Chapter Five- A Pair of Princesses For the Taking (Asta x Noelle Silva x Mimosa Vermillion)

*****

During the banquet held in the Castle, Asta had successfully conquered the tall, man-hating, amazon known as Sol Marron on the grounds of the veranda garden just outside the Banquet room itself. He was fed up with her childish obnoxiousness and her man-hating personality after a few choice words directed at his height, but more than that, Asta also had a growing preference for taller women anyway. Taking someone like Sol Marron into his grasp and making her mewl and whimper pathetically for his touch was just icing on the cake. Like many women before her, Asta's Devil Mana had seeped into her body during close contact in their confrontation, ensnaring the tomboy to his touch and making her crumble to her kneecaps with a starving sexual desire for him to fuck her like there was no tomorrow. Of course, when taking her out back for a good fuck, Sol Marron was still mostly herself and tried resisting him, only to find herself thoroughly enjoying the feeling of his manhood plowing her plump, brown buttocks like an animal. No longer did she have an obnoxious attitude regarding men nor did she insult Asta's height, instead, she craved having the short lad between her legs, bottoming out of either her quivering pussy or her tight, warm asshole. When hearing of her captain and seeing how beautiful she was despite always wearing a helmet and armor over her body, Asta wondered just how similar she was to Noelle and Marron in regards to thorny personalities before breaking them. He was very interested in ravishing her next, once he got the chance.

He ravished Marron thoroughly, plowing the warm depths of her ass and then doing the same to her pussy by plowing it like a mad man. Soon enough, Asta filled both her holes with his cum, secretly fantasizing about making her pregnant and repeatedly craving his dick as a broken-in butt slut. She was completely under his thrall as a newly-claimed woman to fuck whenever he likes. Despite using his Devil Mana to ensnare women and bring them into his harem, Asta still cared deeply for all of them and treasured each one with dreams to make them his wives once he ascended to Sorcerer King. Apart from Sol Marron, there was also the thorny Princess Noelle Silva, who he had made love to down in the catacombs during a mission he took with Luck Volta.

Back there in those ruins, things took a chaotic turn for the worse when locked in a fierce battle against Diamond Kingdom generals and a powerful Mage known as 'Mars'. Yume was there as well, fighting on their behalf with her own personal squad consisting of one mildly snooty boy that later learned to respect Asta after saving his life. There was also the buxom, sweet-natured flower that is Mimosa Vermillion, who Asta had his eyes on as well. The big-breasted princess of the Vermillion family was Noelle's cousin and had watched him take care of the girl romantically prior to their arrival.

Feeling anxious to confess her newly-grown feelings for the boy, as well as indulge in the same pleasure her relative experienced, Mimosa kept an eye on Asta whenever she had some free time between missions, waiting for the right moment to approach him once she gathered the courage to announce her feelings and wishes to be desired by him.

Little did she know, he could already sense her nearby whenever she was following him. Asta knew he was ready to have himself another Princess to take to bed.

*****

One morning, a day down in the lower quarter of the Clover Kingdom...

Walking side-by-side with Noelle, his official yet secret girlfriend alongside Vanessa Enoteca and the rest, Asta had been touring the Marketplace of Clover Kingdom Capital's lower district to shop for ingredients to make for tonight's meal. He half-expected to find the Black Market again and on impulse, visit both Dominante and Mariella for a quick romp, but right now he figured he couldn't while Noelle was here with him. He wanted to spend the day with her and nothing else. Noelle subconsciously accepted that she would be part of a harem when Asta took her down in the dungeon, but she would still be craving his attention and even consider sleeping in his bed like Vanessa had been trying to do outside of the occasional mission work. Asta felt his romp with the Silver-haired Princess was much too short when down in the catacombs, prompted by the arrival of Yume and her team, he had to clean up his act and proceed with the mission to investigate the Sacred Object inside. The Silver-haired royal walked alongside him, bashfully clutching his right arm and interlocking her fingers with his in a loving, wholesome manner with a smile on her face. Noelle was very much in love with Asta, but the same can be said for all the other women he had bedded as well.

Sister Lily, Yume, Dominante, Mariella, Vanessa, Noelle, and now Sol Marron. Asta had them all and wanted more, as well as wanted to be around all of them more to ravish and make love to again and again. He felt the ever-increasing need to play with her body once he inhaled the scent of her perfume. Noelle also wanted some action and considered asking Asta for a romp right here out in the open, she was very anxious to feel him inside of her ass again and scream into her palm in pleasure.

"Asta, I am feeling really frisky right now, I have that need again. Do you think maybe we can find someplace private right now? We've got time and I don't think we'll be taking on any missions anytime soon.~" Noelle asked in a cute and flustered voice, putting on a more bashful and demure demeanor that made her utterly adorable in Asta's eyes. She was batting her eyelashes at him and biting down on her bottom lip, eager to hear a resounding 'yes' from her stud of a boyfriend.

Lucky for her, Asta was just itching to have a quickie with her as well.

"Heh, anything for you, Noelle. How about we take care of that 'Need' right here down in this alleyway? It's nice, dark, and tucked away from public eyes.~" Asta suggested with a grin, jabbing a thumb in the direction of a vacant and thankfully spacious alleyway down to their right.

Noelle looked on ahead and nodded swiftly with a flirtatious smile, anxious to have her boyfriend plow her once again in the ass, right here and right now. She was gushing giddily with excitement and followed him into the crevice between buildings, leaving behind her Royal pride in order to have him ravish her body to his liking. Little did they know that a pair of olive green eyes followed them the entire way from the market, and had been doing so until she had to scurry in hiding behind a wall to keep a close eye on them still. This pair of lovestruck, anxious-looking eyes, belonged to none other than Mimosa Vermillion of the Golden Dawn Magic Knight Brigade.

The buxom, chestnut-haired girl had been lusting after Asta ever since she saw him and Noelle go at it like animals down in the dungeon. From his ripped body, to his kind nature, to his overall gutsiness and unwavering ferocity in the face of danger. Everything about the lad made Mimosa lust after him with every part of her body yearning for his touch, she was in love and she knew it. She wanted what her cousin had and hoped Asta would be willing to share himself between the two Royal Princesses, not knowing that part of her mentality came from the Devil's Mana influencing her love-addled mind.

"Asta-Kun and Noelle, t-they're going to do it again? Here?!" Mimosa asked herself, feeling anxious and worried somebody might catch them in the act, so she kept a careful eye on her surroundings to make sure they were interrupted while they got down to business. That aside, she too was feeling very frisky with sexual need simply by standing near and about to watch the perverted act of public sex take place.

The girl was positively red in the face right now, gnashing her thighs together and biting down on her bottom lip with eyes focused solely Asta's ripped upper body as he held her cousin's cheeks into his hands. Looking into each other's eyes for a moment, he pulled her onto his lips and let his mouth swallow her own, making out with Noelle like longtime lovers.

"Mmmmm~~ Hmmm. Asta....!~" Noelle breathed out in soft gasps of air between each kiss. They shared in each other's saliva as she hiked her right leg up to curl around his side, clutching his thigh and grinding herself on his dick, which was beginning to push out through his pants quite noticeably.

Together Mimosa watched their tongues writhe about, sliding into each other without shame and filled with nothing but passion. This caused her insides to stir even more with want, causing her to clutch the side of the wall she was hiding behind and watching them with perverse glee and fascination. Not too long into their heated make-out session, Noelle pulled back from Asta's face, leaving a trail of saliva bridging between her lips and his before turning around so that her ass stuck out before him quite noticeably.

Mimosa swallowed her excitement, watching Asta lift up the white parts of her outfit before getting to the short skirt of her purple dress. Noelle simply placed her hands against the side of the building, biting down on her lip and looking at Asta from the edge of her shoulder with an anxious look on her face. He lifted up her skirt, revealing her frilled, purple lace thong hugging the crevice of her buttocks as well as her aching pussy. Mimosa honestly saw a dampened patch of moisture appearing between her legs when he did.

Without realizing it, Mimosa was being watched by Asta himself from out of the corner of his eyes, knowing that she was there playing voyeur to yet another romp he was having with Noelle. He could sense the increasing thirst for his cock inside of the buxom girl, anxious to take care of her himself once he calls her out into the open after he's done with Noelle's ass for the time being. Hooking a thumb around each end of her thong's waistbands, he slid down Noelle's undergarment down to her thighs, allowing her buttocks and pussy to be exposed nakedly in all their glory.

"Ahmmhm!~ Aasta....please...hurry.~" She whispered urgently, shaking her ass side to side in a vivacious manner, giving Asta's wiener all it needed to bulk up even more from inside of his pants until he pulled them down.

Out came his thickened, mammoth-sized cocked throbbing with a large pair of balls underneath his scrotum, instantly making Mimosa fantasize about having that masterpiece between her voluminous tits. The Princess had crept a hand down her thighs, rubbing her crotch through her clothing as she watched Asta guide it over into Noelle's ass, pushing into her anus slowly and letting Noelle take the full brunt of his cock into while clutching the wall with her nails.

"Nngghhhh! Astaaaaa...!~" She whimpered, painfully at first, but soon found joy and pleasure in having her buttocks spread out to quash the insides over Asta's meat stick.

*Plop!*

Noelle made a comically tearful face, feeling her boyfriend's shaft dive deeper into her anus, spreading her asshole, and making her feel stiffness between her legs while she struggled to stand straight. Meanwhile, Asta felt the warm, damp muscle of Noelle's rectum clutching his length the further he got in. He was leaning back a little to swallow himself at the sight of her gorgeous yet adorably ample ass pushing into his waist as he took her.

Mimosa let out a sharp gasp of excitement as she watched her cousin take it in the rear, giving her a reason to begin stroking her mons through her outfit in furious masturbatory excitement.

"Aagghhhh! Asta....! Ohhh....yeah! Please....fuck me!" Noelle begged, sticking her ass out even more to where she felt her cheeks pressed against Asta's waist firmly.

"Mmmhmm, Noelle...oh you bet I will. I love how nice and tight your ass feels around my dick.~" Asta grinned, clutching the sides of Noelle's waist with his hands and beginning to bottom out of her booty with salacious thrusts delivered unto her cheeks.

Soon the clapping of flesh began anew with Asta pounding himself into Noelle's ass from behind, making her groan coarsely in rapturous pleasure right there in the alleyway.

"Uuaaaghh...! Aahh...aahh...ah...aahh...aaahhh! Asta....! Oohhh, I love you so much!~" Noelle breathed out, tilting back her head and closing her eyes with mouth falling open silently in euphoria. Her body was jostling back and forth against the surface of the wall she was pressed against. Her cheeks jiggled and slammed voraciously into Asta's waist, feeling his cock churning the insides of her ass thoroughly, especially as he began to pick up speed and slam into her like crazy.

Mimosa let out a silent gasp of excitement into her other hand as she watched Asta pick up the pace, slamming into Noelle's creamy buttocks with intensified thrusting rhythm. His hips were slamming at a high-speed pace, making them look like they were blurring in front of Mimosa's eyes as she followed the sight of his cock sinking into Noelle's booty like clockwork. Asta grunted as he felt her insides squeezing gradually tighter around his meat, to the point he felt like blowing his load inside of the girl's butt already, but alas, he held firm with resolve on making her cum fast. Her cheeks vibrated even faster, slapping rapturously into his waist as he pressed himself into her backside with hands sliding up from her hips to grab onto her chest!

"Ggyaaaghhh!~ Ohhhhh! Asta.....!" Noelle mewed loudly, closing her eyes tight while her twintails flailed around to the intense thrusts he was giving to her.

She felt his fingers digging into her breasts through her clothing, squeezing them and fondling them around in circles. This caused her no end of sensational pleasure, making her folds gush all over the ground while her legs continuously bucked inwardly to Asta's pelvis hammering into her ass.

Mimosa had to stifle herself in order to keep her presence hidden away, she covered her mouth up tightly into one hand while sliding down the other to where a finger dipped into her pussy like so. She furiously ground herself on her hand while watching Asta bottom out of Noelle's ass like a literal Demon, he made her wear a goofy ahegao smile on her face as he kept on fucking her into the wall consistently for a couple more minutes until she let out a wailing groan into the sky.

Suddenly his waist rampantly plowed into her ass, making her toss back her head and yell out into the air with an orgasmic smile on her face. Noelle shuddered explicitly in orgasmic ecstasy, shuddering about and cumming all over the ground, littering her thighs, and feeling her anus clutch Asta's beef to the point he shoved everything inside and came inside of her soon after!

"Ggghhhh! N-Noelle! Here I come!" Asta announced, gritting his teeth as he was feeling the tight suction of Noelle's tight anus clutching him to the point he unleashed a thick gallon-sized load inside!

Mimosa's eyes sparkled as she flicked her clit and came to the fantasy of being in Noelle's place. She jostled about out in the open with her pussy gushing all over her fingers, watching as Asta's shaft engorged as he swelled with ejaculate, pushing thick amounts of seed directly into the Silva Princess's bowels! This, of course, brought Noelle to orgasm right after, causing her knees to shake and tremble as she received her boyfriend's seed.

"Gguuagggghhh!~" She whimpered loudly with eyes going crossed and lips being pursed tightly in the mind-numbing climax.

*Spluurrt...splurrt...splurrtt..splurrt..splurrt..splurrt...splurrtt..splurttt!*

"Asta.....!~" Noelle cried out in happiness, feeling the warmth of his seed pour into her rectum, filling it out the point some of it began oozing out onto the floor for about a minute or two tops.

Her body twitched and lurched some more while struggling to stand straight, feeling Asta fill out her ass thoroughly before eventually pulling out. A wet 'Plop' resulted and Asta left Noelle's anus gaping openly with sperm oozing until she pulled up her thong.

"Ooooh, I'm going to change my panties when I get back. Aahh.~" She sighed in relief and turned around, ready to make out with her boyfriend some more until she saw that he was pointing in the direction of 'somebody' hidden away behind a stack of crates.

Asta's sly smile was an indication of mischief in the making, but Noelle was sure she knew who it was ever since leaving the catacombs the last time around.

'Let's go sneak up on her, she's distracted because she came too hard while watching us do it. Wanna invite your big breasted cousin to get in on the action, Noelle?~" Asta asked, seeing her nod gleefully since she was feeling kinky enough to watch her boyfriend ravish Mimosa next.

Thoughts about including her sister Nebra came to mind, as well as any other Royal she knew within the Magical Knights by proxy. Nodding her head, she followed him as he quickly pulled up his pants and quietly snuck over to Mimosa's location.

Back over where Mimosa was at, the buxom brunette was sprawled on the floor, leaning against a crate with her hand still down her shorts, breathing heavily as she had an amazing climax just from watching them.

"Huff..huff..huff..huff! Asta-Kun.....!..I want to be the one you'll do next. I'll do anything since I..I fell in love with you at first sight down in that dungeon." Mimosa said to herself while panting, keeping a gentle blush going on her face as she slid her head out of the lower region of her puffy pumpkin shorts, revealing her fingers to be dripping in her essence.

Mimosa examined her sticky fingers and was about to clean her digits off by flicking them away, but suddenly a hand came out of nowhere and grabbed her wrist in a gentle yet firm manner.

"Gya! W-wha.....?!" She shrieked quietly to herself and looked up to see the face of Asta himself, leaning over the crate she was sitting next to, smiling slyly at her as he brought them up to his mouth. "A-A-A-Asta-Kun.....?! Oh no...! I was too loud and you found me out.....!"

"That's right, but first.....let me see what your taste like, Mimosa-chan.~" Asta said, causing her to shiver even more as she blushed redder than the ripest tomatoes.

Asta brought her hand up to his face, allowing his tongue to come out and lick up all of Mimosa's juices from off of her fingers in an erotic and enticing manner. The girl was feeling her heart racing a mile a minute as she watched, feeling horny all over again and bucking her thighs together as a result.

"Hmmm. *Schlupp! Schlupp!*...tasty. You have a nice, tangy flavor, Mimosa-chan. Did watching me and Noelle, again, really excite you that much?" He asked, shocking the girl as he finished cleaning off her fingers and gently pulled up to her feet.

She saw Noelle standing nearby with her arms crossed and a smug smile on her lips when catching Mimosa red-handed in the act of spying on them. The two of them waited to hear her answer as the bashful brunette fidgeted with her fingers, feeling shyer than she's ever been until she blurted it out!

"I...I'm in love with Asta too! Okay!? T-there! I said it." She revealed, trembling with embarrassment and seeing no difference in Noelle's and Asta's expressions until the former came up behind her, putting his hands around her waist in intimate fashion. Mimosa turned her head to the side to see Asta up close and personal with her, feeling her heart race even more as she felt the increasing need to strip naked before him and ask him to breed her right here on the ground. "A-Asta-kun?"

"Mimosa-chan, all you had to do was ask, you know. And for the record, I want you as badly as you want me, Noelle won't mind sharing, right?" Asta cooed darkly, bringing his hands up to her chest and squeezing each of her doughy mounds into his fingers, causing the girl to whimper helplessly with excitement.

"Hm-hm, that's right, Mimosa. We can totally share Asta-Kun together, just you and me.....and many other women too. He's just that much of a man that one girl can't satisfy him by herself." Noelle offered shocking Mimosa and walked over to stand intimately close to her cousin with her hands caressing her face.

"N-Noelle....I...yes! Please, yes! I want him to take me and give me the same magical time he had with you down there on the floor of the catacombs." Mimosa admitted, affectionately cradling Asta's head from the side with her right arm. she was between both affectionate lovers, wanting nothing more than to indulge in Asta's manhood with Noelle tag-teaming with her.

"Heh, good, let's head back to the Bulls' base then, back to my room." Asta suggested coyly, feeling Mimosa grind her plump buttocks against his crotch before they made their way back to the Bulls' Pen.

Arriving back at the base in almost no time at all, Asta ushered Mimosa and Noelle to his somewhat cluttered bedroom by himself. Vanessa wasn't around, likely either drinking herself stupid or out taking care of some mission work to earn more Black Bull prestige with the Magical Knights. Asta rarely knew what she got up to, but she did pay him visits in bed either in the night or early in the morning for a quick fuck. Guiding Mimosa to his bed, he watched as she eagerly removed her Golden Dawn cloak and pulled off her puffy top, revealing her obvious pair of E-cup sized titties in all their naked glory.

"Gnhhh! W-wow, Mimosa....you have such nice, large boobs.~" Asta giggled while watching Noelle cross her arms in a pout before reaching behind her cousin to squeeze each of her tits between her hands in an act of mischief.

"Kyaaaghhh! N-Noelle.....!" Mimosa cried out, blushing madly and feeling sensitive stimulation coming from her overly large tits at the hands of her cousin.

"Ha, big boobs or not, you're still squeamish where it counts, Mimosa.~" Noelle giggled, earning a laugh from Asta as he watched the two girls of royalty struggle with each other until they rolled onto his bed in a sandwich position.

Noelle hastily removed her cloak and pulled up the white part of her outfit, slipping down the top of her purple dress to reveal her naked and ample pair of C-cups to rub into Mimosa's set. The latter whimpered pleasantly once she felt her cousin's nipples rubbing against her own once she set down upon her, it was an erotic sight to be sure and Asta was enjoyign every second of it. He was seeing Noelle's right thigh up come up between Mimosa's legs, rubbing her sex through her puffy pumpkin shorts in order to get the girl wet and ready for Asta's meat.

'Man, that is hot, I will not lie, I envy you, Asta. Ke ke ke ke.' Asta's inner Devil cackled as he watched the sight of both girls beginning to slip each other's clothes off one article at a time. 'I gotta admit, part of me does want to undo the Anti-pregnancy charm just to see what would happen if you knocked up not one, but two princesses of the Clover Kingdom royalty. Not everyone can say they slept with two teenage princesses at the same time, you know.'

'Yeah, but I'm not going to do that to Mimosa nor Noelle, it's way too soon for that kind of thing, no? You said it yourself.' Asta argued, feeling his Devil shrug his arms with indifference as he slipped back into his subconscious, ready to watch the show.

'Just saying, you gotta admit, it'd be hot. Dominating both lineages of royalty and making both Asta-hungry girls forever lust after your cock. A King's harem does start with royalty, but that's just food for thought. Right now, go and enjoy yourself, don't worry about me doing anything. I won't shut off the charm anytime soon, but that might change with other, more prideful women like Captain Roselei of the Blue Roses.' The Devil chuckled, making Asta wonder just how he got his kicks by tampering with the spell to keep his virility in check.

Paying it no further mind, Asta started pulling up shirt, catching the attention of both princesses as they sat naked on his bed, wearing nothing except their respective pairs of panties. Mimosa's garments were all over the floor alongside Noelle's, both girls were as naked as can be with their tits out and creamy bodies thoroughly exposed outside of their panties covering up their pussies. Asta was stiffening up already and pulled down his pants to unveil his large manhood in all of its thick, throbbing glory, making both Noelle and Mimosa salivate upon seeing it.

'W-wow, Asta-kun looks so much bigger up close.' Mimosa thought, seeing Asta stand nakedly with pride in his short yet muscular appearance, causing both girls to blush intensely as he started coming near.

Without saying a word, he walked up to Mimosa first, gently cupping her face into his right hand and leaning down onto her lips, swallowing them into his with an intimate and passionate lip-lock that took her breath away.

"Mhm! Hmmmmm. *Asta-Kun*" She moaned, lowering her eyes and basking in the bliss of tasting Asta's saliva mingle with her own while he intimately made out with her right in front of Noelle.

The Silva heiress watched with enthused delight, seeing Mimosa melt at Asta's touch. He hungrily sucked open her lips and slithered his tongue down into her throat, tasting her flavor while lowering his free left hand to grope one of her tits between his fingers. With a gentle squeeze, Asta caused Mimosa to stiffen up considerably in a wild, simulated fashion.

"Mmngghghhhh! *Asta-Kuuun!*" She moaned loudly inside of his lips, feeling her heart racing as she felt her breasts getting expertly fondled by the short, masculine young man.

Noelle was feeling anxious to get in on the action herself after seeing her boyfriend raise one of her cousin's legs up high, letting it dangle in the air as he got into the position to fuck her right there on the bed.

'G-Gugh! Stupid Asta-Kun! Don't you dare go off making it with my cousin without including me in on the action!' She thought vehemently and crawled over to where her cousin's head lay, making Mimosa look up to see Noelle pulling her panties down her thighs as she placed her kneecaps just beyond her face.

"N-Noelle?" She whimpered quietly, still feeling breathless after Asta had pulled back from her mouth, watching her chest shake and heave as they focused on Noelle Silva's glistening pussy coming into the picture.

Her creamy, glistening velvet folds were exposed with only a slight tuft of silver pubic hair above. Noelle was blushing madly right now for she had never indulged in such a lewd act of intimacy with another woman before, but since it was to stimulate Asta's animal-like libido, she would be okay with ravishing her cousin before his eyes. Mimosa, likewise, felt excited by the ensuing debauchery about to take place, making her insides feel more sensitive while Asta's large cock hovered just beyond her groin.

Noelle spread open her lips, showing Mimosa the ruby-colored insides of sweet flesh, then sliding a tongue across her lips as she got on top of her head, ready for her cousin to eat her out while she takes care of Asta above. Flinging her arms around her boyfriend's neck, Noelle looked into his eyes and smiled lovingly with a flirtatious smile.

"Well? Go on ahead and fuck her, Asta-Kun. I know Mimosa is as pure a virgin as they come...like I was before you got to me.~" She leaned in closely and ran her tongue along his right cheek with a smile. "Make her scream between my legs."

Hearing that riled Asta's engine completely, making his cock lurch with excitement as he grabbed the hem of Mimosa's panties, pulling them down her creamy legs without utmost haste!

"Gya! A-Asta-Kun...!~" Mimosa squeaked out, feeling embarrassed by having her pussy exposed to another's eyes for the first time in her entire life, at least in a romantic sense anyway. The girl was positively aroused by seeing him leer hungrily at her folds, partially wanting to have him eat her out before fucking her entirely.

'Fresh meat. I just know she'll be a screamer alright, she's got that sensitive feel to her smooth, perfectly soft body.' Asta reasoned and grabbed the thick of his cock, guiding it over to Mimosa's pussy and letting the bulbous head dip into her quim, slowly guiding it in.

"Mmm!" Mimosa whimpered at first, closing her eyes at first, but then feeling the slick sensation of her pussy walls spreading apart once Asta thrust himself in.

"Kyaaggg---mmmmh!!*" She was quickly smothered by Noelle's body once she gently slammed down onto her face, muffling the girl's screaming mouth with her pussy and feeling her slowly eat her out.

"Aaahhh! Aaahhh.....! M-Mimosa...ghhhh!~" Noelle whimpered loudly, biting down on her bottom lip and feeling her cousin embrace this raunchy situation by grabbing her thighs and running her tongue around her mound in soft circles.

Mimosa was still being overwhelmed by Asta's cock steadily cleaving through her virgin pussy, making its way towards her hymen while she ate out Noelle's juicy folds. Her tongue swirled around, glazing her labia with her saliva and prodding her opening till she was chin-deep in her wetness.

*Schlupp..schlpp..schlpp..shlupp..schlppp...schlpp!*

Noelle was positively overwhelmed by the sensation of having this girl tongue out her pussy like a miniature tornado. She started slowly rowing her pelvis forward, grinding her buttocks onto Mimosa's forehead and feeling her insides getting scraped out by her tongue, watching Asta sink him half-way and mee the barrier of her hymen.

"Alright, here...we...go! Hup!" He grunted, and thrust himself in, popping Mimosa's cherry and making her scream loudly into Noelle's thighs, furthering her pleasure by proxy of vibrating her sex with her wailing moans.

"*Aaagggghh! Asta-Kun...! Asta-Kuuuunn! Ohhhhh!" She hummed loudly, causing her body to lurch and writhe underneath with legs wiggling around in the air as he began bucking into her steadily.

One thrust became two, and so on and so forth with Asta beginning to fuck Mimosa's pussy raw with a smile on his face. His member cleaved through her deflowered insides, churning her walls pleurably while also nullifying the pain using some of Devil Mana. slick squelches of sensation started to fill the air as he began picking up the pace, slamming into Mimosa's tight sex like there was no tomorrow.

'Wooaaaahhh! Asta-kun! He has really....taken my virginity! I love him! S-so much....! Aaagggghh! We'll be happily married in the future, Noelle can share him too and we'll make love to him all day long inside of Clover Kingdom's castle! Asta-kuuunn!~' Mimosa screamed out mentally, feeling his cock plunging into her cervix, battering her sweet spot as he pinned her lower half into the bed from above.

Thick, pelvic slams of his waist collided with her body, making Noelle wriggle around a bit while remaining seated on top of her face. The lithe, silver-haired girl mewed and moaned to Mimosa's tonguing, leaning forward so that she could share the same kind of make-out frenzy her cousin had with Asta moments ago. And Asta, being who he was, reciprocated immediately.

"Come here, you. I wouldn't dream of leaving you out." Asta said, taking Noelle's waist into his hands and keeping his pelvis rhythmically bucking into Mimosa's body while doing so. He wrapped his lips around Noelle's, embracing her fully and sliding his tongue down her throat with Noelle humping Mimosa's face in languid tempo.

Together all three parties rowed back and forth into each other, Mimosa gorged on Noelle's sex, Asta plowed away into Mimosa's highly-sensitive pussy like an animal, all while tasting Noelle's lips amidst this three-way romp of one Devil fucking two Royals at the same time.

"Mmhhh! Asta-kun!~" Mimosa moaned inside of Noelle's quim, feeling the girl cum all over her face after a few more minutes of tongue-fucking.

Noelle rose up a few inches and shuddered explicitly with a loud mew of pleasure, cum came raining down all over Mimosa's face in the process, leaving Asta to latch his lips onto one of her nipples next. With a hard 'Kiss' of his lips, he grabbed onto Noelle's other tit into his hand and squeezed it between his fingers, causing the girl no end of orgasmic pleasure.

"Ggghhh!~ Hnnghhh! Asta!....Asta...ooh.....yes!" Noelle cried out,, closing her eyes blissfully with a lip-bitten smile on her face.

Meanwhile, down below where Asta plowed relentlessly into Mimosa's cunt, he felt the girl's legs climb up and wrap tightly around his backside while still hammering away into her sex. He could feel her silken walls beginning to clutch his length intensely, telling him that she was about to cum like a waterfall just like Noelle. Feeling him groan into her chest, Noelle saw Asta pull back from her tits, leaving her nipples tender with one of them coated in his saliva.

"Hhhh! Uuuhhh! She's about to come soon and take me with her, Noelle! I think your cousin has even been constantly squirting all over me since we began.~" Asta jokes, earning a coy smile from Noelle as she dismounted Mimosa's face and sat back onto the bed.

She watched his meat disappear into the girl's face, sliding in and out with masterful precision and doing so at a steady pace. Meanwhile, the girl's tits continued flailing about while she was enjoying Asta ravaging her in a basic missionary position. Soon enough, she started breathing even faster letting out rapturous gaps of ecstasy and arching her spine in a predetermined orgasm wrought by sexual frenzy.

"Uuaaahh! Aaahh...aahh...aahh..aahh..aaaahhh! Asta-kuuunnn! Kyaagghhh!~" She cried out, thrusting her breasts forward and shaking with intensity as she came right there underneath the boy's body.

Feeling her walls clutch his meat, Asta growled like a demon and shoved every thick, pulsating inch of his cock inside of her womb, making it so that the thick ropes of sperm came spilling out into the girl's baby-maker at launch! He growled loudly, enjoying the feeling of Mimosa's sex milking him for his cock's worth.

*Splurrt...splurrt..splurrt....splurrt..splurt....splurrt!*

Mimosa smiled deliriously in happiness and pleasure, feeling as though he impregnated her ten times over by how much he came inside of her right now. Asta's pelvis bucked into her waist rapidly over the next two minutes, leaving the inside of her pussy stuffed to the brim once he had finally finished cumming inside. With a groan, he slowly pulled back and let Mimosa's cunt gush with a splotch of cum oozing out.

Asta stood back onto his kneecaps, keeping his erection standing with a full set of balls and a grin focused on Noelle when he looked in her direction.

"Your turn.~" He grinned, causing Noelle to crawl over to him like a waiting concubine about to be bred, but then they heard Mimosa's voice call out to them in a raspy breath.

"W-wiat...*Huff...huff*...Asta-Kun. I-I want to do something special for you first, before you take care of Noelle." Mimosa called out to him, struggling to breathe after having the orgasm of a lifetime. She sat up and got on all fours, crawling towards him as well with a finger gestured to her breasts.

She smiled coyly at Asta and fluttered her eyelashes at him, feeling adventurous now that she had lost her virginity to the man she loved.

'Hmmmhm, I may not have her beaten yet when it comes to breast size, but he did take me first and I am his official girlfriend right now. Maybe I should let her have this.' Noelle thought to herself, crawling towards Asta with Mimosa in tow, both princesses hungered to feel his dick wedged inside of their bodies again.

So they pushed him down onto the bed and laid Asta back, allowing his cock to remain standing upright like a spire while Mimosa grabbed each of her tits readily with a playful smile on her face. Asta waited was filled with perverse glee as he watched Mimosa bring her lusciously-large tits to gather around the thick of his shaft, squeezing each orb around his length and smothering his cock as best she could due to his unusual size. He immediately felt the warmth of her melons swallowing up nearly two-thirds of his cock, causing Asta no end of pleasure as he feels the softness of her breasts sliding down his cock like so.

"Hngggghh! M-Mimosa-chan.....agghh!~ You've got to have the fluffiest, nicest breasts I've ever felt swallowing my dick." Asta complimented, making her smile happily as she began working her breasts up and down his cock slowly, swallowing his shaft in a sea of adipose flesh.

She started sliding them down his cock, then squeezing them tightly as she brought them up again, making Asta experience the joys of a breast job coming from a Royal, buxom beauty like her. He will be happy to make her his wife one day and pump full of a lot of children once he does the same to Sister Lily.

"Hahaah!~ I'm so happy to hear you say that, Asta-Kun! I love you so very much!~" She gushed, bringing her tits up and down even faster, sliding them past his cock as fast as she could in order to bring him off with her cans.

Meanwhile, Noelle crawled in closely from the side, bringing her face to hover directly over the bulbous tip of Asta's length still sticking out from between her cousin's breasts. Tossing her boyfriend a wink she brought her head down upon his length with mouth becoming wide open, inhaling his cock into her mouth and swallowing as much of the head as she could.

*Schlupp!*

"Mhmmhm...*Asta-Kun*...mhmm..mhmm..mhmm..mhmm...hmm!" She started bobbing her head enthusiastically between Mimosa's fluffy breasts. Asta was feeling the intense suction of pleasure coming from her mouth as she swallowed the thick surface of his glans past her lips, pumping him vigorously while Mimosa kept her tits smothering his shaft in tandem.

"Hngggghh! Noelle-chan.....agghh!~" Asta moaned out, watching as the two royals worked his cock with gusto, leaving him to bring a finger over to Noelle's perky ass as it remained nearby. She had straddled the bed surface from the side, exposing her buttocks and pussy, but giving Asta a means to prod a finger into the cusp of her tight, squishy asshole from the side.

Noelle instantly perked up, feeling her buttocks getting violated by one of Asta's fingers. She was making her anus clench tightly around it as he began fucking her with his hand, smacking his palm into the surface of her ass while doing so.

'Uuggghh! That feels so.....good....ahhh!~' She screamed out in thought, keeping her mouth glued to the tip of his cock,, but now exerted much more force in her suction by squeezing her lips tightly around his glans.

Mimosa watched her cousin writhe uncomfortably, seeing Asta's hand driving itself into her ass with a finger prodding her anus as though he were fucking Noelle in the butt all over again. It was such an exotic sight to watch her cousin moan and writhe about, swallowing as much of the upper-third of his meat as she could into her lips while moaning constantly in response to Asta's actions with her buttocks. This prompted Mimosa to start swiveling her breasts around on his shaft in circles some more, she made sure to squeeze both breasts into the sides, squeezing them while continuing her attack on Asta's cock.

"Ghghnnhhh! Keep....going....!~" He moaned, enjoying how soft Mimosa's tits were as she kept on humping his dick with them smothering it in between. Noelle continued sucking on his cock languidly in passion, slurping on the head for minutes on end while feeling his finger probe deep into her pussy next.

*Schlupp..shclupp..schlupp...schlupp..schlupp..schlupp!*

"Mhmm..mhmm..mhmm..mhmm..mhmm! *Pop!* Oooohhhh! I'm cumming...ohhh Asta! I'm cumming!" Noelle cried out, tossing back her head and letting her mouth fall open until Mimosa gently grabbed her cheeks into one of her hands, swallowing her cousin's lips into her own in a languid lesbian embrace that Asta loved to see.

"Mmmhmm!~" Mimosa took her by surprise once she started making out with her out of nowhere like that. Mimosa's tongue curled around Noelle's lips in an erotic manner, tasting her before plunging into her throat, entangling the girl's appendage with her own as they continued going with this embrace.

Soon enough, Noelle closed her eyes and started kissing back just as fiercely, taking her cousin's breath away with her tongue rolling into hers from within her mouth. Together their tongues meshed languidly into each other with Noelle taking dominance over Mimosa, the two of them swallowed and savored the taste of each other's saliva all while Asta watched with a furious erection building up pressure.

'Ghghhnhh! That's just so hot! Gagghhh! I'm going to blow!' He mentally announced and felt his cock begin lurching from inside of Mimosa's cleavage like so.

His cock throbbed and pulsed furiously like an organ, catching the girls' attention and bringing their embrace down to the level of Asta's dick. Mimosa took her breasts off of his cock to allow them the opportunity to taste him together.

"Asta-Kun.....!~" Mimosa hummed as she brought her face down to the center of his dick, she started running her tongue along the sides of his shaft while Noelle kept her lips sealed around the tip, bobbing her face rapidly on it as she went.

The two of them, Nobles of Royalty within the Clover Kingdom hierarchy of Mages, were now hungrily working their mouths all over Asta's cock without a hint of shame. Just how he likes it. He watched Noelle brushing a lock of hair aside as she began taking him deeper into her mouth, swallowing half of him down her throat with her tongue swiveling around his meat with utmost gusto. Mimosa was much the same, except that she ran her tongue slowly all over the underside of his cock with a smile, occasionally squeezing his balls between her fingers as they took care of him together in a combined effort.

*Schlupp..schlupp..schlupp..schlupp..schlupp..schlupp!*

Moans and slick, licking noises from all around could be heard while Asta watched them taste his cock eagerly for the next several minutes. Before long, he started feeling his arousal reach its peak, allowing his cock to throb and burst between the lips of Noelle and Mimosa as they shared a lesbian kiss over the tip of his crown! With a coarse shout of pleasure, he bucked his hips upward and allowed his cock to burst with thick streams of semen shooting into the sky to land on their faces!

Both girls cried out in joy, watching as hic cum plastered their faces in abundance. Noelle held out her tongue and caught as much as she could into her mouth, Mimosa simply let any drops of sperm fall into hers while keeping her breasts held together to gather the pearly essence between each breast. Like a volcano eruption, Asta came like a natural disaster for nearly a minute or two on end with both royal girls becoming painted in his seed once he was done.

"Aaahh.....much better! You two better clean each other up. That way I can get very excited, to the point I'll ram you both into a wall in turns." Asta instructed, making Noelle and Mimosa look at each other and shrugging before engaging in another steamy lesbian kiss.

"Mmmhmm!~ *Noelle...!*" Mimosa moaned with eyes closed and tongue cleaning up off the sperm resting inside of her cousin's mouth. She ran her hands through her silver hair, embracing her cousin fully as she ingested more of their boyfriend's sperm with her tongue curling around her own.

"Mmmmm, Mimosa.....!" Noelle moaned back, tasting her saliva and enjoying how dominant the seemingly passive girl was being when making out with her.

Their tongues snowballed Asta's cum between their lips, making a messy show in which they clean each other off in a roughly erotic manner. They held each other's hands, interlocking their fingers, as they continued doing this for minutes on end until they stopped to gather their breath. Both Princesses were left heaving, their faces were left messy with cum and saliva as they turned their heads in Asta's direction, seeing him get up onto his feet with a cock standing furiously erect once again.

He was ready to go to town on both of them now, starting with Noelle since Mimosa already had her turn.

"You first, Noelle-chan.~" He growled and dove in for the attack, causing Noelle to screech out in giddiness and laughter right away.

*****

Letting another shrill moan of ecstasy, Noelle Silva was pinned against the wall with her legs dangling over Asta's chest. She was hanging onto his shoulders with desperation as he impaled her pussy thoroughly with his cock once again. The folds of her vagina spread out and clutched his phallus, leaving her insides to be churned by his meat once it had entered her cervix and pushed through on its way inside of her womb! The sensation still rattled Noelle like no other, causing her legs to twitch and her toes to wriggle, especially as he held onto her ass with feverish thrusting to follow. Asta's waist slammed frenziedly into her body, making her buttocks bounce and jiggle when slamming into his crotch!

Mimosa watched from underneath his legs, reaching up to resume lathering his swaying balls with her tongue, watching Noelle being fucked voraciously like a whimpering animal at Asta's mercy. Her folds gushed as they continuously squelched around his length, repeatedly being impaled by Asta's magnificent cock right above Mimosa's heart-filled eyes.

Together they went at it in this exchange with the once thorny princess becoming enthralled by Asta's body, loving him indefinitely while hanging on his shoulders for dear life while he fucked her.

"Uuaaahh..aahh...ahh..aahh..aahh..aaahh..a.ahhh! Asta.....! Love you! I love yooouuu...aaahhh!~" She cried out one final time before shuddering spastically with climax. Her pussy gripped the head of the boy's meat with all the strength she could muster, causing him to slide into the wall of her womb and let out thick amounts of sperm soon after!

"Ggghhh! T-take this, Noelle! Uhhh...I love you too! You'll stay in my room from now, you and Mimosa can spend as many nights here as you like." Asta growled, enjoying the feeling of Noelle's pussy milking his member for more of his seed.

He pumped and pumped her insides thoroughly, to the point some of it seeped out onto Mimosa's face below, once again painting her in his seed she gladly cleaned off with her tongue and her fingers when he was finished.

Letting out a sigh of post-coital exhaustion, Noelle slumped into his arms and was laid down onto the bed in a sweaty, naked heap and a smile on her face. She was oozing Asta's sperm from her gaping pussy, making a mess of his bedsheets as he gestured to Mimosa to get on all fours in front of him on the floor. The buxom Vermillion girl immediately obeyed him and wriggled her plump, heart-shaped ass at him with a smile on her face before spreading her cheeks open for him.

Asta was confused by this at first but then saw her look at him from the corner of her eye with an enthusiastic look on her face.

"Just like before, Asta-kun! Like when you took Noelle from behind...through my buttocks. I want to feel it too! I need to have you ravage my ass like you did with her!" She cried out excitedly, making Asta chuckle to himself as he welled with pride.

'Heh, who knew Princesses like it dirty, eh? I'm guessing they're all secretly butt sluts yearning for a good, strong man like yourself to fuck them sideways into a coma.' The Devil commented, making Asta grin darkly as he got behind Mimosa after putting his hands on her cheeks.

"If you insist, but try not to make too loud a noise when you feel it 'Breaking' you apart, Mimosa-chan. Noelle didn't take it too well the first time either you know." Asta cautioned as he spread open the girl's buttocks, showing him the soft, tight-looking pucker hole that was her anus as he guided his dick over without using his fingers.

Once the knob of his cockhead pushed into the opening, Mimosa quietly shivered, clutching her nails with increasing anxiety as she felt Asta sink himself in with a firm shove.

"Nnggghhhhh! K-kkyaaagghhhh.....! Nnggghhh! Asta...ahhh....!~" She cried out, biting down on her bottom lip with eyes closing tight. She was feeling Asta's length burrow slowly into her ass, gigantic as it was, and it made Mimosa feel like it was going to actually break her in half.

It was exactly as he said it would be, judging by her reaction. Still, she held out and hung her head down, trying to adapt to the first-time sensation of having her anus violated by Asta's large cock. Her body quivered and jostled about helplessly underneath his grasp, that is until she suddenly felt a sort of 'Magic' flowing through her body and causing her pain to cease immediately.

'Oohhh, it feels...nice now, better actually. Mmmhmm, amazing....it...actually feels really good, having Asta-kun plow my ass like this.~' She thought to herself, relaxing and beginning to throw her buttocks back onto his crotch, fucking herself on his waist while he began pumping into her ass full-force.

'You're welcome.' The Inner Devil cackled humorously, watching as Mimosa started to wear an ahogao smile on her face once they really started going at it.

Asta's hips slammed into her thighs and buttocks at blinding speed, making loud slapping noises fill the room, barely drowned out by Mimosa's wailing moans coming out nonstop. Soon her entire voluptuous frame was swaying back and forth, allowing her tits to jostle and jiggle as she was impaled nearly all the way onto Asta's cock. A wide, gaping smile was on her lips and a faraway look was reflected in her eyes, little heart-shaped sigils were shown in her irises for she was in love with Asta completely. Now and forever his slave.

"Uuagghhh! Aahh..aahh..aahh..aahh...aahh..aahh..aaahh!~ Asta-Kun! Asta-Kuuuuunn! Oooaagghhh!~" Mimosa cried out like this continuously, feeling every push of his length hollow out her buttocks nonstop for minutes on end.

Their bodies collided together constantly in a back and forth of raw animal sex, eventually leading to Asta bending over to spoon her backside with a smile. He grabbed onto her flopping beach-ball sized tits and squeezed each one into his hands while still fucking her. This led to Mimosa beginning to shudder in climax and was about to scream out in ecstasy until he covered her mouth with his own, embracing her in a loving kiss that she reciprocated when doing so.

Together their moans filled each other's mouths, followed by Mimosa shuddering climax, clenching her asshole around Asta's meat while leaking her cum all over the floor at the same time. The constrictions of her rectum prompted the boy to buck roughly into her ass a few more times before finally cumming himself, he shoved every inch of his length into her asshole, filling up the entirety of her anal cavity with thick amounts of sperm like so.

"Mmhmm." Asta moaned into Mimosa's mouth, happy to have conquered yet another noble and bringing them into his ranks of the soon-to-be harem of a King.

His cock lurched and pumped her anus full of his cum, mentally wishing to have the luxury of impregnating her early since her large breasts were a sign of fertility in his eyes. Mimosa kept on sucking his tongue down into her mouth, hungrily tasting his saliva in post-coital climax until she passed out like Noelle in a matter of moments.

With a slump, her body collapsed onto the ground, heaving and breathing tiredly with cum oozing out of her ass with a smile on her face.

"Aah, another one down, and a Noble too no less. Heh." Asta congratulated himself and scooped up Mimosa into his arms, carrying her over to the bed to rest beside Noelle in a naked, post-sex stupor. "Now, a bunch more to go."

'I wonder who I should go with next? There's always that stuffy, upright Blue Roses captain Charlotte Roselei. I could always drop by and check in on Dominante and Mariella, but then again, there are probably other women in this capital that need someone like me in their life. Can't make the harem too big, but then again, the sky's the limit.~' He said to himself in thought, laying down between the two women with a satisfactory smile on his face and arms reaching out to pull them close to his bed as he fell asleep in post-evening bliss.
