Mako-Chii~ Reads: Boosette's Big Haunt - Written by SGA

[Narrator]

All was quiet in the mansion's basement. The secret chamber was the home of the leader of the boos, their king in-fact. However, something was different. There was a crown with a pink design in the floor in-front of the mario painting. Mario was asleep, and there was no way he would've been able to put it there. But, then who? King boo approached the crown and reached down to pick it up. As he made contact with it, there was an amazing flash of light and the king couldn't see for a moment. When the king could see again, they found out that they're weren't a king any longer.

[Boosette]

Huh? What happened?

[Narrator]

Looking down, the king's spherical body had now morphed into that of a human female's, cloaked into a white frilly dress.

[Boosette]

Ehehe, this seems like it'll be fun. Hmm...

[Narrator]

One of the boo's came forward, attempting to confirm the status of the king.

[Boosette] *jumps*

Hah!

[Narrator]

Like a kitten might jump after a toy, Boosette lept at the boo and grabbed it.

[Boosette]

Aww, aren't you just the cutest!

[Narrator]

She hugged the ghost close to her large chest. He was squishy and his little ghost arms flapped around in her embrace. Then, suddenly, the ghost and boosette merged together.

[Boosette]

Huh? Where did you... *m* Ooh, that's where *m* you merged into me, ehehe *m* and now I'm getting bigger *m* Ahh~ That was nice! I feel more powerful now too, ehehehe, I could go for some more actually.

[Narrator]

The queen of the boos raced round her chamber, hugging all of her boo guards and merging with them

[Boosette]

Awwww, you guys are soo cute! *m* Come on, let's all combine our power *m* yes, just like that *m* let's join together, to make me bigger *m* Aahhh~ I love it! *m*

[Boosette]

*some more growth moans to go under narration*

[Narrator]

Boosette continued to absorb more boos, each making her grow larger. She was quickly becoming close to the roof of the chamber, but she didn't mind. Then, with another couple of growth spurts her head emerged out of the grass into the garden.

[Boosette]

Ehehe, that was fun!

[Narrator]

She rose up out of the ground till her feet were level with the grass, finding herself to be staring at the second story windows.

[Boosette]

Ooh, my power really has grown, but if I combined with some more of the spirits inside the mansion, I could start to get truly powerful. Let's see if anyone wants to play, hmm?

[Narrator]

The spirit got down on it's hands and crawled straight through the wall into the conservatory.

[Boosette]

Melody! Melody! Let's play together!

[Narrator]

The spirit of Melody was snatched from the piano and placed up against Boosette's breast. She was quickly overwhelmed by the powerful force drawing her in, and was quickly also absorbed into Boosette.

[Boosette]

*m* Ooh, she's a feisty one *m* yess, join with me Melody *m* let's become huge together! *m* just like that *m* Ahh, lovely.

[Narrator]

Boosette advanced through the wall arriving in the first floor corridor, still on hands and knees. Shivers was just walking down the hallway, but Boosette grabbed him too and before he could even mutter an objection he was being absorbed.

[Boosette]

*m* Don't cry so, Shivers, a good butler doesn't *m* cry. Obey me as your mistress *m* join my conquest *m*

[Narrator]

As her power grew stronger, other smaller ghosts were drawn in automatically. In the same way mass is attracted together, and larger masses have greater pulls, ghosts are drawn towards concentrated sources of ghostly power. Boosette was quickly becoming one of these, and the smaller ghost mice, bats, were beginning to move towards her. She wasn't content yet though. She crawled through the projection room, into the dining room and quickly grabbed Mr. Lugs as she passed through.

[Boosette]

*m* Oh you gluttonous cutie *m* help make me even bigger now! *m*

[Narrator]

Boosette quickly found herself in the main Foyer.

[Boosette]

Ooh, let's check in on the children!

[Narrator]

Getting to her knees to bring her head up to the second floor once again, Boosette leaned through the wall into the twins room.

[Boosette]

Hi you two cuties! Ooh, are you playing hide and seek? Well, let's see here...

[Narrator]

Boosette grabbed the boxes scattered round the room and shook them.

[Boosette]

Aha~ Found you Henry... Orville... where- there you are! Both of you come here to auntie bowsette! *m* Ahh, yes, make me even stronger *m* even more powerful *m* yess~ I love you both *m* in-fact, why don't we bring your younger brother in on the party too *m*

[Narrator]

Leaning into the next room, Chauncey was snatched from his crib.

[Boosette]

Now now, don't cry, I'm here to look after you. Come here.

[Narrator]

Boosette brought Chauncey close and absorbed his power too.

[Boosette]

*m* Ooh, you were one strong baby, weren't you Chancy *m* these are quite intense, wow *m* I'm getting so much bigger so fast *m* you must've had a lot of power *m* Oh my, are the rest of you joining in too *m* yess, more of you come and join me *m*

[Boosette]

*some more growth moans to go under narration*

[Narrator]

With the absorbing of Chauncey, Boosette's power was now attracting all the ghosts in the mansion, from the portrait ghosts to the purple punches all of them were dashing towards Boosette, diving into her and boosting her power further.

[Boosette]

*m* well, given you guys have grown me up to this floor anyway *m* I may as well go say hi to my friend! *m*

[Boosette]

*some more growth moans to go under narration*

[Narrator]

Still on her knees, Boosette turned back around and headed towards the north facing edge of the mansion. She passed through several rooms and found her face emerging onto the balcony.

[Boosette]

Booossus! *m* What're you doing up here you big cutie? *m*

[Narrator]

Bringing her hands up, Bowsette squeezed the giant boo like a stress ball.

[Boosette]

Aww, *m* you want in on the action too? *m* Alright, come here you cutie! *m*

[Narrator]

And Boosette brought the gigantic ghost to her breasts, absorbing him.

[Boosette]

*big moan* Whoa!! This is getting *big moan* really intense now!

[Narrator]

Meanwhile, up on the roof, Luigi was stuck. Humming a gentle tune to try and make himself feel better, he contemplated his situation. He'd managed to suck up most of the ghosts in the mansion, but the clockwork soldiers in the room below had managed to break his Poltergust 3000, releasing all the captured spirits back. Luigi in a panic had managed to flee up here to the roof, but he didn't dare go back down for fear of facing those ghosts again.

[Bowsette]

Awwwwwww!

[Narrator]

Luigi looked up at the noise. A gigantic white clothed girl was towering over the edge of the mansion.

[Bowsette]

Aren't you adorable! Are you here looking for your brother? And you were so close too, shame about that vacuum breaking, huh?

[Narrator]

Luigi tried again to flee, but being out on a rooftop there wasn't really anywhere to flee too.

[Bowsette]

Now don't do that, you might fall! We wouldn't want that, here.

[Narrator]

The girl's huge hand reached over and grabbed Luigi.

[Luigi] (don't record, I've got voice clips)

Waaaah! Mariooo!

[Boosette]

He can't save you Luigi, I've already got him, and now I've got you too, ehehe. Two brother portraits, one next to the other, I think that'll do just fine, ehehe.

[Narrator]

In a panic, Luigi activated the Poltergust 3000 again.

[Bowsette]

Ehehehe, you really are clueless aren't you? That little toy of yours can't do anything to me, not when I'm this powerful. In-fact, let me relieve you of it... there! Let's see, how does this thing work... Ehehe, how do you like it luigi? Being sucked up by a vacuum? Let's see what happens when we...

[Narrator]

...And luigi vanished into the Pultergust.

[Boosette]

Ehehehehe, how adorable, and now I'll be able to play with you both! But first, let's visit our friend the professor, ehehe.

[Narrator]

E-Gad didn't know what to do. Shortly after he'd lost contact with luigi, the lights in his bunker had gone out, and the door to his gallery had been locked, though the sounds from in there weren't ones he liked the sound off. He was trapped, alone, and with Luigi having taken his poltergust, defenseless.

[Narrator]

Suddenly, he could see a white light coming from behind him. Slowly, the professor turned around.

[Boosette]

Boo! Eheheheheheh...
