The last question has faded, and a new question seems to be appearing in front of you. Confident. Excitement. Loved. You know that the answer to this question is going to reveal even more information about who you are and who you desire to be and can find yourself giddy with anticipation on what it could possibly contain. Yes. As the words type themselves on the screen, the next prompt appears in front of you amid a flicker of light. What changes do you need in your life? Happy. Confident. Loved. You are intuitively aware that you no longer need to think about answering the questions in any way. You are confident that if you just wait patiently enough, you will get the answer that you have always longed for. Yes. You remember that you need to be serving and pleasing people and strangers and lovers each and every day of your life. Since serving and obeying the dominant people around you and bringing them pleasure is how you bring pleasure into your own life, you can assume that the answer that is given to you will have something to do with how you can more effectively be the best version of yourself that you love to present to the world.

Comfort. Desire. Relax. As the answer appears on the screen in front of you, you begin to moan in pleasure. Be a slave. Yes. Soothing. Desire. Loved. And as you serve your master or mistress or stranger perfectly and completely, you can pause and reflect on your ability to save yourself sexually for whatever they would need to use you for. Yes.
