The air begins to feel a little thin

As I start the car and then I begin

To add the miles piled up behind me
Dm C
I barely feel a smile deep inside me

[Verse 2]

Bb F
And I begin to envy the headlights driving south

But then I remember when you packed my car
Dm C
You reached in the back and buckled up your heart
Bb F Dm C
For me to drive away with

[Verse 3]

The demon sat there waiting on her porch

It was a little dark so we held a makeshift torch

He crept in her room and stayed there for the night

And then I felt chills in my bones

The breath I saw was not my own
Dm
I knew my skin that wrapped my frame

Wasn't made to play this game

And then I saw Him, torch in hand
F
He laid it out, what he had planned
Dm
And then I said, I'll take the grave
C
Please, just send them all my way
