

Vain Girly-Girl

Hello again sweeties! Welcome to my new series "Idols!" I'd like to kick off the collection with a fairly standard sissy role model, the "Vain Girly Girl."

Throughout this recording, you may try to keep track of your thoughts and fail as you find your mind slipping into a constant state of girly anxiety over how the women around you dress and act. Every mirror you pass by will send you into a terrible erotic panic until you check your hair and makeup to make sure that everything is absolutely perfect. Learn to develop constant feelings of inadequacy about your appearance as you move towards being a more vain, feminine woman every day. You put the effort into your looks! You deserve to be cuter and sexier than any of those other bitches!

Know that your confidence is based off of how much other people notice you as you go about your day. If nobody looks at you, you'll feel like your world is completely falling apart. If nobody talks to you, you'll know that you need to talk higher and more flamboyantly to get their attention. If nobody wants to fuck you, you'll know that you need to work out and wear tighter, sexier, clothing to seduce your lovers into taking you like the dirty little slut you're quickly becoming. Learn the feminine virtues of vanity and envy as you follow the "Vain Girly Girl" to your new ideal self.
