

Chapter 127 - Innocent or not?

Everything was quiet.

Jessica was working here, I spent several days just resting, and now it was time to return to work. Unfortunately, the War Game didn't look like it would happen.

'I really should have let the story go on as it should, maybe then the War Game would happen.' But anyway, things are different in this "story." In the original story, Apollo had his eye on Bell, and in this "route," he had his eye on me.

Haaa~~ But everything that happened was very similar. He should have tried to do something. Like blaming me and saying that I attacked a member of his Familia, even though it didn't happen.

I provoked them, but I didn't attack them. I just defended myself.

"What happened? Is something bothering you?" Jessica approached, carrying my cup of tea. She was wearing more appropriate clothes now. They were not maid's clothes like those maids in Re:Zero use. It was just an ordinary outfit.

An outfit that is less naughty than the ones she wore before she started working here.

"I was thinking about Apollo. The God Apollo." I sipped some of the tea prepared by Jessica. It was much tastier than mine.

"The God Apollo? Why?"

"Something happened at his banquet that involved the Hestia Familia. I thought he would do something, but he hasn't made a move yet."

"But isn't that good?"

"No, of course not. I was hoping he would make some movement, I'm a little disappointed."

Jessica looked at me, entirely confused. That's to be expected. A Familia as weak as ours getting into a fight against the Apollo Familia it's a stupid thing to do.

"May I know why you are disappointed? Do you hate Apollo?"

"I don't hate him. I'm just quite bored." Besides, I wanted the story to keep moving, even though I ruined it long ago.

Jessica shouldn't even exist.

"Bored? You are bored so you wanted to get into a fight against Apollo Familia? But..."

"I know, our Familia has few members and only Bell and I can fight. Still, we are enough to handle it. No... Only I am enough." I smiled at Jessica.

"I know you're strong, but that's a bit much."

"Trust me, I can handle the Apollo Familia easily. Well, what's left for me to do is to wait a little longer for a movement from them, for now I'll continue living my normal life."

"Stay home almost all day and then go out drinking?"

"Don't judge me, I'm a lazy guy. I like staying home, especially if Lili and Hestia are with me... But neither of them is here." I sighed and handed the teacup to Jessica.

"Hmm... What do you think of me?"

"What do I think of you?"

"Aren't I attractive?"

"Of course you are. If you weren't so I wouldn't have given you my virginity."

"What?!" Jessica's mouth hung open, not believing what she had heard. Should I have told her that?

"Yes, before you had sex with me that day I was a virgin. And now that I have had sex with other girls, I have gotten a little better at it." I gave a forced smile. Oh, that's a bit embarrassing.

"I see, I didn't think I was your first woman. Now I feel a little guilty...your first time was with someone like me."

"What do you mean someone like you? Just because you worked as a prostitute? You know, I don't really care about that. I would only care if you were my woman and you were having sex with others."

"I see."

After our conversation, Jessica went into the kitchen and washed the dishes. I lay on the couch, waiting for Lili to come back together with Bell. They had gone to the dungeon. She was evolving rapidly.

And I don't even have to worry about training her.

"That's good, I don't think I could keep training her."

"Hm?"

"I was talking to myself."

"Right. I'm going to clean up the upstairs now, if you need anything just call me."

"All right, thanks."

Night had come, and I left the house to visit the entertainment district. I had "promised" that I would not fuck any prostitutes again since Lili, Hestia, and Tiona were now my women.

However, I have been thinking about some things this afternoon.

When I had sex with Hestia, I got new functionality in the system but no new skills. I also gained no new skills when I had sex with Tiona and Lili.

'However, when I had sex with prostitutes, I received new abilities.' I will have sex with a prostitute tonight to see if I'm correct. I will never do that again if I don't gain any new skills.

However, if I get a new skill, I will do this occasionally to receive new ones. I know my statuses are high, but the more skills I have, the better it is.

'This one looks like a pretty good brothel here.' It was a brightly lit three-story building. Outside, two Amazoness looked at me with desire as soon as they saw me.

I smiled at the two and went inside the building. As usual, the first floor was a bar with many tables and several prostitutes serving the men. I went to one of the empty tables and sat down.

It was very crowded, but I quickly attended. The girl who came to me was a human. Her cheeks remained red throughout our interaction; she didn't seem used to it.

I liked her a lot.

We talked and drank together for a while. The girl's name was Emily. She was wearing a black dress with a big neckline. Her boobs were not big, but they were not small either. She was average.

Once I had gotten to know her well, I asked if she didn't want to go up to one of the rooms. When she heard my question, she acted innocent.

She acted as if she had never done that before. But of course, this was just an act. I could tell that she had done this many times before.
