

We feel so shitty
We feel so shitty that we got old
Feel so shitty
We feel so shitty that we got oooooold

That new building used to be this really cool place
You probably wouldn't know about it you moved here too late 50s kids will know our music simply was the best
The Beatles & Led Zeppelin was the farthest our society has progressed
There used to be this one type of music, playing on the radio
The baby boomers
We Feel so shitty
We feels so shitty that we got old

We feel so shitty
We feel so shitty that we got old
We feel so shitty
We feel so shitty that we got oooooold

Someone's always playing music that's not classic rock
Who cares about these new musics, disco and hip hop
Rock and roll was for dancing, it had this groovy beat
But Michael Jackson and Whitney don't make me wanna move my feet
There used to be this one type of music, playing on the radio
The baby boomers
We feel so shitty
We feel so shitty we got so old
We feel so shitty
We feel so shitty we got so old

Another saturday night
Movies on my loveseat
No party invitations
For some reason in my mid-forties

Why did the cool clubs close exactly on the date
Coincidentally identical to when my mortgage originated
Why must the time pass for the baby boomers
This simply didn't happen to other demographic groups

<life is like a box of chocolates monologue>

The baby boomers
There used to be this one type of music, playing on the radio
The baby boomers

We feel so shitty
We feel so shitty that we got old
We feel so shitty
We feel so shitty that we got oooooold
