

Following the first time, I will talk about my favorite erotic comics.

It's a slightly niche genre.

In the R18 content world, there is a genre called "senka".

* Senka is a Japanese word meaning war or war disaster.

First of all, senka has war as the background of the story. And as a result, female soldiers and village girls are attacked.

It's hard to explain the difference from the genre called heroine pinch. However, senka has a hard and large image.

(In fact, in warfare, they often form a group)

In such a senka genre, I recommend Ikebukuro DPC's "Nord Invasion" series.

(I put the URL link, but it's not an affiliate)

It's about a war in a fictional fantasy world, and it's a great work packed with many senka situations.

For example, male soldier → female knight, rogue → village girl, bandit → female swordfighter, ally soldier → female soldier, etc.

And there is no mercy on verbal insults every time.

The charm of this work is not only in the situation but also in the design.

The author is good at drawing armor, but he is also good at drawing soft-looking bodies.

Therefore, the gap is very erotic.

Those who like this work will enjoy it very much.

(I like this work very much)
