Verse 1

	G		G
She used to work in a diner, never saw a woman look finer
	G		C
I used to order just to watch her float across the floor
	G (sus4)		(sus4)
She grew up in a small town, never put her roots down
	G
Daddy always kept moving, so she did too.

Chorus

	C	G		C	G
Somewhere on a desert highway she rides a Harley Davidson
	G		C		C	G
Her long blonde hair flying in the wind. She's been running half her life
	C	G		C
The chrome and steel she rides colliding with the very air she breathes...
	G
The air she breathes.
