

“So... you want to join my wolf pack?” The Alpha asks. I heard that his Alpha female had passed, so now I’m hoping that the spot isn’t Female specific and he’ll just accept an extra hand from another guy.

“Yeah! Just because I’m a guy doesn’t mean I can’t be a leader!” I gloated. He scoffed and got closer. I let him. He then started sniffing my chest and back, and sometimes my neck. He then pulled back and glared questioningly at me.

“Odd. You smell AND look like prey. What’s to stop me from swallowing you whole right now?” The Alpha questioned while licking his muzzle and staring at me. I’ve heard how often wolves come to this pack with the expectation to get in, but apparently if you don’t make it past the Alpha’s ‘initiation’. I at least wanted to see what the initiation was before he said no. Speaking of initiation....

“You talk like a true alpha, how about we move to the initiation part, where you tell me EXACTLY how much you want to be a part of this pack.” The Alpha said to me with a seductive smirk. He then motioned for me to turn around... oh... one of THOSE initiations. How did people rarely get past this? It seems pretty easy. I heard the Alpha chuckle behind me.

“I’m not going to fuck you, silly.” He joked. It made me feel slightly foolish to believe that EVERY initiation was like that. I then felt warm and sticky plans wrapped around my tail. I was stunned at first. Did he put my tail in his mouth? I turned to my side and saw his two front paws over my shoulder, meaning that his head was above mine. I turned my head around to see that my tail was being consumed by the Alpha’s.... Wait what?! I started to panic before one of the alpha’s paws pushed my head down, as if claiming domination over my body.

“You see, my pack initiation is different from other initiations.” The Alpha spoke as the warmth of his cock caught up to the end of my tail, making my full tail go inside of his cock. As I looked, I saw that the Alpha had freakishly large balls. Each ball was the size that could probably fit a full grown wolf, if not more. They were just barely making it above the ground, dangling loosely as he slowly leaned closer to me, encasing my butt inside of him ever so slightly, making it harder for my legs to stand. His paw pushed down on my head harder as he became more stiff and desperately tried to pull himself onto me. I can’t say in pure honesty if I was into it or not, but I wasn’t going to stop him from trying.

“You see, I swallow the wolves who want to be a party of this pack, But instead of my belly that they go into, they get bagged into my balls, where two things can happen...”. The alpha continued as his cock encased my upper thighs and my entire ass. My lower waist was steadily lifted upward as he continued to swallow me deeper and deeper into his balls as slowly as possible. I could feel a warm liquid gushing against my backside and desperately trying to do some work.

“My balls work in a way that, whatever goes in, is randomly sorted into one of my two, luscious , balls. After you are completely down there inside my pools of seed, either, when my Beta sucks My enormous cock, you can either come out in place of my sperm, or you can slowly decay and get digested and turned into the wolf pudge that once made up your body! Don’t worry, my Beta is usually very good at finding my sweet spot and making me cum faster, so even if you aren’t very lucky, you’ll be turned into something great at a monumental pace.” The Alpha cheered. I could see that his cock was growing in size the more it engulfed me in its vast collection of boiling cum. His cock then slid up to hide my back legs and now had only my upper body under the Alpha’s warm and furry chest. I could feel myself growing into a long, full, form. Stiffening to its core and hesitantly let out a small droplet of cum that was almost immediately swept away by the rest of the alpha’s intoxicating semen.

“You’re being a very good boy, maybe you might not be such a burden on my valuable seed as I thought. You’re succumbing to my lusty shaft easier than I anticipated. Or maybe it’s just because my meat is too powerful to be escaped by the likes of you...” The alpha teased as he made his way to my elbows. I guess that additional weight he was putting on himself caught up to him. He abruptly slammed onto the ground in a comfortable sitting position with his balls squirming to engulf me quicker than he was letting. His paw still rested on my forehead. I tried to look up, but I only saw the front half of the Alpha’s muzzle. His satisfaction was noted as I saw his flat tongue lay loosely At the end of his muzzle, creating slow falling streams of saliva that almost went to my nose. I was going to lap his saliva into my mouth before a smaller wolf showed up, he was only a little surprised when he saw my upper body sticking out of his alpha’s cock.

“Ahh, Beta! Just in time to see this wolf goodbye!” The Alpha said with a quick change of voice. Why is it certain now that it is goodbye? Didn’t he say that it was an equal opportunity?

“You caught a new victim, alpha?” The Beta asked slyly while looking down at me in a more than condescending glance.

“Of course! This one is very obedient, but we both remember the last one that didn’t struggle!” The alpha cheered. Was I supposed to struggle?! I started jerking my body side to side in an attempt to slip out of it but it only got a lustful moan from alpha as a result. I continued until the mighty cock pulled my elbows into it completely, leaving my head stuck looking up at the alpha and beta, and leaving my paws to be pinned to the side of my cheeks.

“It’s a little late now to be in denial! Don’t worry, I’ll leave a drop of you in every wolf that thinks this initiation is some kind of joke.” The Alpha joked as one of his paws slowly stroked my head. I wasn’t going to appreciate it however, because of my dire situation. I felt the Beta give me a slow lick for goodbye.

“Aww. I almost feel bad, but I’ll be sure to make you into some perfect babies that might have better luck escaping my mighty, meaty, and delicious cock.” The Alpha continued, proudly gawking at the masterpiece that had been created.

“A j-joke?! I don’t think this is a-“
