

LUCIFER AND LILITH SYND
PRESENT

SUCUBI
THE WITCH
TENTH TASTE
PART 1

"Now, now... Why would you interrupt such a perfect execution when it's so easy for me to obtain my powers, Selena?" asked Lydia as she stared up at the Coven Queen herself "This worthless male won't be missed, he's just a sacrifice... And Crocell will take him to Hell anyway, or shrink him down... No proof left behind..."

"You don't get it, do you?" started Selena "Without a proper ritual, there's no guarantee that Demons will keep their end of the bargain... You would just be exposing yourself to a potential scam..."

"So she says..." whispered Crocell in the ear of the redhead Domatrix "But no Demon ever came up here on Earth prior to being summoned out of pure interest..."

"Oh? Tell me more..." replied Lydia.

Crocell had her eyes fixed onto Selena, but she kept speaking straight to the Woman she wanted to make the bargain with, a devilish smirk present at all times on her black lips.

"She's right, you know... Usually without a ritual there would be no direct promise... But between you and me is different. I am right here, I don't need a sacrifice to be summoned, I will take a soul just to seal the deal..." the voice of the Succubus was full of malice, seductive even for a Woman "Selena is just trying to force you into a ritual that will actually limit the power that you'll receive from me... Kill this male right now for me and you shall have all you want..."

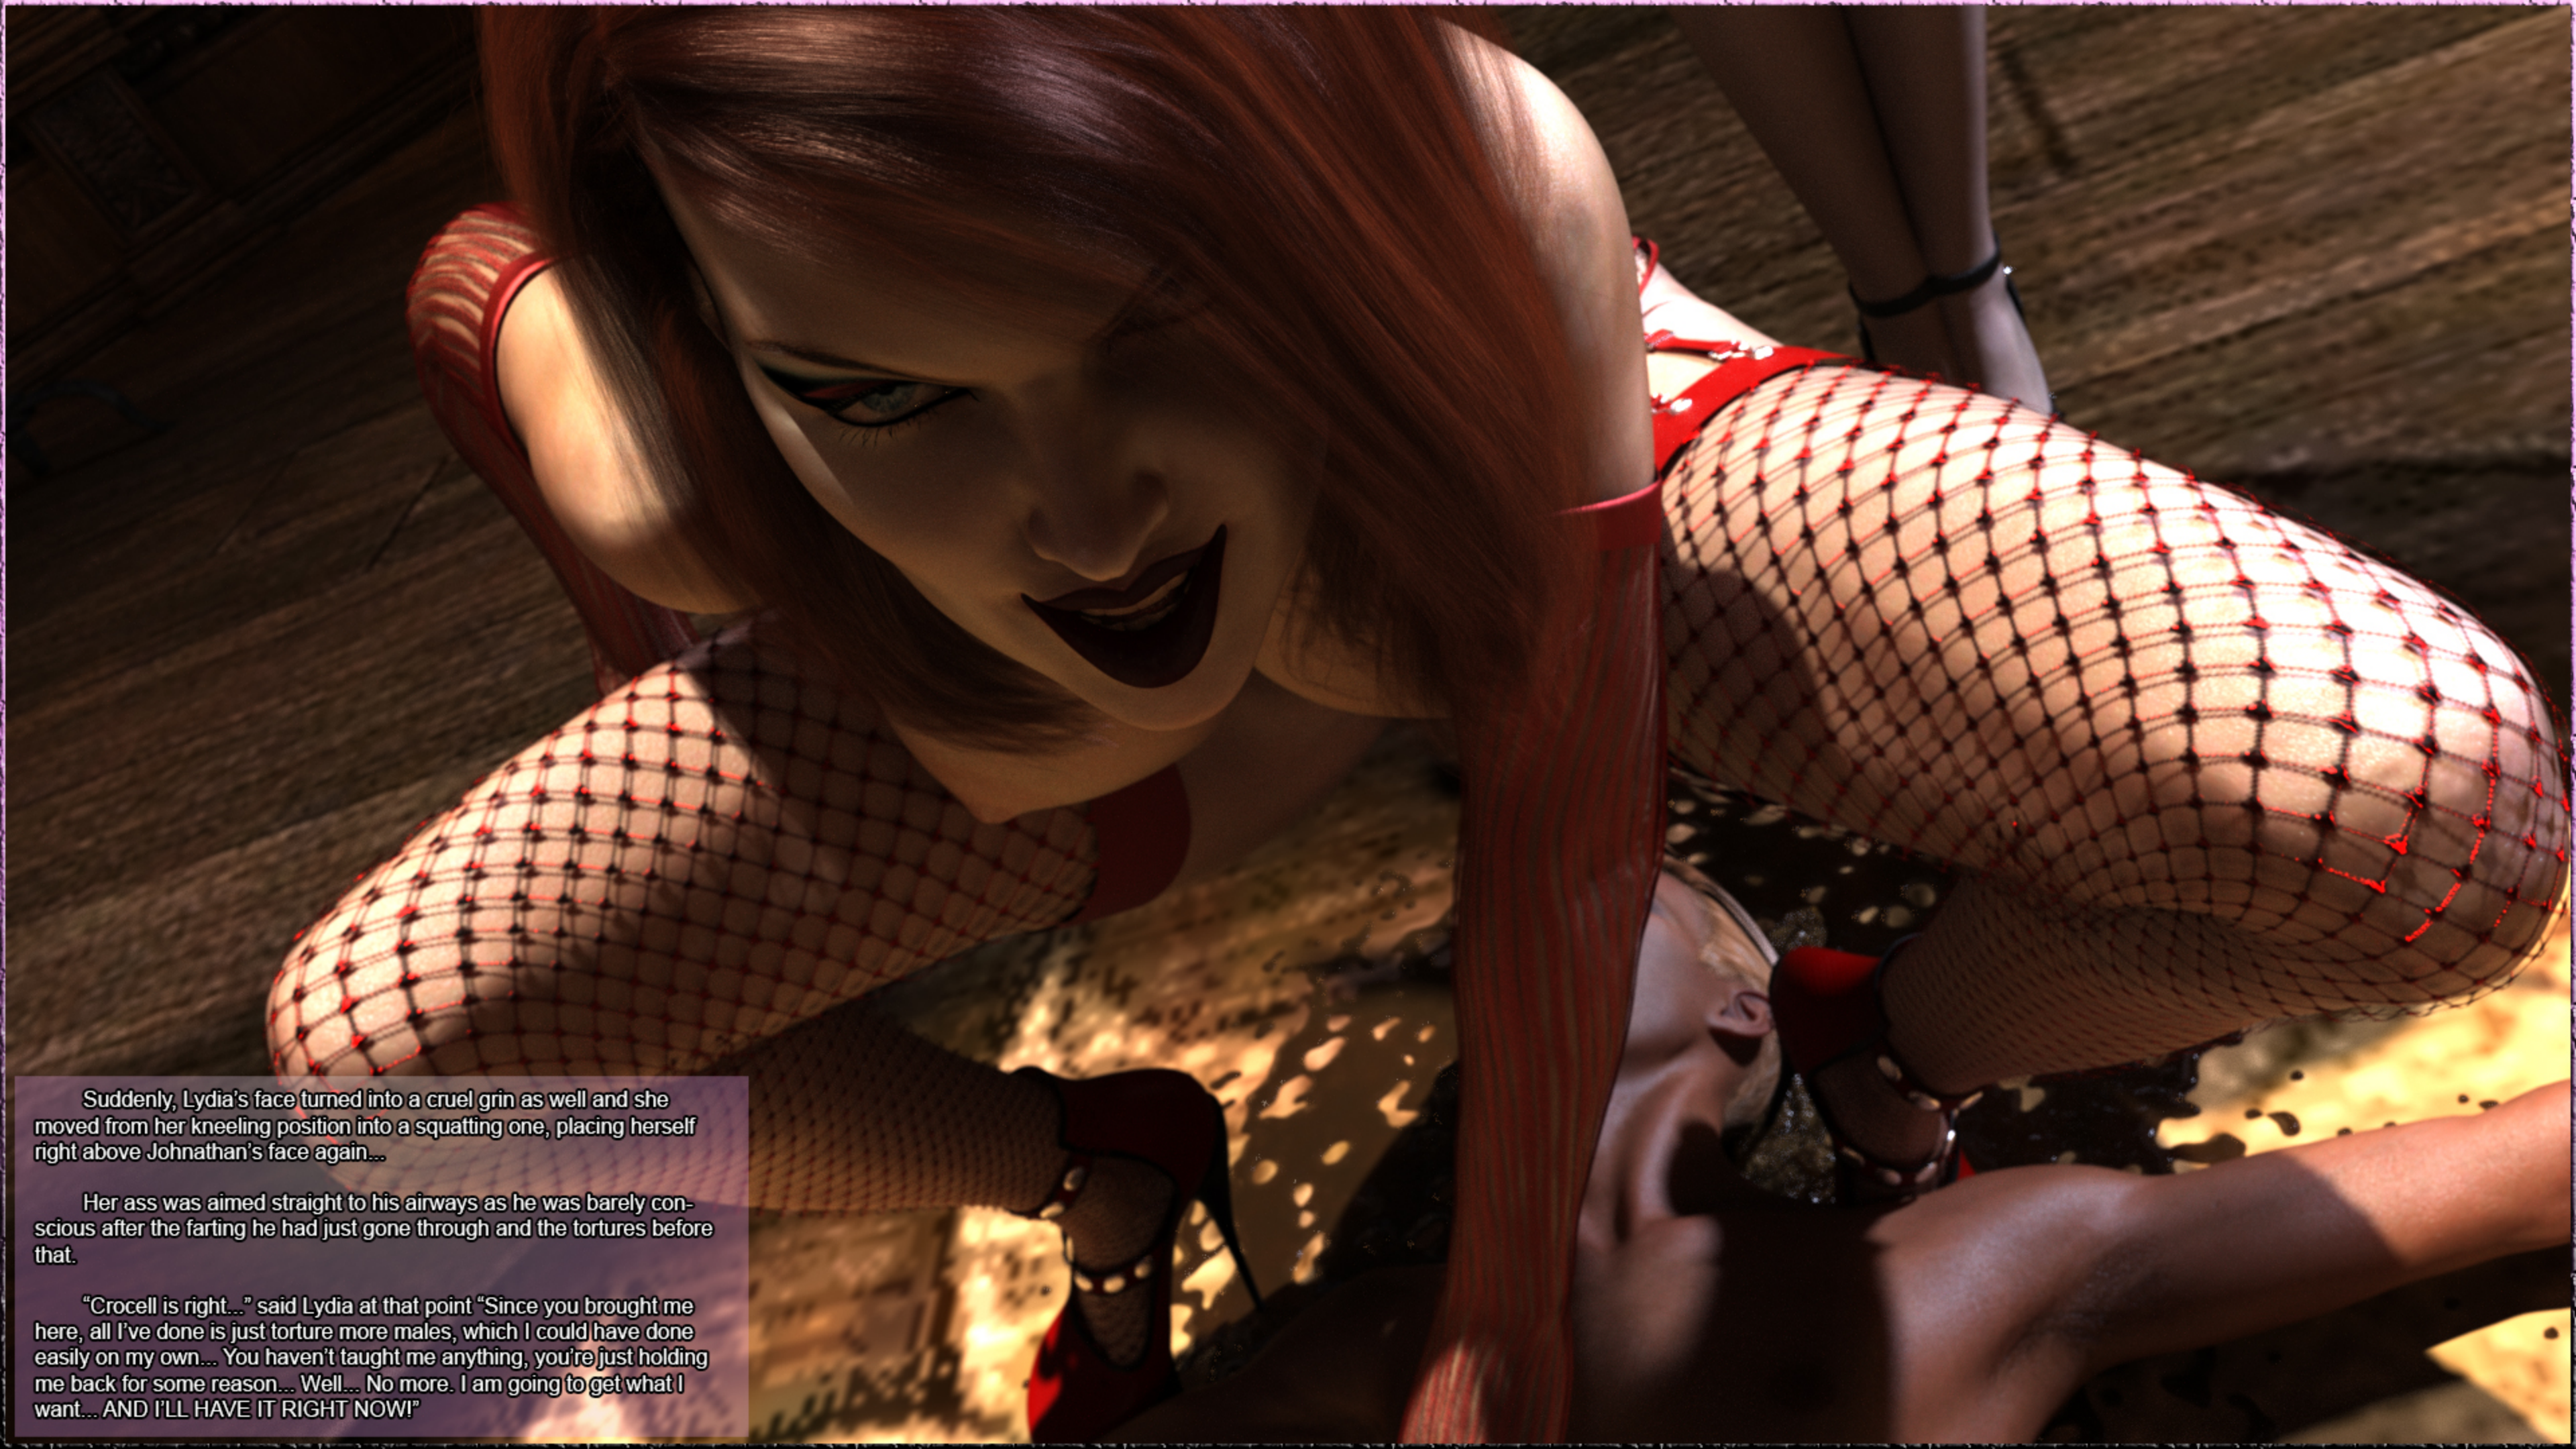

"You better stop talking, Crocell..." threatened Selena, pointing a finger at her "Don't listen to her, Lydia... All you're going to accomplish if you kill Johnathan right now is giving her a free soul for nothing in return!"

"But... She did say that she's already here, right? And we have already killed one guy together after shrinking him down..." replied Lydia.

"You... WHAT?!" exclaimed the Coven Queen, surprised.

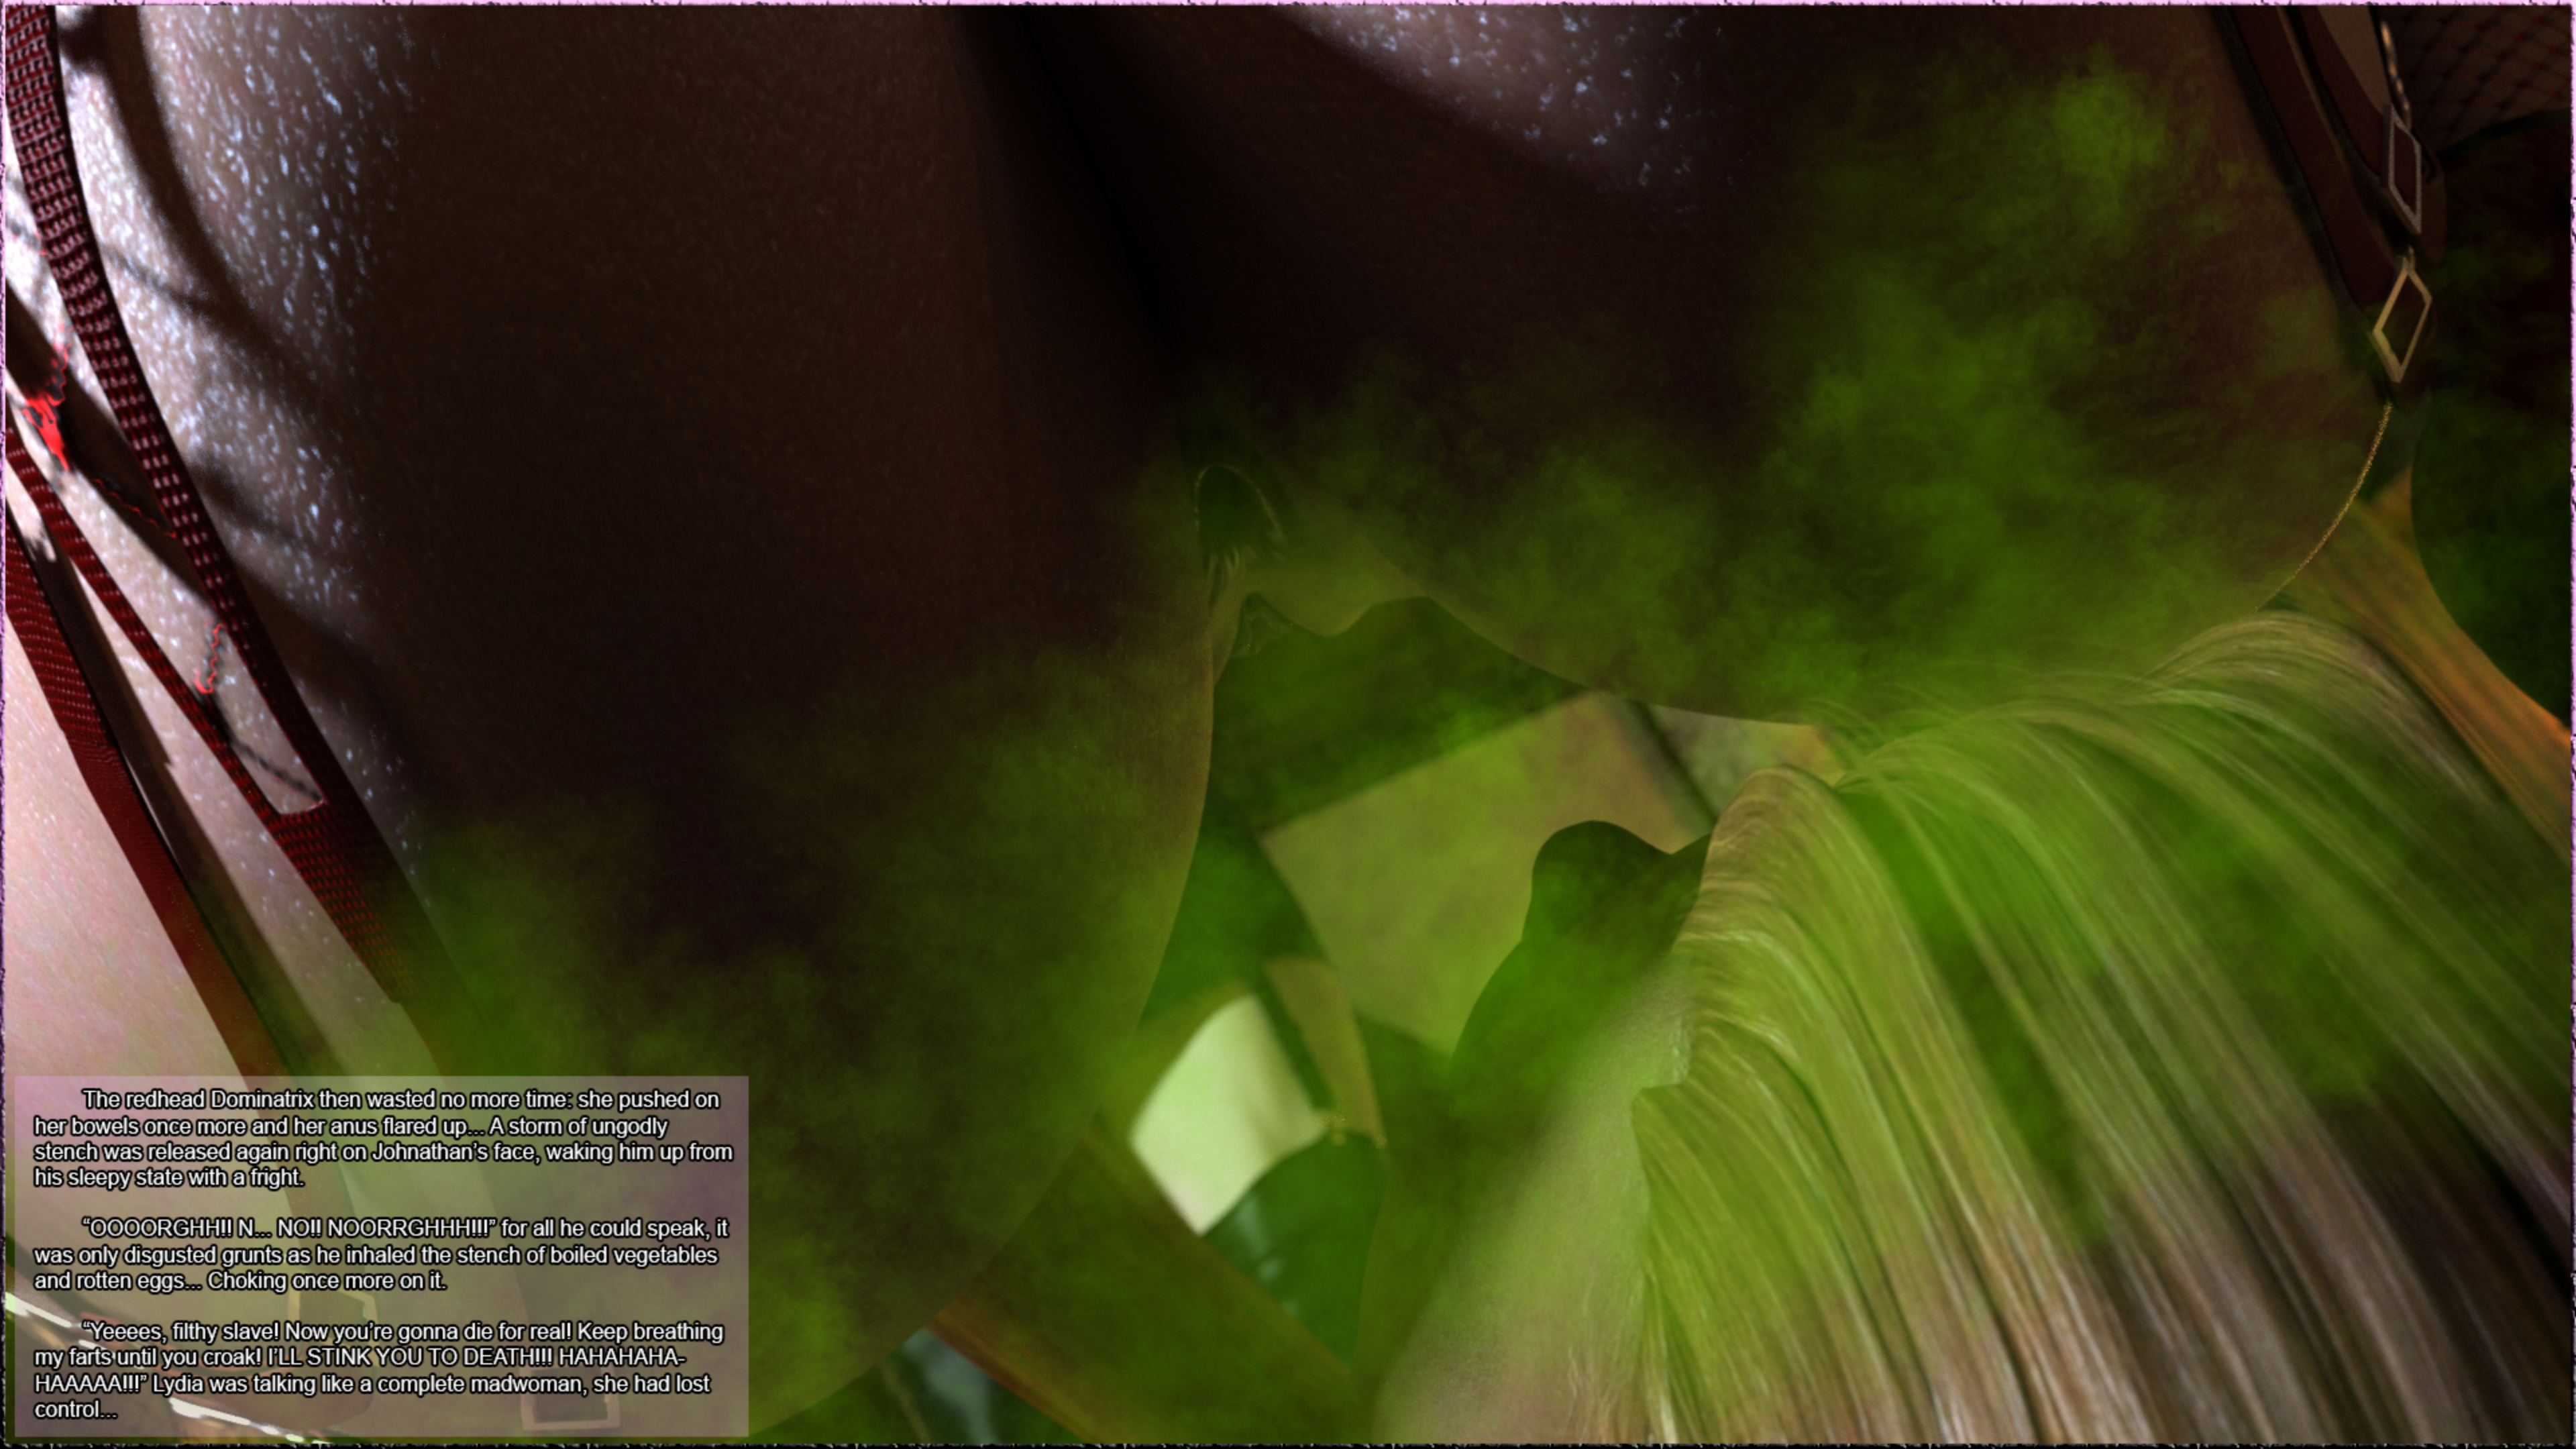

"See, my dear? She didn't even know that. If I really wanted only a soul, you had already given it to me... But here I am. So... Who are you going to trust now, hmmm? Me or this Woman that never taught you anything about black magic yet?"

Suddenly, Lydia's face turned into a cruel grin as well and she moved from her kneeling position into a squatting one, placing herself right above Johnathan's face again...

Her ass was aimed straight to his airways as he was barely conscious after the farting he had just gone through and the tortures before that.

"Crocell is right..." said Lydia at that point "Since you brought me here, all I've done is just torture more males, which I could have done easily on my own... You haven't taught me anything, you're just holding me back for some reason... Well... No more. I am going to get what I want... AND I'LL HAVE IT RIGHT NOW!"

The redhead Dominatrix then wasted no more time: she pushed on her bowels once more and her anus flared up... A storm of ungodly stench was released again right on Johnathan's face, waking him up from his sleepy state with a fright.

"OOOORGGHH!! N... NO!! NOORRGHHH!!!" for all he could speak, it was only disgusted grunts as he inhaled the stench of boiled vegetables and rotten eggs... Choking once more on it.

"Yeeees, filthy slave! Now you're gonna die for real! Keep breathing my farts until you croak! I'LL STINK YOU TO DEATH!!! HAHAAAAHA-HAAAAA!!!" Lydia was talking like a complete madwoman, she had lost control...

Johnathan was once again being covered in toxic fumes from a Woman's ass... His headache returned stronger than before, his airways stung like there was a fire burning inside of them... And he could feel his heart pumping so fast, almost about to burst out of his chest. The stench was out of this world and he knew he would have died quickly with how weak he was...

"IS THIS HOW YOU REPAY ME?!" screamed Selena "BY BETRAYING ME?!"

"YOU'VE DONE NOTHING FOR ME! NOTHING!" replied Lydia "ONE BOOK ON DEMONS, THAT'S ALL YOU GAVE ME! YOU NEVER TAUGHT ME A SINGLE THING ABOUT MAGIC!!!"

"Now I'm done waiting for your charity!" continued the cruel Dominatrix while she never halted the flow of gas "I'M ABOUT TO GRASP
POWER FOR MYSELF, I WILL BE STRONGER THAN ANY OF YOU HAS EVER BEEN BEFORE!"

"That's right, Lydia... Fart harder, kill that male beneath your ass... I will give you all you ever wanted, the power to shrink men, to grow yourself and everlasting beauty!" said Crocell, edging Lydia further on.

"You crazy Woman... You will not get anything of what she's saying!
I'm warning you, stop right now!" said Selena...

But Lydia was way too far gone to listen...

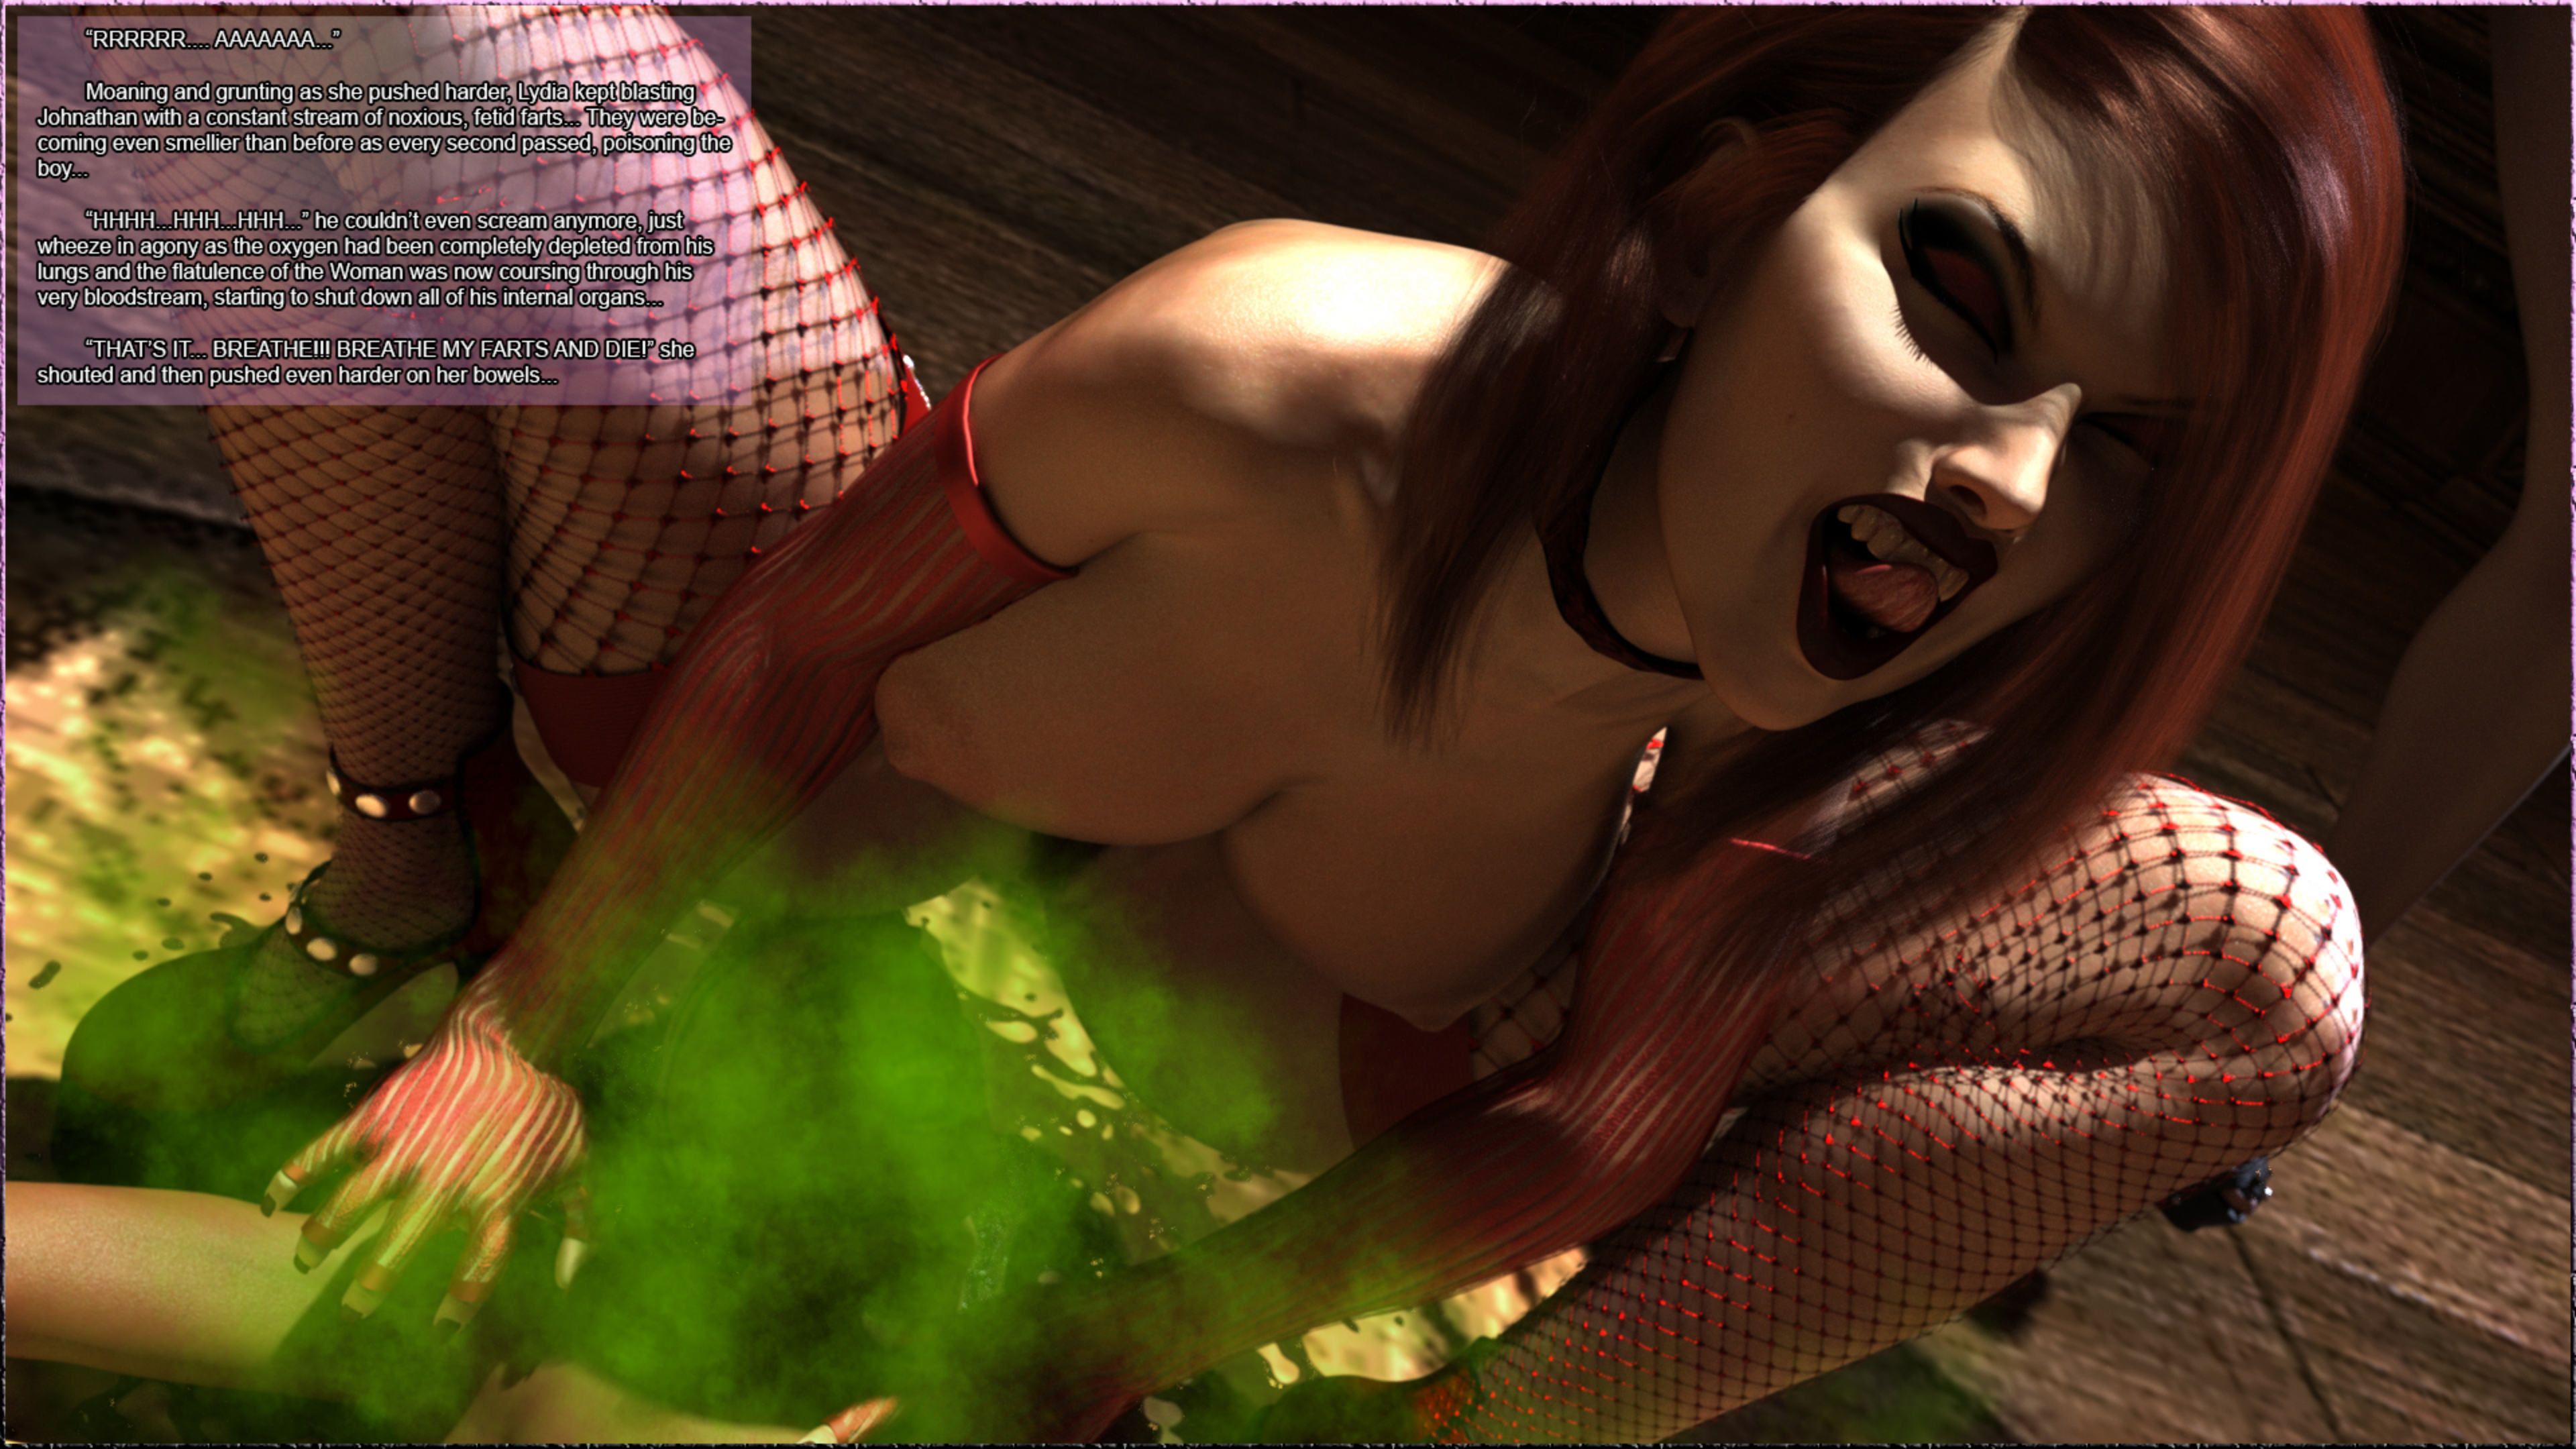

"RRRRRR... AAAAAA..."

Moaning and grunting as she pushed harder, Lydia kept blasting Johnathan with a constant stream of noxious, fetid farts... They were becoming even smellier than before as every second passed, poisoning the boy...

"HHHH...HHH...HHH..." he couldn't even scream anymore, just wheeze in agony as the oxygen had been completely depleted from his lungs and the flatulence of the Woman was now coursing through his very bloodstream, starting to shut down all of his internal organs...

"THAT'S IT... BREATHE!!! BREATHE MY FARTS AND DIE!" she shouted and then pushed even harder on her bowels...

The strength of Lydia's farts became so massive that now even particles of her waste began to shoot out of her ass along with the gas... They were splattering over Johnathan's face, smearing it with disgusting excrements while the flatulence kept assaulting the boy's lungs...

"AAAAAA... HAHahaha! THERE, A NICE SIDE DISH OF SHIT FOR YOU!!! WITH ALL YOU'VE TAKEN, YOU SHOULD BE USED TO IT BY NOW! SAVOUR IT AS MY FARTS KILL YOU, WORTHLESS SLAVE!"

The redhead Dominatrix was no longer able to contain her sadism as she felt Johnathan's life leaving his body...

His chest had begun to spasm and twitch, his whole organism starting to shut down...

But Selena was not going to have any of that...

Her rage was building up in her body and it was shown in her eyes, which began to glow like a fierce flame... Lydia didn't notice this at first, as she was way too busy farting on Johnathan's face and attempting to kill him with her gas...

"I had enough of this..." the Coven Queen's voice now was double, echoing, just like a real Demon "Nobody goes against my orders, especially not in my own Sorority... And certainly not a newcomer and her Succubus pet..."

And with those words said, Selena stepped forward and began to raise one of her arms...

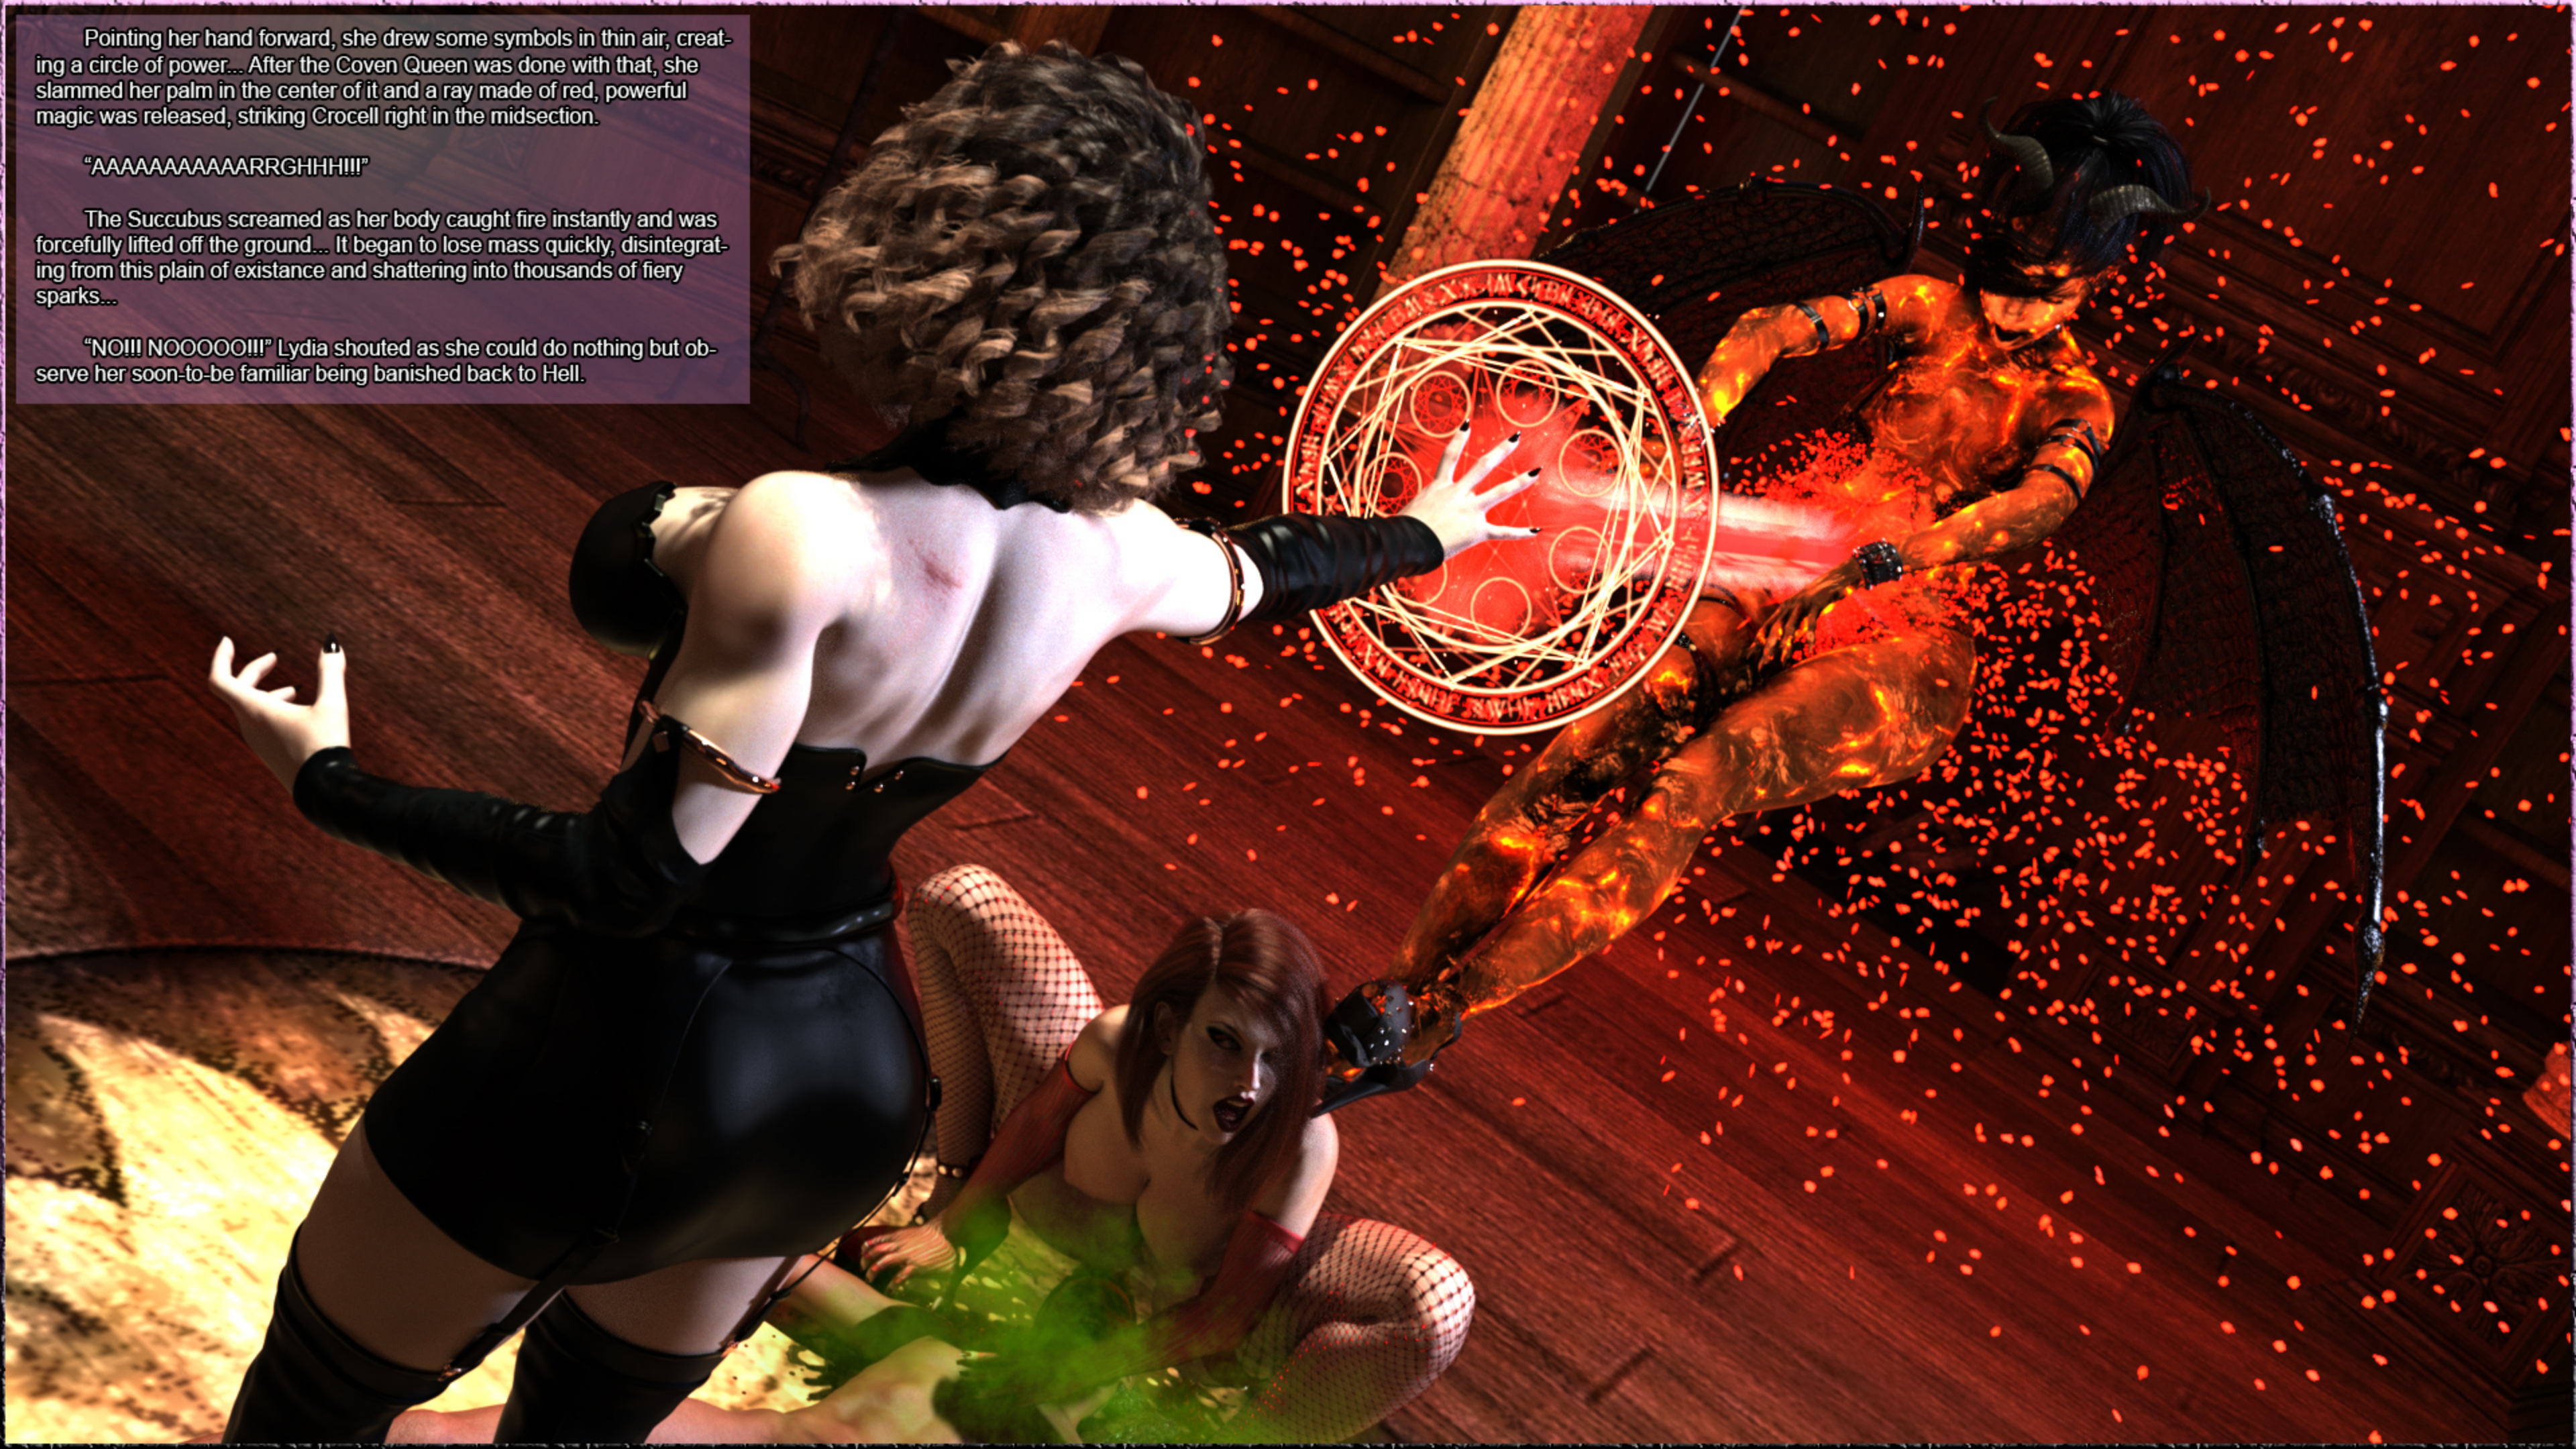

Pointing her hand forward, she drew some symbols in thin air, creating a circle of power... After the Coven Queen was done with that, she slammed her palm in the center of it and a ray made of red, powerful magic was released, striking Crocell right in the midsection.

"AAAAAAAAAAARRGHHH!!!!"

The Succubus screamed as her body caught fire instantly and was forcefully lifted off the ground... It began to lose mass quickly, disintegrating from this plain of existence and shattering into thousands of fiery sparks...

"NO!!! NOOOOOO!!!!" Lydia shouted as she could do nothing but observe her soon-to-be familiar being banished back to Hell.

The redhead Dominatrix fell backward in shock as she stared up to Selena's face... She backed away using her feet to push her own body while the Coven Queen stepped forward and towered above Johnathan's body, Crocell's shards still disappearing in thin air and giving a red haze to the whole room.

"Now... I think it's time to punish you as well for going against me, Lydia." said Selena, hands on her hips in a dominant position.

"W... What are you?! Stay away from me!" screamed the redhead.

"I'm the Coven Queen... Nothing more, nothing less... And don't worry, I won't hurt you... Physically. Bruises heal... What I'm about to do will scar you way more than any beating..." added Selena.

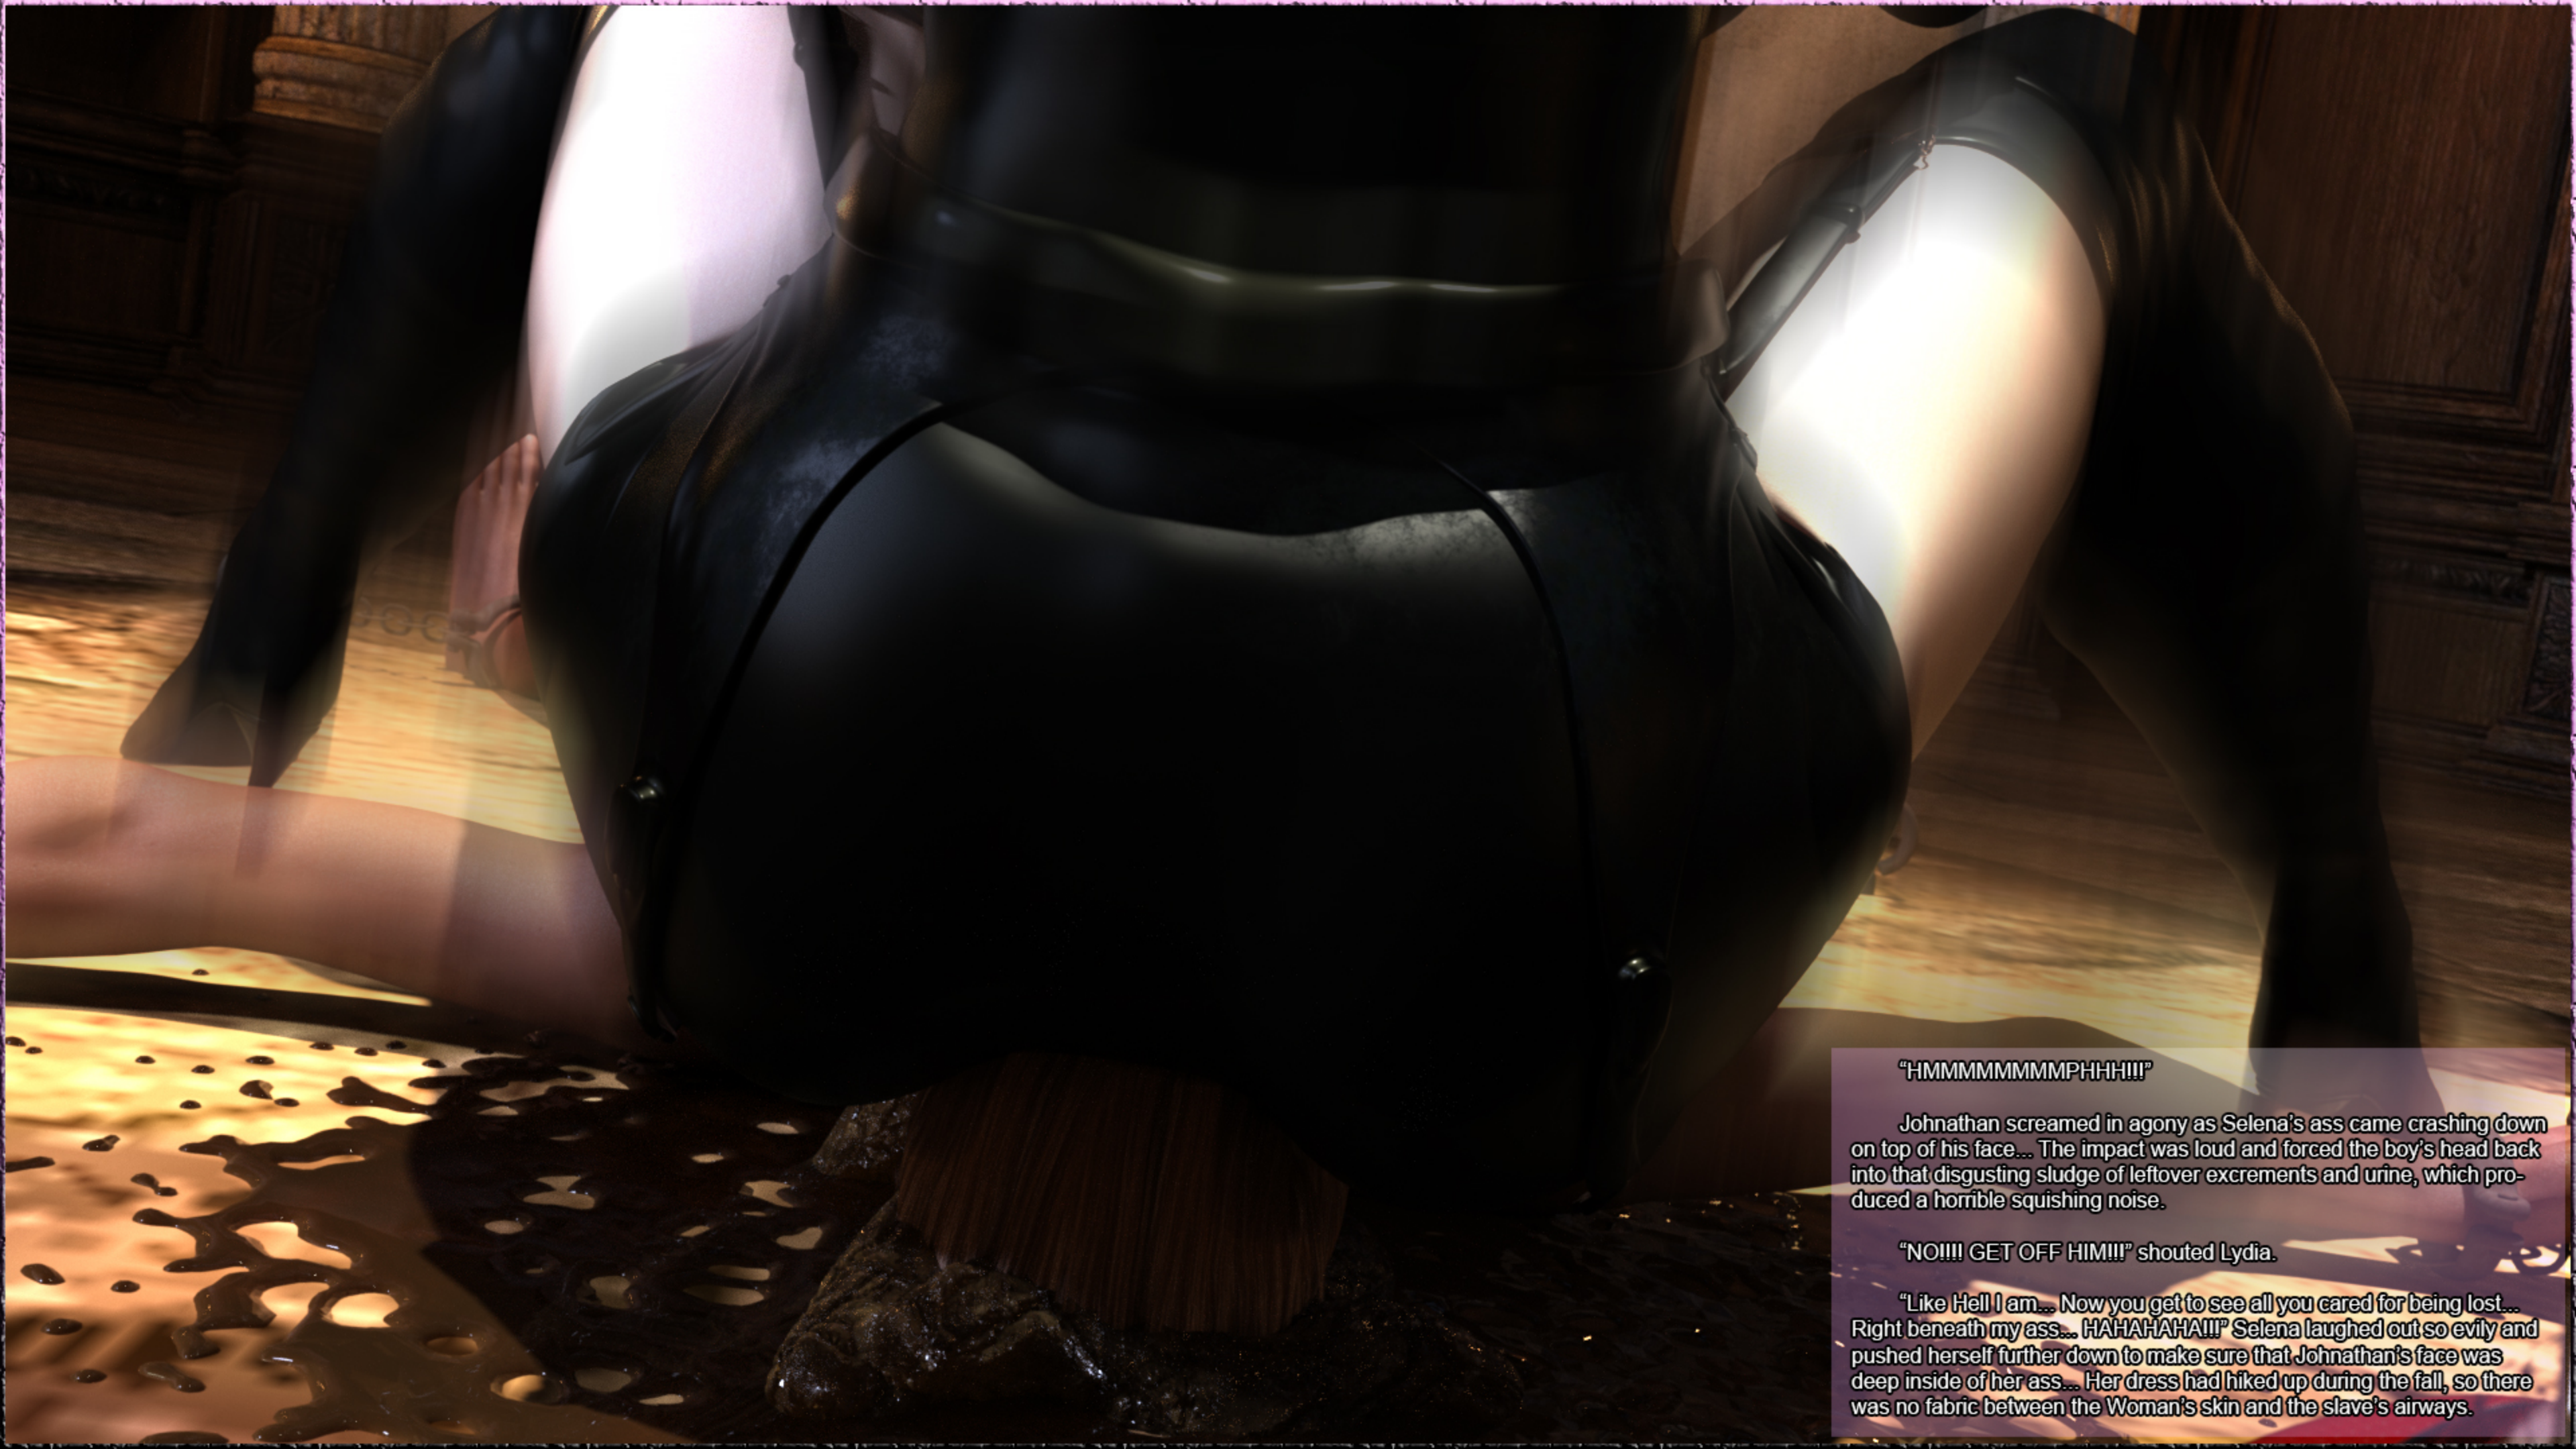

At last, as Crocell's fragments vanished from the air, the Coven Queen turned around above Johnathan and pointed her ass towards his excrement-smear'd face...

"W... What are you..." stuttered Lydia, observing in horror.

"I think you know exactly what's about to happen..." said Selena with a large devilish grin on her lips, interrupting the other Woman before she could finish her sentence "I'm going to sit down on this stupid male's face... And suffocate him to death... So, you won't get your sacrifice after all and you'll have nothing to bargain with."

"NO!!! DON'T YOU FUCKING DARE DO THAT!" screamed Lydia, but Selena just chuckled and dropped herself down.

"HMMMMMMMMPHHH!!!"

Johnathan screamed in agony as Selena's ass came crashing down on top of his face... The impact was loud and forced the boy's head back into that disgusting sludge of leftover excrements and urine, which produced a horrible squishing noise.

"NO!!!! GET OFF HIM!!!!" shouted Lydia.

"Like Hell I am... Now you get to see all you cared for being lost... Right beneath my ass... HAHAAHAH!!!" Selena laughed out so evilly and pushed herself further down to make sure that Johnathan's face was deep inside of her ass... Her dress had hiked up during the fall, so there was no fabric between the Woman's skin and the slave's airways.

Her pussy lips had perfectly sealed the boy's mouth and her anus had engulfed his nose... No oxygen would pass through that vacuum of feminine flesh and Selena knew it very well... She just let her weight do the rest since Johnathan couldn't move, not with those restraints holding him down, not after being fed shit and pee for days.

"How does it feel, uh? Being close to having nothing and seeing another Woman facesitting to death your own sacrifice? Does it burn?" said Selena, teasing.

"Please don't! I'm begging you! Let him breathe!" shouted Lydia.

"Ooooh... Where did that cocky attitude go, hmmm? Did it shatter along with your Succubus friend?" replied the Coven Queen.

She kept sitting on top of the boy's face as if it was a throne... No refrain, no mercy and no holding back, Selena was using her fullweight and loving the struggles and screams that Johnathan kept doing against her intimate lips.

"Fu fu fu... Cry all you want, stupid slave... This is it, this is how you die... Smothered beneath a pussy after eating shit for days... Being nothing but a seat to me... HAHAAHAHA!" said Selena, sadistically.

"HMMMPHH... MMPH...H..." Johnathan's struggles were getting weaker and weaker by the second... He could see nothing but ass... Feel nothing but the Woman's vagina crushing his face...

And his lungs burning like hellfire in his chest...

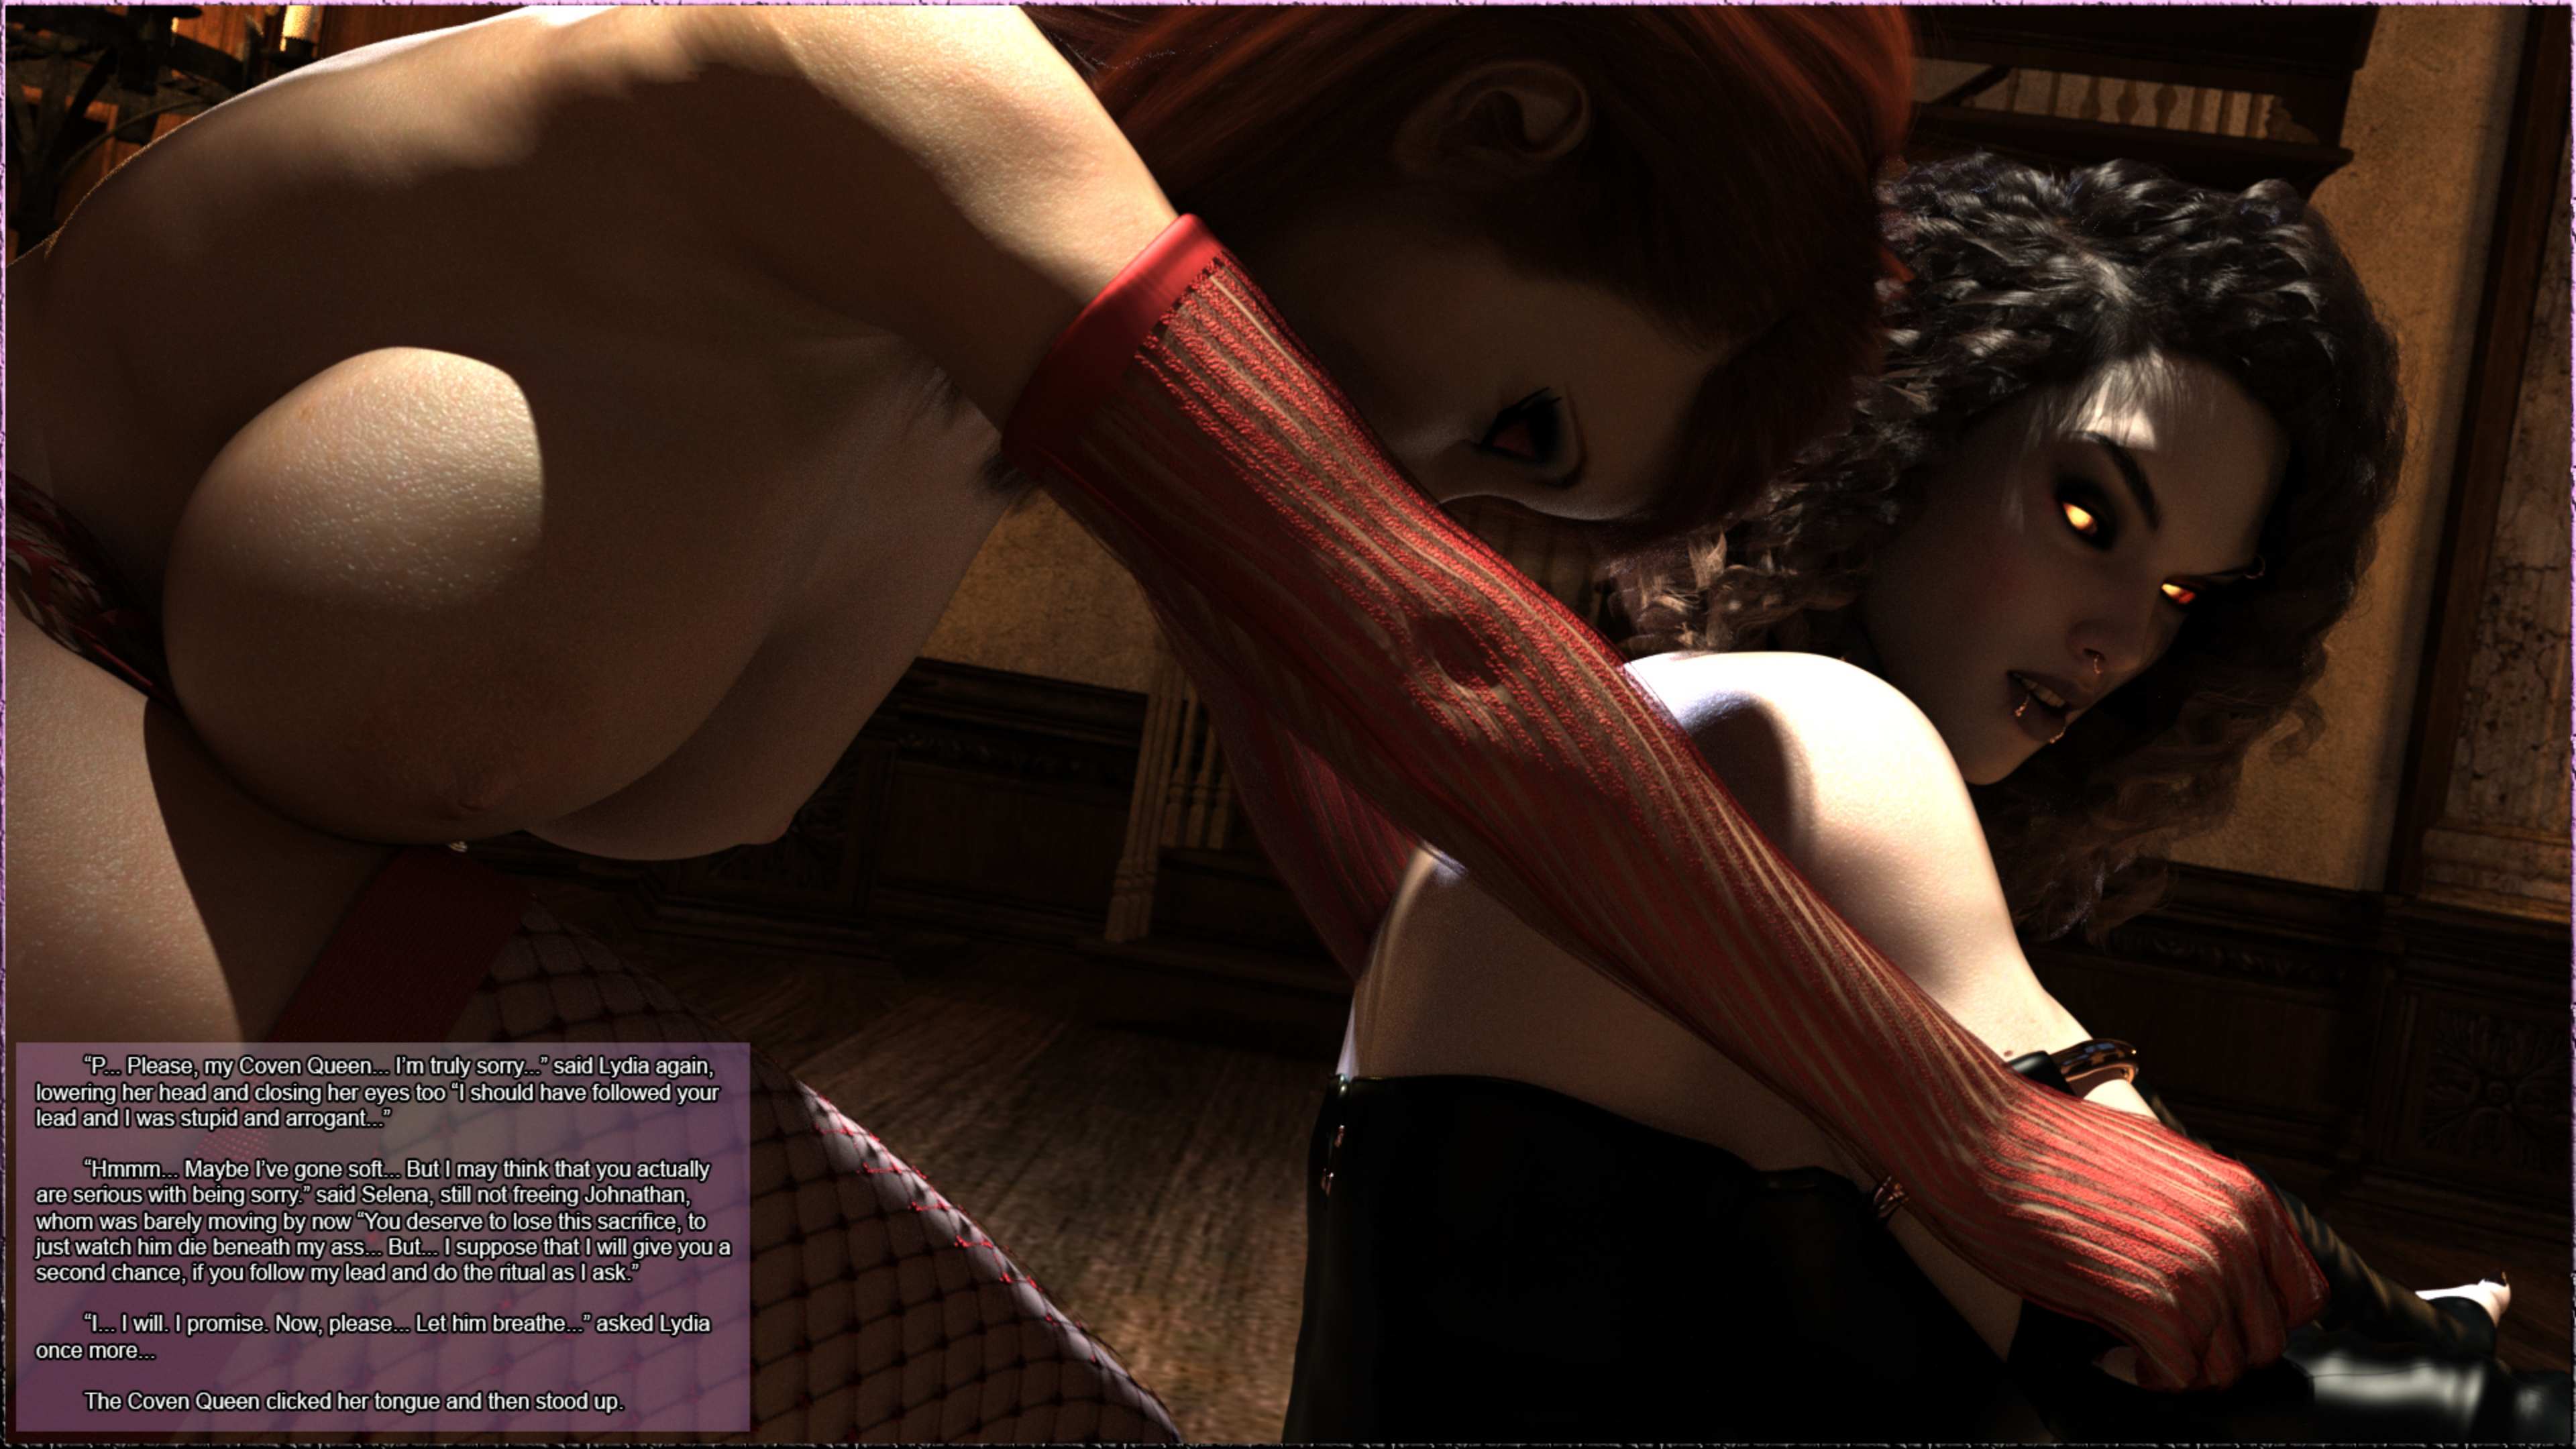

"PLEASE!" shouted Lydia from behind as she reached out to Selena and grabbed her arm "PLEASE DON'T DO THIS TO ME!"

"And why would I not?" replied the Coven Queen, smirking cruelly "I find myself pretty comfortable on this boy's face... I just think I'll keep smothering him till he's dead... I see no reason to get up."

"I'M SORRY, OK?! I'M VERY SORRY!!! I WAS TOO EAGER AND I SHOULD HAVE TRUSTED YOU INSTEAD!" Lydia's voice was filled with panic and sadness... She had never felt like this before in her life.

"Hmmm... Do you really mean that? Or are you just saying it to make me get off this slave's face?" asked once more the Coven Queen, voice filled with malice.

"P... Please, my Coven Queen... I'm truly sorry..." said Lydia again, lowering her head and closing her eyes too "I should have followed your lead and I was stupid and arrogant..."

"Hmmm... Maybe I've gone soft... But I may think that you actually are serious with being sorry." said Selena, still not freeing Johnathan, whom was barely moving by now "You deserve to lose this sacrifice, to just watch him die beneath my ass... But... I suppose that I will give you a second chance, if you follow my lead and do the ritual as I ask."

"I... I will. I promise. Now, please... Let him breathe..." asked Lydia once more...

The Coven Queen clicked her tongue and then stood up.

"Very well..." said Selena as she looked above her right shoulder down at a kneeling Lydia "You get to keep your sacrifice... I should just order you to kiss my ass now to show some proper repentance but I'll be generous..."

A chuckle from the Coven Queen...

"Tomorrow... We'll do the ritual as I asked you in the first place. Do you think you can wait until then? And don't try to kill him on your own now, your Demon is not here any longer, so it won't work." she continued.

"Y... Yes... I will wait. Thank you so much, Selena..." replied Lydia.

"Good girl..."

Selena then started to walk away from the room with an evil smirk on her lips. She just couldn't believe how easy it was to get Lydia in her trap...

Now, with the Ritual done in her own way, the redhead girl would have never obtained a power as great as what she was aiming for... The Coven Queen thought that she had to partially be grateful that Crocell demanded a sacrifice done by fating death... Johnathan didn't die quickly, so she had still time to conjure her spell and send the Succubus away.

Would Lydia have killed the boy now, she would have become way too powerful.

Snickering cruelly, Selena left the room behind.

And once alone, Lydia's lips bent upwards again...

The most fiendish of smirks appeared on her lips as she opened her eyes again... Now they were glowing of a green power...

It was indeed a blessing that Crocell and herself had already killed one man on their own and made a partial bargain... The young redhead Witch had seen through Selena's schemes and lies by reading her mind and was now sure of what she had to do.

"You tried your best... But I'm going to win... I will strip away this Coven from you..." said Lydia...

And with a cruel laugh, it was time to start her plan.
