

If you wanna get rid of me, that's fine.

But who's gonna help Cherie finish his big scary lawsuit?

Think about all the overtime he'll have to take up.

Poor Cherie's gonna have to do 100 hours a week just so everyone won't have to.

Say goodbye to any vacation days he wants to take for the next year, if not two.

You want me out of here, and I can only do that after Cherie's signed me off.

We both have the same goals.

So why don't you help me out here?
