Chapter 8

I felt a sudden shock to my system when the unimaginable weight of Daisy was lifted off of my body, I opened my eyes in shock and felt my retinas sting.

The sky.

That view was quickly replaced by large masses above my almost broken body. I couldn't move, I could only stare up at the giantesses now looming above me. I knew I should be running; I should be taking every second I could to try and preserve myself, but I could not. Their voices shaking the windows of my building, I had tuned it out, I was just paralysed on the floor in shock.

My eyes came back into focus, and I saw three of the ladies fighting amongst each other, Daisy, Regina and Valerie. Each woman had undergone more growth than I had realised. They most likely dwarf Sam, despite her head start. Laying on the floor in shock, I felt my world start to move. I was rapidly being lifted from the floor and I quickly found myself staring down at the tops of the three arguing women's heads. Tens of feet in the air, I felt a bit dizzy when I looked down at the floor which was now entering the ballpark of too high to survive a fall. The tops of the buildings around me were sitting under me, I'd even wager that at my current altitude I was going to be above many of the medium sized buildings in the town. Maybe even challenging the tallest multi-floor buildings at this point.

The movement stopped as quickly as it started and I felt my frozen body land between two warm soft masses, the gunmetal grey skin was all too familiar to me, the masses too.

Sam's breasts.

I swivelled my head and saw her own huge head. She smiled down at me nestled in her cleavage.

"Hey..." She said as if everything was normal and okay.

Most of my body was wrapped up in her tits at this point, thanks to her tits perkiness I was kept safe in the air. She really had grown too, not just in height, each of her tits could probably house a van, they were massive on her body, covering her gigantic torso for the most part, they stuck out firmly before her. Gravity seemed to elude her tits, the soft flesh had very little yield to them, hence their perkiness.

"H...H-hey..." I stammered.

"Don't worry, I'm not like them. I saw them fighting over you and I would've intervened earlier but, as you can see, I've done some growing of my own." Sam smirked.

I could only nod. I felt her words ring true and I felt safe, snuggled between her bosom. Her large finger came and rubbed the side of my head gently.

"I won't let them have you, they'll have to go through me first."

I smiled up at her and sunk my arms into her breasts as if I was giving her a hug.

Big mistake.

Being surrounded by boobs and knowing that you will be looked after, I couldn't help but get hard. I felt my cock start to swell with desire, Sam felt it too.

“Oh... Do you like this arrangement?” She pressed her hands against the sides of her boobs, and I felt them start to envelop me, bulging up my body, it wasn't long until I felt myself being consumed by them.

The light from the sun was being blocked once again, her boobs appeared to be swelling and covering my body, the last beam of light being shut off from me as her boobs have now fully swallowed me. The pressure from the sides was too great to move. In complete darkness and being crushed between these giant mountains was as arousing as it was terrifying.

Thankfully, she let up after a few seconds. Being brought back into the light dazzled me for a second and it was good to breathe fresh air once again. Gasping for breath, I looked up at her smirking face before I felt her hand reach between her boobs to pull me out. She eyed my dick up and twiddled it with her finger, giving a little giggle.

“I find it amusing that you can get so turned on by this whole affair, I mean look at them, still bickering over you.” Sam laughed.

I didn't have an answer for her, I just looked at the three below still pointing and angrily shouting at one another.

“At least they are down there...” I spoke.

As if on cue, they started to grow, each of them.

Why did I have to open my big dumb mouth?
