

Athena

Athena is the Greek Goddess of War who knows when to fight and is an excellent protector. She is the goddess of wisdom, strength, the arts, war and battle strategy, law and justice and more. She was the daughter of Zeus and a ruthless, fearless warrior. She has no mother and according to the myth Zeus had a severe migraine and split it head open. When he did so, Athena came out. Her animal is an owl and she manifested as an owl during Greece's war with Persia. Other correspondences to Athena are olive, pomegranate, oak, willow and pear trees. Minerva is her Roman form. Corresponding stones are onyx, lapis lazuli, turquoise, gold and ruby. Her corresponding scents are patchouli, dragons blood, cinnamon, orange blossom and cedarwood.

If you are praying to Athena, you could pray for are wisdom, help with studying, knowledge, strategies and aiding with practicing an art form or strength to overcome a situation.

Keep in mind that hard work is required as well to obtain knowledge.

Examples of offerings could be images of owls, spiders and ships, incense, candles and the product of any creative project you've done with your own hands. This could be a drawing, paintings. sewing,

