

"So uh.... Can you explain to me what I'm doing here one more time?"

Sherry did not hide her tone of slight annoyance as she struggled to maintain her pose. Her hand was placed behind her arched back, resting on the top of her heel, while her other free hand was attempting (and failing) to cover the nipples on her huge breasts. Her areola were so large that they were easily peaking out of her hands. All this was topped off with her huge cock, erect and pointing forward with the slightest droplet of pre-cum pooling at the tip.

"Like I said before, TerraSave is in a little bit of a financial situation right now, so we're doing a bit of fundraising." Claire said, as she stood behind a camera near the center of the room, completely naked, and leisurely stroking her incredibly thick cock as she stared at Sherry. "And so, it was decided that we were going to sell some sexy calendars to make up the money."

As she said this, Claire waived her free hand, motioning around the camera studio that they were in. Though it seemed as though Sherry had been posing inside of some kind of church, that had actually just been the backdrop for the calendar shoot. Around her was a well lit studio with many female TerraSave employees bustling around on set, all of whom were either blushing or drooling at the sight of the huge cocks on display in the room.

"Yes, I understand that, but why am I here? I don't even work at TerraSave! Actually, why are you here too?" Now, Sherry looked towards the other person standing next to Claire.

"Well, it's a very sexy calendar." Ada Wong purred as she eyed Sherry up and down. She, much like Claire, was standing naked next to the camera as she stroked her incredibly long cock fluidly. "And unfortunately, Claire's a bit too sexy herself, so none of the other employees here could measure up. So, they had to look for some outside help to fill up the calendar."

"Yeah, I already did my shoot." Claire said as she reached onto a table and then held up a large photo print. On this photo was Claire, her huge cock balls deep in what looked like one of the more attractive TerraSave employees Sherry had met today, while two more hungrily suckled at each of Claire's massive tits, a trail of milk running down each of their lips.

"Now we just need a few more like this and we'll be golden."

"I already did mine as well." Ada said as she also walked over to the table and grabbed a photo print.

"Wait, what? You're an internationally wanted spy! You can't be shown in a calendar book!" Sherry said, a confused tone on her voice as she looked at Ada. While she loved both of them more than the world, Sherry was well aware that Ada had quite a bad habit of partaking in illicit activities.

"Yes, thank you for reminding me of my current globally wanted status, I had almost forgotten." Ada said dryly as she flipped the print over and showed Sherry.

On the print was a waist down shot of a woman woman with an insanely long cock and huge ass standing in a traditional Chinese room. On her left and right she was flanked by three women each, all six of them kissing and licking her cock which, despite being flaccid, all of the women had plenty of room to do so thanks to it's absurd length.

"Don't worry your pretty little head, Sherry, my face isn't in any of these.... Though it's not like there's anyone on earth with a cock even close to my length, so I don't know how people could think it's anyone other than me." Ada said with a huff as she increased the speed at which she was jerking herself off in annoyance.

"Yes, yes, we all know you're proud of your pencil dick." Claire jabbed.

"Much better than a glorified chode like yo-..... Oh fuck, I'm almost ready. What about you?" Ada groaned as her testicles started to swell, growing larger by the second.

"Yeah-.... oooooohhhh yes.... me too. Hey, are you done with the pictures for the standard edition?" Claire asked, looking at the camera woman as her balls also began to grow larger.

"Y-Yes ma'am!" The camera woman said, her face beet red as she stared at Claire's incredible cock.

"Wait, what do you mean 'standard' edition? Is there more?" Sherry questioned, confusion on her face. She had just been about to stop her posing, but now everyone seemed to be getting ready to take pictures once again.

"We're having two versions of the calendar, a standard edition and a- oh fuuuuuck.... a deluxe edition." Claire said with a groan as her heavy balls went through a particularly large growth. "Show her." The brunette said and motioned to one of the crew members with her chin.

The crew member that had been signaled quickly rushed over to the table and grabbed two prints before presenting them to Sherry with a blush.

"The deluxe edition is going to have alternate versions of the standard pictures that are a bit more..... oooooohhhhh.... lewd." Ada said with a soft coo as her balls continued to grow further, filling themselves with copious amounts of semen.

As Sherry looked at the pictures presented to her, she saw that what Ada was saying was true; these were much lewder variants of the originals.

With Claire's picture, she was in the same position as before, but now the woman she was fucking had a bulging stomach, her pussy overflowing with Claire's thick cum as it flowed out around the brunette's thick cock. Meanwhile, the two girls that had previously been suckling on Claire's huge breasts, were now further back with their mouths open as Claire squeezed milk out of her own chest, squirting it into their mouths.

On the other hand, Ada's picture was much the same, yet different. She was still standing there with her cock on full display, but it was now fully erect, causing it to be much longer than before as Ada held it down with her hand. Meanwhile, the women that had previously been kissing and licking her cock, were now reversed, their asses instead on full display as copious amounts of Ada's cum escaped from their well fucked holes.

"Ah.... I, uh, I see...." Sherry mumbled, entranced by how sexy the pictures on display were. She could feel her cock getting even harder than before and her nipples stiffen in excitement. "So..... What is mine gonna be? And, uh, I probably should've asked this before but why have you guys been jerking off this whole time?" Sherry asked as she watched in fascination as their balls became fatter and fatter.

"Well honey, we thought it'd be nice to have you covered from head to toe in.... milk, for your picture." Sherry knew exactly what the euphemism they were planning to cover her in actually was, and felt a shiver run through her body in excitement.

Both women then walked over to her before standing in front of Sherry, their cocks and balls both throbbing as they prepared for release.

"Alright my little girl, hold still now. If we can get this in one take, Claire and I will- oh yes.... use you for a nice little spitroast later, ok?" Ada said, as she increased the speed of her hand.

"Yes, Ma'am! I'll do my best!"

"Good girl." Claire continued. "Alright, you ready?"

"Yyeah.... Let's do it."

With that, both of them began stroking their dicks with renewed speed, as they looked down at Sherry hungrily. Sherry herself could only feel her pussy get more wet and her cock throb even harder as she prepared herself for the coming wave of seed.

"Oh fuck, oh fuck, ughhhh!"

"Oooooohhhhhhh, yesssss!"

As both women cried out in pleasure, they finally stopped stroking their cocks and instead gripped their shaft, aiming their members directly at Sherry.

“CUMMING!”

With that, Sherry closed her eyes and immediately after felt a surge of warm, thick seed splatter directly onto her face. Then another, and another.

Sherry felt her body become systematically painted with rich spunk as an orgasm rocked through her own body. First, there were the shots on her face, then a few more on her tits, then her stomach, her legs, her cock.

The blonde could tell by the amount hitting her with each wave that simply one shot of the potent semen would've been enough to cover her, but this was just too sexy to stop at one.

Finally, after nearly five minutes, Sherry felt the shots begin to taper off, getting weaker and weaker until they finally ceased entirely. Opening her right eye, which had thankfully not been covered, she looked to see Claire panting, her fully erect penis twitching violently in her hand.

Smiling, Sherry moved to open her cum covered mouth and began speaking, but she immediately stopped as she had noticed something.

Ada Wong hadn't cum yet.

'Oh god, how could I forget?' Ada had a particularly unique way of orgasming. According to the woman herself, it was more like two orgasms happening one after another. The first never actually released any seed from her body, but began a process of filling her testicles with seed at an incredible rate, even faster than when she would build up to her orgasm. As Ada had explained to Sherry, this was an intensely pleasurable process, but if she didn't concentrate it would end almost immediately.

However, if Ada used intense focus and "edged" herself, not allowing herself to be overcome by the pleasure, Ada's balls would keep filling for as long as she could resist. Then afterwards, whether Ada decides to stop consciously or simply couldn't resist the pleasure anymore, all of that built up spunk would be released out of her cock in a rather impressive fashion.

'Oh god, if she started when Claire came.... she's been building it up for nearly 5 minutes?! She's never done it that long before!'

However, despite how unprecedented it was, the proof was right there as Ada stood with her eyes closed, sweat pouring down her face as she maintained an intense mask of concentration. Even more proof was her testicles, now at a truly impossible size and still growing, easily dwarfing both Sherry's and Claire's own.

Even Claire had a look of shock on her face when she had come down from her orgasmic high and noticed Ada still hadn't ejaculated.

However, Ada's composure quickly ended as her eyes slammed open. For an instant, Sherry met her eyes and saw a look of pure lust like never before, but that was quickly replaced by a loud groan.

“HERE IT GOES!”

With that announcement, Sherry closed her eyes just in time as a monstrous load was deposited directly into her face. This single shot was more voluminous than all the previous that Claire had dumped on her face combined. It was then quickly followed up with another that somehow felt even larger.

This continued for more than five minutes as Ada painted Sherry's body with an excessive amount of cum, each shot seeming even larger than the previous.

Finally, the massive orgasm seemed to stop as Ada let out an exhale, but no sooner after was there a lewd sloshing sound as Ada's massive balls contracted once again. This time however, instead of multiple loads of cum being released from Ada's member, her cum seemed to flow out in a near constant stream.

While there was much less volume than before, there was now no downtime in between her semen being released, as Ada's cum began flowing out of her cock as if it was a garden hose.

Orgasm after orgasm rocked through Sherry's body at the feeling of Ada's constant stream of spunk meeting her body. Ada aimed her cock so that truly any patch of exposed skin was being covered, and even shifted around slightly to cover Sherry's back and ass.

Finally after nearly ten more minutes of this, Sherry felt the stream die down, as if someone was slowly turning the knob down on a faucet.

However, just as the orgasm finally seemed to end and Sherry began to relax, Ada groaned one final time and released a load larger than any previous directly onto Sherry's already covered chest, making a pool of cock juice begin to form between her breasts.

With that, Ada fell backwards onto her large ass, panting heavily as her balls slowly shrank back to their usual size. Looking up at Claire, Ada gave a tired smile.

"L-looks like I win this time....." Ada said weakly.

Claire simply stared at the other woman in shock for nearly ten seconds before responding.

"Holy shit. I'm.... not even going to argue on that one...."

"Good, because I don't think I'll be able to pull something like that off again for a while." Ada said with a weak look of satisfaction.

"Yeah, yeah, don't let it get to your head, you've still got a pencil dick." Claire said with a friendly smirk as she helped up her rival. "Alright, what are you all waiting for? Let's get those pictures! And when you're done a few of you sluts better come over here and lick up all this cum off Sherry."

With that, Ada and Claire walked back behind the camera and began putting on a pair of robes offered to them.

Sherry meanwhile, simply remained posed, covered in a crazy amount of both girl's semen, and recovering from her multiple orgasms she had during that experience. She was currently being photographed and gawked at by nearly every woman in the room, yet despite all of this, one thought reigned clear in her mind.

'Holy shit.... Next time I have to get her to do that inside of me!'
