

The Stingers – part 17

Movie night

As promised, Janet was going to meet Lu downstairs to have a comfy night in and spend some quality time together. Neither had seen the Barbie movie, but like most girls, Lu had been given Barbie gifts for her birthday as a little girl and she always had a fondness for her. The movie had been given rave reviews, and of course Margot Robbie was the lead in the movie and Lu thought Margot was the hottest starlet in Hollywood by far.

Janet finished her shower with Stu and walked to her closet to dress up for the occasion. She had a pink summer dress like Margot wore in the movie. It was cute and the lower half was short like Barbie's exposing her long, muscular legs...which of course made the dress look even shorter. It wasn't in the checkerboard pattern like the movie...but it was close, so she knew it would work. In addition, she did find a pair of pink high heels in her closet, that probably hadn't been worn for ten years, so they worked as well.

She lifted her buff right arm to apply a bit of pink lipstick to finish off her look and go meet Lu downstairs. Stu couldn't help himself as he watched his tall, gorgeous, heavily muscled wife get ready. His muscle and cock worship was in full swing and he quickly reached out to grab her massive bicep. His palms touched the surface and a thrill went through his body as he felt the size, hardness and power they contained.

WHAM!

Janet blasted Stu in the chest with the base of her opposite palm. Her hand was open, like a slap, but she thrust her arm straight forward and the base of her open hand, completely supported from behind by her strong, muscle-laden arm shot Stu five feet back and on to the ground. It was like a karate style strike that Bruce Lee used against so many opponents.

Shocked from the force of the strike and on the ground struggling to breath, Stu turned to his stomach and simply tried not to die. His wind had been completely knocked out of him by her one blow and it was obvious now that he could never offer any challenge to Janet if they ever actually fought for real.

He wheezed and groaned and eventually got his breath back and began to breathe. With heavy sighs and lots of inward and chest expanding breaths, Stu eventually regained control of himself and slowly got up and stood to face his gorgeously muscled wife. She was acting like nothing had even happened, hitting him hard enough to fly five feet back to the floor and lose his ability to breath was now as easy as shooing away a fly to her.

Janet continued applying the perfectly placed lipstick. Her right biceps was still balled up in a nice, large, baseball sized muscle body. Stu stood there now, knowing not to get any closer to his wife for fear of upsetting her and taking another hard hit. But Janet eventually finished with the lipstick, and placed the cylinder down on the counter. She slowly turned towards Stu and extended her index finger, then curled it in, instructing him to approach.

Stu gently walked up to her, his eyes full of tears from having his wind knocked out of him. Not that he was crying on purpose, but if you've ever had the breath knocked out of you, there's an uncontrollable watery/crying eyes reaction. Already taller than her husband in bare feet, Janet was now wearing three inch heels and seemed to tower over him by a foot. She didn't look happy about his unwanted patting of her arm and she wanted to make a point.

"Stu, you're here because I allow it. You lost your ability to have any say about what goes on under this roof that night that you cowered under the bed while your wife and daughter were fighting for their lives. Now I don't ever want you to think you will regain that right...trust me, you won't. Now I will tolerate you here as long as you understand the rules. They are my rules, and they are Lu's rules. So you need to perform the chores I give you on a daily basis, and occasionally I'll reward you with some time with me. But don't ever touch me, or talk to me unless otherwise instructed...got it?" Lu questioned sternly.

"Yes Janet. I got it....I'm so, so sorry I thought differently. It'll never happen again." Stu said softly, praying Janet would forgive him and hoping she would let him be with her the next morning for her daily blow job.

"Good Stu. Now hurry off to your room, I've got a movie date with Lu to attend." Janet ordered.

Stu turned and quickly made his way to the spare bedroom which had become his permanent room since the robbery.

Janet took one last look at herself in the mirror before heading down stairs to meet Lu. Her shoulders were becoming rounded and really muscular. They were becoming far too large now to fit into any clothing items she owned and although she loved showing them off and looking at them all the time, they could be a bit of a distraction during her business meetings and Zoom calls. So she was needing to go shopping and find something nice to wear for those meetings that could also hide the billowing muscle she was developing beneath. At the same time, she knew her daughter was also putting on pounds and pounds of rock-hard muscle every week, so she had to need some new clothes as well. A shopping trip with Lu had to be their next field trip for sure.

Janet's traps were already looking nice and meaty and tied in perfectly to her widening and muscle filled neck. She couldn't even believe she now desired this heavily muscled look, but as Janet stared at her gorgeous reflection, she flexed her traps and neck, making them look absolutely huge. Two veins, filled with blood as she flexed and now became even more exposed as they ran up her neck and disappeared just below her jawline.

The biceps and triceps seemed to look nice and bulky as they hung relaxed to her sides. A large vein also ran through her shoulder, down the front curve of her biceps and into her lower bend in her arm. From there, it seemed to branch out into seven or eight slightly smaller veins that coursed through her muscular forearm. The size of the muscles were becoming too large to ignore and it was past the point of being fit and Janet was growing biceps and triceps that made her look like a budding personal trainer or bodybuilder. She loved the look and had a deep desire to make them even bigger, even more full, even more defined and beautiful!

Satisfied with her upper body, Janet peered down at her long, tanned stems. They were becoming overly muscled as well and the thickness that was now becoming her quads, calves and hamstrings was so stunning and alluring to her now. How could every woman in the world not do everything in their power to attain this muscular look? Not an ounce of fat or cellulite to be seen. This was the fountain of youth. Her strong quads were like the legs of a twenty something year old Olympic athlete or bodybuilder and if Janet had to do her twenties all over again, she would have totally become a gym rat!

But as she strutted confidently out of the room and down the stairs, she was happy and confident that she was so attractive, so pleasing to the eye and almost perfectly formed, that every gaze in the mall or restaurant she went to would be glued on her. Janet was hotter now than she had ever been in her life and she loved the feeling of being able to get any guy or girl she desired.

As Janet reached the bottom stair, she looked over to see Lu appearing from her bedroom door. Her heart skipped a beat as she took in the unbelievably gorgeous sight. More radiant than a morning sunrise, her daughter had to absolutely be the hottest 18 year old on the planet.

She was dressed for a Barbie Day at the beach and would have made people have heart attacks as they looked at her perfectly formed, ultra-tall physique. Lu now stood over six feet tall and had legs longer than the Empire State building. Her calves were bulging bigger than most people's thighs and had to measure at least eighteen or nineteen inches around. The impeccable diamond shape to them were rigidly formed and powerful in appearance.

Lu's quads were absolutely packed full of sinuous, lengthy, bulking, power-laden hugeness. The muscle bodies were exquisitely formed and separated slabs of meat ran down the length of her thigh, culminating in a majestic heap of bulging girth to each side of her kneecaps. The sheer mass and width of her legs were bigger than Janet's waist and it gave Lu an hourglass shape that was beyond belief. Instead of a skirt or dress, Lu was simply wearing a small, pink bikini. It was sparkly as well and had a bit of a pocket for Lu's ever growing cock. Lu clearly purchased a pair of male bodybuilder bikini briefs as she now needed this extra room for her delicious member.

The bikini hugged her cock wonderfully and the sides of the bikini material were pulled way up her torso, making the pink bikini form a huge V-shape. The sides perfectly framed her thick, ab and oblique muscles. They protruded out immensely but were also really defined. It was a ridiculously hot combination and they were incredibly pleasing to look at and exuded ultimate attractiveness and power at the same time.

What was a bit shocking was what was presented just above that. Lu was wearing no bikini top at all and instead left her unreal pecs for all to admire. They were so heavily and thickly muscled that they protruded outward like D's, but were nothing more than pounds and pounds of meaty muscle piled upon her upper body. The curves formed to the sides and downward into her torso were huge and bulged out tremendously. Arnold Schwarzenegger would be jealous of this girl's insane chest development. As Lu took in a breath, the pecs expanded out even greater and Janet's heart stopped as she couldn't believe the perfection her daughter had become.

Lu then slowly raised her long, muscle carrying arms. They should be licensed as lethal weapons! The biceps curled up and formed massive, softball sized bulges to each side of her beautiful head as Lu slightly adjusted her large, pink, beach hat. Her forearms were also heavily muscled and the sheer size of her herculean arms made her head look small in comparison. Long, thick veins ran throughout Lu's biceps and forearms and the tan skin highlighted every intricate detail of the gorgeously constructed muscles!

Along with the pink sun hat, Lu was wearing pink framed sunglasses and pink earrings. Obviously Janet was biased, but she truly felt that she was staring at the hottest girl in the world. How could anyone be better looking than the smiling, pink clad, thickly muscled, big cock girl that stood just a few feet away?

They slowly approached each other, ogling each other's thickly muscled bodies as they walked. Chest muscles moved majestically as their ripped torsos flexed gorgeously constructed abs...and heavy, powerfully muscled legs bulged insanely with each confident stride.

The two met and embraced. It was a sight of insane attractiveness as thick muscle squeezed and caressed equally heavy and well developed muscle. From the side view, massive, round, protruding glutes shot out behind and sat just above nicely bulging hamstrings that met impeccably at the base of the mouth-watering asses! They curved out and then down into the back of the knee. All supported by growing, rock-hard, huge calf muscles.

Long gone were the frail girls that were so vulnerable on that fateful night of the robbery. Now, two confident, tough, thickly muscled bad ass girls stood in the very same spot.

Janet stood just taller in her pink, high-heeled shoes while Lu was beached out in a pair of pink flip-flops. Lu leaned in for a loving peck on her mom's lips. SNAP! There was a weird spark. "What was that?" They both thought as they peered deeply into one another's eyes.

Lu squeezed her mom more tightly. Her muscles flexed and the power she projected sent another spark through Janet. She again leaned in, but this time it was more sensual. Lu opened her mouth and accepted her mom's playful tongue and supple lips. As they kissed passionately, both of their strong, bulking arms and hands were exploring each other's bulging, protruding, firm and well-rounded back muscles.

As much as the kiss was meaningful, and a loving, sharing moment, what really catapulted the two into this warm moment was a mutual, physical attraction to each other's well-built bodies. It was a new discovery for both, as neither had ever embraced another female with muscles the size and hardness of a male bodybuilder before. For the same reason others were so attracted to Janet and Lu, it attracted them to each other.

The kiss and caressing lasted a few meaningful seconds more, then the two slowly leaned back from each other and again locked gazes. They then both started laughing out loud as they knew they got a little caught up in the other's insane physiques. "Well you're just delicious aren't you?" Janet had to say.

"Jeez, mom! You're the one who looks like a million bucks...I mean, you've got a bod most women would kill for!" Lu returned a compliment.

"Holy shit Lu!" Janet said back as she reached out her hands, turned them palm up and placed them just below Lu's massive, muscle filled pecs. "You've definitely got me beat in the hot muscle category...I mean look at these gorgeous pecs...they're absolutely to die for!"

Feeling her mom's palms upon her chest muscles, Lu began bouncing them ferociously. The meaty pecs flexed and expanded massively as she alternated the motion. One up, one down, the other up, the other down. Over and over again she did this, watching her mom's jaw drop in utter amazement with each alternating muscle explosion. They were now larger than they had ever been and Lu had more muscle control than ever before. She loved being admired and finished off the brief encounter by bouncing them both simultaneously.

Janet was getting a little hard down below and knew she needed to quit massaging and caressing her daughter's gorgeously muscled body before she had an orgasm. She reluctantly finished feeling her daughter up by giving the thick chest muscles a final feel and brief touch upon her nipples. Lu kind of jumped and laughed, realizing her nipples were more sensitive than ever and knowing a few more tickles like that from her mom and she'd be sporting a huge hard-on as well.

"Well Lu, you are just an absolute smoke-show! I just don't know if anyone could be any hotter than you are." Janet complimented her daughter.

"Well mom, I'm still growing and I plan on putting on a lot more muscle...so I guess I'll just "be any hotter" every day...lol

They both shared another long laugh and walked arm in arm over to the living room to relax on the couch and enjoy the movie.

As Barbie and Ken were transitioning into their common male and female roles in the real world, it cracked Lu and Janet up. The male patriarchy Lu and Janet had been so used to growing up had now change for them in an opposite way. And with the thought of that on her mind, Lu picked up her phone and sent a quick text...

Clatter, clatter, clatter, clatter, clatter...

Steve raced down the stairs immediately after receiving a text and rushed into the kitchen. Without a word, he put some popcorn in the microwave and started pouring some drinks. Janet had turned her head briefly to see what the heck Steve was in such a hurry for, but she then quickly refocused on the movie and didn't give it a second thought.

Two minutes later, there was the ding from the microwave signaling the popcorn was done. A few moments later, Steve appeared with a couple of baskets of popcorn and some sprite for the girls. "Can I get you anything else Lu?" Steve asked eagerly.

"Well actually, there is Steve. Would you like to suck some cock for me?"

"Oh my God Lu...Of course...of course I do!" he answered back excitedly! He'd found himself constantly dreaming about Lu's insanely muscular body and gorgeous, massive cock...so being invited to enjoy his sister's love rod was everything he wanted.

Steve quickly dropped to his knees in front of Lu's position on the couch. He reached up and gently grabbed the silky pink material that made up the waistline of the bodybuilder bikini. His mouth was already watering and he licked his lips as he slowly started to pull the bikini down. But it was tight to her muscle filled glutes and torso, so Steve got to caress Lu's taut, tanned skin as he pulled more forcefully on the material. The straps started to move downward and with almost a THUD, Lu's massive, relaxed cock fell out of the bikini and thumped against the bulging muscle of her right thigh.

Even flaccid, Lu's pecker was huge and meaty. It was now easily two or three inches longer than Steve's and much larger in bulk as well. Even Janet was surprised by the sheer magnitude of her daughter's gorgeous looking member. She couldn't help herself and reached over to grasp it. "My god Lu!" Janet gasped, "It's much larger than your fathers and it's not even close."

A sense of pride enveloped Lu. She now had the largest cock in the household, and by the length it had grown in such a short amount of time, she knew it was going to continue to get even longer...even thicker...and hopefully...even more sensitive, giving her greater and greater pleasure every time she used it.

With the bulky length of meat in her palm, Janet began slowly squeezing it, slowly massaging it. She watched with excitement as it became harder and harder and Janet marveled at the absolute magnificence of it. But Steve was given permission to suck it and he needed to lower Lu's bikini to the floor before he could start. However, Lu's quads were now so huge and muscular, he had a hard time even pulling the pink, silky material over their massive girth. Each day they seemed to be larger and at this point, he felt like the damn things were bigger than his own by two.

Luckily, Steve finally got the bikini past his sister's gargantuan thighs and all the way down to her massive calves. Jesus they were huge too! He thought. He couldn't help himself and grasped the diamond shaped muscle that was just inches from his face. He was now becoming almost as obsessed with his sister's growing muscles as he was with her growing cock.

But time was of the essence and he raised his head up, being careful not to block Lu's view of the movie. He reached out and slightly tugged at the now, fully erect 8" rosy color tipped rod. It felt amazing in his palms and he enjoyed giving it a few strokes before opening his mouth and plunging his head downward upon it.

Janet looked over at Lu and had to ask, "So how long has this been going on?" as she watched her son eagerly giving her daughter a warm, wet, tight lipped blow job.

"Oh gosh mom, quite a while now. He's getting really good at it now and he practically begs me for it every day." Lu answered honestly.

"Hmm." Janet pondered. She loved her son dearly, but she loved her daughter much more. And if this was something Lu allowed or even encouraged, she was all for it.

"Interesting." Janet then followed. "I've been having your father do this for me, but I always thought it was a bit of punishment. I wonder if he truly enjoys it, like your brother seems to."

"Stu!" Janet yelled from the couch. "Come down here."

Like Steve a few minutes earlier, Stu rushed down the stairs to be with his muscular, cock wielding wife. "Yes Janet...what do you need?" He asked as he approached, to see his son fully engulfing his sister's crotch area, not 100% sure what was going on...

"Stu. I need an honest answer from you." Janet said. "I need to know if you actually enjoy...actually look forward to giving me head every morning before I go to work."

"Yes. Absolutely yes Janet. I love giving you that pleasure, and I love having it in my mouth, feeling its firm, smooth surface. Feeling your tip bang into the back of my throat. Absolutely Janet, I truly look forward to your taste in my mouth every minute I can have it." He answered back.

"Well. That's good to know. I don't know if I would feel bad if you didn't...but it's comforting to know just the same. So, why don't you follow in Steve's footsteps here and give me that pleasure you've come so accustomed to providing."

With that, Stu immediately dropped to his knees. Janet wasn't wearing any panties, so he had no interference as he leaned his head forward, took Janet's love rod into his awaiting mouth and began thrusting his head inward and outward, sucking his wife's cock like she deserved to have him do.

With that settled, Janet and Lu gave each other a quick smile and then turned their attention back to the Barbie movie. They began eating popcorn and having occasional sips of Sprite while both being pleased. Steve and Stu were careful to keep their heads down as they provided their girls much needed blow jobs, listening to them laugh at the movie while they concentrated on the task at hand.

It had been several minutes and Lu had a thought and laughed. "Look at our two little cock gobblers mom. Who could have ever predicted this those many months ago when they cowered upstairs, not knowing that this, these two huge dick woman would be watching a movie while they eagerly provided us yet another delicious blow job!"

"Oh my god dear." Janet smirked back, "Quite an amazing turn of events I'd say."

She then focused her attention down below and said, "And not to fast boys. I want you sucking cock this entire movie long...no premature satisfaction...got it?"

A muffled uh huh was conveyed back to Janet and the boys slowed down slightly, making the strokes half as fast as normal and providing enough gratification to keep Lu and Janet hard and enjoying the moment, but not too fast, making them both blow their loads too soon.

The girls simultaneously were enjoying the movie, the popcorn and of course, the head. And as Lu was enjoying the wet, warm, tight lips of her brother around her long shaft she said, "Mom...look."

Right then, she extended her long legs out and hit a massive quad flex. The muscles in her legs ballooned up and became tree trunk sized stems extending out from her hips. The thighs became so huge and so heavily muscled, they made Steve's head look like a pea in the middle of them. Of course, his noggin was now being squeezed like a grape and it froze his gratifying stokes upon her cock, but she got to watch as her helpless and completely enveloped brothers head turned beet red. He couldn't even speak and the force of the squeeze upon his neck had cut off the circulation. Within six or eight seconds, his eyes rolled back in his skull and he fell to the floor unconscious.

Still being stroked by Stu, Janet said, "My god Lu, how did you do that?"

"Oh, you just make sure to pinch the neck and eventually the blood gets cut off and they just pass out. Usually takes just a few seconds, but it will put someone out for a good thirty seconds and then they're still a bit dazed for a while...you should try it."

Janet figured, what the heck, surely Stu would be right back in action sucking her meaty rod as soon as he can. So she extended her long, muscle-bound legs and flexed them hard. It grasped Stu's head forcefully and he wheezed a bit as the pressure and the pain grew. But like Steve, his head turned beet red! It took a little longer for Janet to hit the right spot, but with Stu's hands on his wife's muscular quads, he was too weak to make any difference and within ten or fifteen seconds, Stu's eyes also rolled back and his body became limp and fell to the floor as Janet slowly released her vice like grip.

Lu reached over and gave her mom a big high five. It was clear how dominant they had now become in the relationship and they were validated quickly as the boys came too. Almost immediately both thrust their heads back in the girls crotches and took in their delectable cocks, eager to continue with the pleasure giving blow jobs.

Janet and Lu then got back to watching the movie, finishing up the popcorn and enjoying the boy's efforts. But as the movie started to come to a close, Janet kind of leaned in and said, "Ok boys, now finish us off. And the first one to get the job done, gets to give double blow jobs per day of the next week."

Neither Stu nor Steve wanted to miss out on that reward and both began plunging their heads rapidly and forcefully onto the gorgeous tips and rods before them. Steve even started caressing and gently squeezing Lu's quad muscles as he did. He hoped that would provide just a little extra stimulation and propel him to victory.

The plan worked. As Lu felt Steve's hands apply some nice pressure to her huge thighs, he also kind of slid them up and down her tanned, supple skin, almost tickling her. She loved it. The tingling sensation in her cock and the tickling sensation upon her quads was making her absolutely giddy inside. Her tip began tingling uncontrollably and the warmth and tightness of her brother's mouth upon her shaft was becoming absolutely magical. He was getting really good at giving her head...and as much as she tried to hold back. She just couldn't do it. She got more and more and more satisfied with Steve's quick strokes and tickling finger upon her thickly muscled legs.

Lu thrust her hips up and down, over and over again in rhythm with her brother's head bobs. She pushed up heavily as he moved his head down forcefully, letting her cock get a massive stoke of hot, tight wetness. The tingling finally became more than she could handle and in an instant a cascade of cum shot from her tip, practically drowning Steve as he continued his violent strokes upon it.

He gulped and gulped and gulped, drinking every last ounce of the salty white goo. But he had come to enjoy it and he reached one hand off of his sister's majestically muscled thighs and grabbed her wonderful shaft. With his mouth now moved back slightly and just enveloping his sister's tip, Steve started squeezing and pumping her long shaft...excavating any possible drip of cum from her cock.

It worked and as Lu had learned her head back in pleasure, and titillated the sensitive nipples perched upon her monstrously muscled pecs and was completely satisfied...Steve sucked out the final drops.

“Good boy. Good boy.” Lu said to Steve as she patted his head and let him know he had done a great job and brought her the satisfaction she wanted and certainly deserved.

Like always, Steve then immediately got up and rushed in the kitchen. He got a small towel and soaked it with warm water. He then brought it back and gave his sister’s cock and quads a nice, methodic cleaning. Finishing the job as assigned, Steve then rushed back upstairs, ready to perform for his sister again with her next...hopefully soon...request.

Stu was only a couple of minutes behind in the race and Lu watched with pleasure as Janet rolled her eyes back in her head with satisfaction. Stu brought her to orgasm and just like Steve, eagerly drank up all of her flushing cum. Licking his lips and quenching his thirst for her yet again. He then performed a similar clean up task and went upstairs as well, leaving the girls alone to talk about the movie and hopefully the gratification he and Steve had provided them...
