? I thought we had a good spot!” she asked, wiping her mouth.

“We have a better view of the stars over here!” Eris lied. “Plus it should be quieter.”

“Hmm... If you say so.” Minerva sat on her stump with weary weight and drank the remainder of her water. Fluid leaked down her chin to dribble into her cleavage with refreshing sensation.

At first Eris watched only out of interest in the water droplet’s path, but as she stared, she noticed movement within Minerva’s breasts. Every parched gulp of water raised her chest up and down with motion, though it fell less and less each time. Soft sloshing came from within her dress and Eris gulped; her friend’s bust was filling out as if it were a pair of bloated water-skins. So much moving fluid made her mouth dry.

“Gahhh...!” Minerva gasped for air. “I don’t know what’s wrong with me! Aside from the obvious...” Groaning and leaning back on one arm, Minerva placed the other under her breasts and said softly, “Goddess they feel heavy tonight... Am I lactating again?”

Eris couldn’t find the right words and had to swallow several times after watching the swelling unfold. She wasn’t sure which she enjoyed more: the milk, or the water. “U-Uh... Minerva?”

“Hmm?” she asked through a mouthful of water.

“I...” Eris leaned in and whispered, “I-I think you’re retaining water.”

Not understanding at first, Minerva followed Eris’s gaze to her breasts.

“HMM?!?”

Minerva's eyes bulged wide and excess water puffed her cheeks in surprise. Swollen and firm, her breasts jutted from her torso with sloshing water weight. Fluid plumped her skin into mostly spherical forms. Against her forearm and a nervous prodding finger, she found their surfaces cool to the touch. Droplets of condensation peppered her exposed skin in the night air. Barely hidden by her dress, her nipples were tight and waterlogged like sponges stuffed to the brim. She gulped and felt her skin tingle at the fresh fluid.

"DEAR GODDESS!!" Minerva shrieked.

The camp went silent and all stared in their direction. Across the way, Eris could feel a metal eye watching them with creeping intent.

Lowering her voice, Minerva dismayed. "I can't believe this! No wonder I'm so thirsty; it's all going to my breasts!"

"M-Maybe they're just helping store it for later?? The dragon's blood does what's needed!"

Embarrassed, Minerva pulled her knees to her chest. "Well I didn't ask them to. This dragon's blood doesn't have the faintest idea of what I need."

"Want me to help suck some of it ou--"

"NO."

They fell silent watched the merchants gather around their campfires. It was an oddly calming scene, watching so many workers and families go about their lives as night settled around them.

"Mamaaaa! I'm hungry!"

GUUURRRRGLE

"Eep!"

Their eyes shot to Minerva's chest to see it bulge against her knees.

"E-Eris?" Minerva stammered, feeling milky pressures rising.

"Move the beds further away?"

"A-And maybe I'll cast a small silence spell around us for the next hour until everyone is asleep... Just to be safe."

Struggling to carry her chest without letting it fall out of her dress, Minerva led Eris to their third bedding location for the night. They couldn't have been further away from the merchants without leaving the safety of the cart circle. In time, as the fires died down, so too did the laughter and merriment. Stars came out to play while the caravan slept.

Eris, ever watchful and curious, stayed awake to observe Minerva in her sleep. Observing her swelling transformations firsthand was the best way to understand their nature. Enjoying a full view of the pale, swollen moons rising with Minerva's breath was just a bonus.

She looked around after some time. The rest of the camp was blissfully asleep save for two watchmen. Across the circle she noticed an empty bed, though couldn't be sure if it belonged to the stranger with a metal eye. As a precaution, she inched her bed directly next to Minerva's. The heat of her breasts radiated soothingly in the night air and she stared at the towering mounds with child-like wonder.

“Well... Maybe just one poke...”

Silent and heart pounded, Eris extending a finger and sank it into Minerva's side.

“Mmmm!”

A sudden moan startled her into withdrawing. They wobbled from the force of her prodding until settling down. A nipple stood ready to pop free into the moonlight.

“Wow...” Eris awed. “I bet they feel incredible.”

Combined with the rounded view, the night air, and Minerva's radiating heat, Eris's eyes grew heavy. Soon she too was whisked away under the sounds of the merchants' magically muffled snoring.

(.Y.) (.Y.) (.Y.) (.Y.) (.Y.)

The spell of silence works both ways. Eris and Minerva only realize the danger of this when they wake in the night to find themselves tied up and unable to be heard when they call for help.

“Minerva... Minerva, please wake up!! Please!”

A frightened voice called the sorceress from her dreams. Rousing and sore from sleeping with only a thin layer of bedding between her and the ground, Minerva groaned and opened her eyes.

An immediate lack of mobility gave her heart a jump start. Tight bonds coiled around her body and limbs, binding her together like a puppet tangled in its own strings. Her vision focused in the dark night to see Eris sitting on her bedding in a similar situation. Several large spiders with crystalline bodies reflected the moonlight as they wandered over her body maintaining her bonds. The same magical creatures could be felt crawling over Minerva's body. Their tiny legs pricked her skin.

“Mmph?!?”

A scream tried to escape her throat but a gag blocked its path. Now frightened and beyond confused, Minerva squirmed to sit up. A gleaming metallic eye met her gaze set in a weathered man's eye socket. It glowed with a gentle blue light and his beard reeked of old mead.

“Mmph!?”

“Nice of you to join us,” the man greeted with a grin lacking several teeth. The state of his visage told Minerva he'd been through several challenging ordeals. Whether or not he had been on the right side of these ordeals was yet to be determined.

“H-Hey snuck up on me!” Eris cried. “I couldn't hear him coming! By the time I woke up, the spiders already had their webs around us!”

Bowing slightly as if it somehow made up for taking them hostage, the stranger introduced himself. “You may call me Kalzar. I’m what you may call a man for hire... I have a proposition for you.”

“MMPPH!!!” Minerva struggled to break free, much to the stranger’s delight.

Eris screamed at the slumbering merchants. “Help!! Help us!!”

None were roused. Kalzar laughed in amusement. “They can’t hear you. No more than you can hear them.” Pointing at Minerva, he explained, “You’ve got a talent for sorcery! Your enchantments need a little work, though, I’m afraid.” He tapped the side of his head to indicate towards his metal eye. “I could see right away that your little sphere of silence worked both ways. No sound is coming in, and no sound is going out.”

Minerva’s eyes widened with fright at her amateur mistake. Akir would berate her if he knew.

“N-Nngh!! MMMPH!!” The spider silk dug around her abdomen and shoulders. The more she struggled, the harder the crystal spiders worked to keep her bound. Beady red eyes glowed atop their bodies.

Kalzar insisted, “Struggle all you want! Those spiders know how to make a strong web. Keeping a few of those on hand is far easier than carrying rope everywhere I go.”

“What do you want?!” Eris’s words came out fast and panicked. Silver moonlight shone brightly in her eyes.

“Just a taste!”

“Mmph??” Immediately Minerva turned her head towards the man. There were only so many things such a statement could have referred to.

Kalzar knelt in front of Minerva. Aged eyes stared at her breasts and made her shiver. She wished her dress covered more of her torso. “I’ve heard all about your cow-cursed bust... That’s quite the unique talent.”

She didn’t like the way he ogled her chest and licked his lips. Flinging her gaze to Eris, Minerva silently demanded answers.

“H-Hey saw them swell up on the ride here!” the redhead explained. Upon seeing Minerva’s eyes widen in further confusion, Eris remembered she’d been asleep while her breasts engorged.

Kalzar’s foot scraped across the gravel as he leaned in closer to her chest. Jolting back, Minerva tried to put distance between her chest and his face. Anger was overpowering her fear now. She required the use of her voice to cast any kind of magic in retaliation, however. Feeling the gag block her tongue only fueled her frustration.

“How does the curse work...?” Kalzar asked. Tingles spread over Minerva’s chest as if she could feel his eyes inspecting every curve and valley. Trying to turn herself away only caused her breasts to wobble between their bonds.

“I apologize for the gag. I’m aware you can’t answer,” Kalzar said calmly. “I would let you speak, but I can’t have you casting any spells.” He turned to Eris. “Would your friend like to give me any hints?”

Eris didn’t need to watch Minerva shake her head rapidly to answer. “Sard off!!”

Kalzar shrugged. “Very well. I have no qualms with a little experimentation.” He leaned close as if to touch Minerva.

“M-Mmph...”

The man stared in thought and recalled his observations. “You were sleeping when it happened... Though if that were the trigger, they would have engorged during your rest tonight.”

Sweating, Minerva prayed he wouldn’t reach what seemed like an obvious conclusion. If her breasts fell victim to extreme lactation while her hands were tied, she wasn’t sure she could handle it. The spiders’ binds alone already skewed her dress to the point of risking exposure.

“It can’t be environmental, like the sun, otherwise you would have dressed for it...” Kalzar’s eyes sparkled. “It’s something out of your control, isn’t it? Something you can’t adequately prepare for.”

Minerva whimpered and shook her head.

“I seem to recall a particularly loud infant crying during your previous swelling. Am I right in assuming your milk flows on a per-need basis?”

“Mph!! Mmph!” Minerva shook her head vehemently. She was seconds away from her breasts bloating with cream.

“Hmmm...” Kalzar watched Minerva’s chest rise and fall with nervous breaths. Intrigued, he whispered, “I’m parched.”

GUUUURRGLE

“Mmmngh!!!”

Minerva clenched her hands and writhed when her breasts flourished with energy. Deep within them, milk surged at ounces per second. Prominent growth pushed her chest larger until it filled her bodice.

“S-Stop it!” Eris pleaded. “Minerva!”

“I’m incredibly thirsty.”

GUUUUUURRGLE

“M-Mmmngh!!!” Feeling milk push against her skin was a more tantalizing sensation than Minerva could bear. Looking down through watery eyes, she saw her breasts rising off her frame like globes. The spider binds accentuated them into plump spheres with little room for deviation. Tight pink areolas rose into view as her dress threatened to release its contents.

Kalzar chuckled in amusement at the ripening melons weighing his prisoner down. “I’m craving milk so much I can’t stand it!”

GUUUUUURRRRRRGLE!!!!

“MMMMMMGH!!!”

Minerva's chest engorged with minds of their own. Far surpassing the size of her head, they stood firm and tight in the constraints of her dress. The white fabric trembled and pulled into her milk flesh.

SPLUUURTCH!!!

"M-Mmmngh!!"

Finally they broke free. Released to the full force of gravity, Minerva's bust fell against her body with sloshing smacks. The jolt sent shockwaves through her heaving mounds with enough energy to stimulate her milk into spraying from aching nipples. Directly in front of them, Kalzar's face was doused in the warm dairy.

"Ha!" he laughed, gazing upon Minerva's exposed magically altered treasures.

"Glorious! More!! I'm SO THIRSTY!!"

GRRRROOOOAAAAAAN

Her breasts saw no limit in pleasing the man's feigned desires. Swelling massive and full, Minerva's body was dominated by the pale mounds. They stood wider than her torso and inched closer to her lap. Several bands of spider silk pulled into the top and bottom of her breasts as they expanded in all directions.

"Stop it!" Eris yelled again. "You're making her produce too much!!"

Gasping for air through her gag, Minerva raged at her forced growth. Given her titanic size, she felt as though her nipples were ready to gush at any moment. Going through such forced sexual sensations in front of her capture was humiliating. This man had the power to drive her chest to worrisome sizes and she was powerless to do anything about it. She ground her teeth against the gag in anger.

"Amazing..." Kalzar ogled. Reaching out, he cupped a large watermelon udder in both hands. They squeezed together to indent Minerva's soft skin, pressurizing her milk within. "They're simply magnificent. So plump and full!! Seeing them inflate to such a size... It's a sight to behold!!" He squeezed again, causing her areola to dome outward.

SQQUULLCH

"M-M-Mmmngh...!! Mmmph...!"

"Sorry, my dear. I've come too far not to indulge myself." Kalzar cupped a hand under a puffy nipple. His finger and thumb were rough against her sensitive skin when he pinched the fleshy nozzle and pulled, urging milk to flow.

"Mmmph!!!"

Dairy filled his hand in seconds until it overflowed onto Minerva's thighs below. Bringing his hand to his mouth, he slurped under the furious gaze of the sorceress. Kalzar's metal eye illuminated at the taste.

"My dear!" he exclaimed. "This is the furthest thing from a curse I've ever seen!" Kalzar licked his lips and hand clean. "Yes, the prince will be most satisfied with this... You'll fulfill the queen's wishes and then some!"

Minerva stared in confusion as he rose to his feet.

“How would you like a job? My benefactors would compensate you handsomely for such a wealth of rich dairy.”

“Mro phroof prophelp.” The sorceress cursed through her gag while staring daggers. She was violated and taken advantage of. Her milk was among the most intimate things she had to give and this man had taken it without a passing thought. As her chest swayed with her angry breaths, she ignored the leaking milk running down her body and soaking her dress. The spiders raced around her body. Their bindings pulled into her milky udders, squeezing their contents and helping support their weight.

Kalzar’s smile did not falter. “I can see the proposition does not immediately pique your interest. No matter; you’ll come to like the idea on our way to his fallen majesty.” He approached Eris. “I’m afraid I’ll have to dispose of your friend first. There’s only room for so much cargo, you see.”

“W-Wait!! STOP!!!” Eris kicked at the ground when he approached with outstretched hands. “MINERVA!!!”

Distress overcame the girls when Kalzar took Eris by her bindings and attempted to lift her from the ground. Minerva could do nothing but struggle to rise. If Eris were taken into the dark woods next to the camp, she knew she’d never see her friend again.

“Don’t let him take me!! I DON’T WANT TO--” Eris stopped. As her accomplice struggled, she watched Minerva’s milk soak into her restraints. They grayed at its touch, the spiders struggling to keep pace with repairs. An idea flashed across her mind and Eris yelled. “I’m thirsty too!!!”

“MMPH?!”

“Hmm?”

Both were shocked at the scholar’s sudden statement.

GUUURRRGLE

“I need barrels and barrels of milk!!!” she yelled, dangling in the air from Kalzar’s hand. “I’m so thirsty I could drain a herd of cows!!!”

GUUUUURRRRRRGLE

“M-MMPH!!!” Confused, Minerva questioned her friend’s intentions with saucer eyes. The pressure building in her chest was immense. Their size bloated and tightened her skin. Milk flowed over their curves and down her body, turning her bindings dull gray. Threads snapped and frayed. Suspended in a small cradle of rope, her chest jutted from her frame.

“What are you doing, girl??” Kalzar demanded. “I need her small enough to manage!”

“GODDESS, I’M THIRSTY!!! I JUST WISH I HAD AN OCEAN OF MILK!!!”

GUUUURRRRRRRRGLE!!!!

“MMGGPH!!!”

Minerva couldn’t take it anymore and clenched her eyes. Arching her chest into the air, she leaned back at the incredible milky forces inside of her. Her chest struggled to contain its load. Eris and Kalzar watched in awe when they sprayed and leaked like fountains, drenching her in cream. Creaking threads complained around her frame from the burgeoning mammaries.

“M-Mmnggh!!! NNGH!!!!”

SNAP!!!!

The bonds broke around Minerva’s straining body and wrists. Every muscle tense for escape, Minerva’s arms flung outward. Kalzar had only had time to frown in worry as she clawed madly at her gag and freed her speech. Angry magic poured from her being.

“DAGU NESU KAA DAN ISKAU!!!”

WHAM!!

The force of a charging bull struck Kalzar’s torso to knock the wind from his lungs. Eris fell to the ground when his hand was ripped from her bonds while he rocketed across the camp like a cannonball.

CRASH!!!!

The sound of a grown man plowing through the side of a covered merchant cart shot through the night. Though Minerva and Eris could not hear it, they saw the immediate attention it gained from the other travelers. Many gathered around the gaping hole in wood and canvas to inspect Kalzar.

“What did I just do...” Minerva whispered. It was the first time she’d used destructive force against a human being.

Eris was more present. “Minerva we have to go!!! Untie me!!!”

“What??” Almost falling over, Minerva tried to conceal her chest as merchants turned to face them. Confusion and anger brimmed in their eyes. “We just need to explain to them that--”

“Explain what?? No offense, but who are they going to believe?? A half-naked sorceress who just destroyed their livelihood and flung a seemingly helpless traveler across camp, or the unconscious man?? Hurry and untie me! We need to go!”

Minerva was too frazzled to know if her friend was making sense. Scrambling to her side, Minerva swiped away the crystal spiders and held her hands over Eris. “T-This might hurt...”

“Do it!”

“ZO KU SAUKU!!!”

FWOOSH!!

Fire engulfed Eris’s bonds as if they were cotton. They were decimated in an instant, leaving only light burns on the scholar’s wrists and ankles. She was the first to get up, taking Minerva’s hand and milky weight.

“We’ll take his horses!”

“WHAT?!”

Led like a child, Minerva was helped onto what they assumed to be one of Kalzar’s horses. Already saddled, it was ripe for escape. Milk sprayed over the saddle when Minerva’s chest bulged against it in her efforts to mount.

“Start riding!! I’ll catch up!” Eris instructed, running towards the other mount.

“Stop!! Thieves!! THIEVES!!”

Minerva’s mind was in a flurry. She couldn’t think straight after attacking Kalzar, let alone while dealing with her extreme lactation. Cradling her enlarged bust, she kicked the horse and raced along the tree line towards the hills. Holding her chest and the reins was a wet, slippery job she wasn’t prepared for.

“We’re sorry!!” Eris yelled, turning her horse around. “Tell that guy not to tie up any more sorceresses if he wakes up!!”

Dirt kicked into the air when she raced after Minerva and into the night, leaving the merchants and their attacker behind.
