

Helen's Schoolgirl project

Summary:

Needing money, Helen wants to film a porn that would be a hit online, and insists that everyone loves schoolgirls. She and Max film a video in schoolgirl outfits at a local highschool with a new guy they only just hired, playing the teacher. They break into their local highschool, wearing their old school uniforms, and meet the new guy there.

Opening:

The camera is up in the sky, focusing on letters in the sky spelling out "STRUGGLES: Helen's school girl video". The camera pans downwards until it sees Max and Helen.

Max and Helen are walking away from the camera, towards the school in the background, but stop as Helen starts talking. They are both wearing highschool uniforms.

Max tugs her skirt because it's too tight.

Helen: Ahhh man, wearing this again just makes me feel old. Do you feel old?

Max pauses, she's thinking about it. She feels her age, the uniform doesn't really change that.

Max: I feel 27

Helen is used to feeling 19, it's not until recently she's started thinking about the fact that she's not fresh out of school anymore. She feels like she should have accomplished more by now.

Helen: Yeah... Ouch...

Cut to close up of one of the school doors, Helen picks the lock and opens the door. Cut to inside the school hallways

Some kind of conversation between Helen and the new guy happens, maybe a joke happens. Max comments that her uniform is way too small.

The camera focuses on Max's legs and butt, and moves upwards as she tugs on it and tries to get more comfortable in it. A man dressed business casual stands further down the hallway.

Helen: How old are you again?

New guy: Uhh.. 23?

The guy playing the teacher being younger than Helen makes her feel old again. This annoys her and makes her feel insecure about herself.

Helen: Fuck, you're so young! Why'd we cast you to be the teacher?

The reason I have them talk about this is so that the audience knows they are not highschool age, and that the girls are in fact older than the guy playing the teacher. I want it to be obvious that they do not go to this school and it is only a thing they do for the porn video. The new guy was hired to look like a teacher and he is not in fact their actual teacher.

New guy: But the mustache makes me look older, right?

The camera cuts to the new guy and his mustache. It is thick, but very maintained, clearly combed, and twisted on the edges. It resembles Luigi's mustache from super mario. He looks kinda goofy.

The camera then cuts back to Helen and Max, focusing on Max fussing with her skirt again.

Helen: Mustache has to go

New guy: Ah...

Max: My uniform is too tight

There's a short pause, as Helen turns around and looks back at Max, realising how short Max is, as graphics show up on screen highlighting the difference in height. If her uniform is too small now, she must have been even smaller in highschool. Helen is 160cm (5 foot 3) and seems like a tower next to Max.

Alternatively: ... Max, were you a midget in highschool?

Max: ... I'm not any taller now...

Again, this is to imply that highschool was in the past, and they are not in highschool

There is another pause, as Max is clearly offended. The new guy gestures towards the bathroom and finds an excuse to get out of this moment.

New guy: I'm... I'm gonna go shave then

As the "porn video" starts, there needs to be a clear signal to the audience that we are now switching from the real world to the movie the girls have written. I might consider showing lighting equipment to make it even more obvious, but it is a low budget production, so the idea is that the girls have only brought a camera on a tripod.

Cut to Max quietly adjusting the tripod and setting up the camera. We then see from the camera's perspective, with a little "rec" and a time stamp. The camera is zoomed in on the classroom anatomical model, half skeleton, half muscles. Specifically, the camera is focused on the wrist.

Max: Camera ready

Helen: Cool! Let's start then

Max touches the wrist of the anatomical model.

Teacher: Carpus

The camera now cuts to Helen's hand on the teacher's wrist. Helen repeats the teacher, as the camera goes back to Max, and she brings her fingers up the arm.

Teacher: Radius bone

The camera cuts to Helen moving her hands in the same way along the teacher's arm.

Helen: Radius bone... What about the muscles?

Max brings her hands up to the shoulder and taps the deltoid muscle. The camera cuts to Helen stroking the teacher's shoulder

Teacher: That one? That's the deltoid.

Helen: I like that one

Max leaves the skeleton model, spinning it around as she lets go. She comes over to the teacher and both Max and Helen start touching him. They start unbuttoning his cardigan. The camera is still zoomed in really far, everything is a closeup.

Teacher: I feel like you're not really that invested in learning today

Helen: No, we are! What's this one called?

Max and Helen are stroking his abs, his shirt and cardigan are fully unbuttoned. The camera cuts to each muscle as they stroke it

Teacher: Ahhh, rectus abdominis, external abdominal oblique (breathes in) and transversus abdominus. You girls are asking the harder questions now, huh?

Max and Helen are now stroking his dick through his pants. Helen giggles

Helen: Hehe, hard

HD and BJ happens, Max needs to have some kind of chatter going on as well

Maybe the Teacher cums, but can go a second time. Vaginal happens, maybe out in the hallway

Max rips her skirt at some point, Helen is shocked at how fat her ass is, maybe Max gives her an angry comment in response
