

The ambiance is gentle birds chirping here and there, and soft wind. There's also two pairs of footsteps on concrete as the two walk.

Man... today's class sure was confusing wasn't it? History is really tough. And I think Aizawa Sensei's got it out for me or something.. he totally keeps calling on me for questions I really don't know, haha!

Ahhhh yeah... I've been trying to study more, but ah.. Bakugou's a pretty scary study partner, you know? He likes to beat the lessons into you-

Distant thunder

Woah! You hear that? We should probably walk a little faster, huh.

footsteps picking up a little

Look at those clouds up ahead! They're pretty scary looking. I don't know if we'll make it back to your place in time.. Woah. They're coming this way pretty fast, aren't they?

Slightly louder thunder rolls in

Uh oh... Heh, I'm guessing you don't have an umbrella on you, right? Didn't know we'd be getting a storm today!

Rain sound fades in, and becomes pretty heavy

Ah! Here comes the rain! Here, grab my hand!

The two of them are running through the rain now. Try and use wet sounding running steps on concrete running continues, and it slows to a stop as the two get into the small shelter from the rain. The rain is heavy.

Ahhh! hahaha! Hang in there, there's a bus shelter up ahead!

Heavy breathing

Whew... Heh. I'd say we made it but it looks like we both got kind of soaked, huh?

Thunder

Woah..

have the thunder continue through him saying woah

Pretty cool, right?

I honestly love thunder storms like these. When I was younger, I used to be terrified of them! Now I find them kinda relaxing. And getting to experience one like this with you is really cool.

Hah... Oh, my hair? ah, yeah... Looks like it couldn't withstand all the heavy rain! Not used to seeing it down like this huh?

Oh? You like it? Haha! You're so cute.

Distant thunder

Ah, you're shivering! Here, come here. Lemme warm you up.

Kiri gently pulls them into him

Does that feel better? I'm not all that warm myself but my body heat might help!

Ahhh... Hopefully the storm passes soon so we can get you back home and into some dry, warm clothes.

Let the rain and distant thunder continue for a couple seconds in silence

Mm.. You know... I've always loved the sound of the rain. It's really comforting. Being with you is also pretty comforting, haha.

I'm uh, I'm sorry if I'm being a bit too touchy, I just feel bad that you're shivering so much!

And it wouldn't be manly of me to let you freeze

Rain and thunder continue, now talk a little softer

You're comfy? Oh good.. I'm glad. I'm.. comfy too.

This is... kinda nice... Cuddled up in a bus stop in the middle of a thunder storm.. I I didn't expect today to go like this, honestly... But I'm not complaining or anything! I'm having fun here with you.

Kinda sounds like the rain's getting lighter, doesn't it? And the thunder seems farther away now.

Hm? You okay? Aww, you're still cold? Here, hug me tighter, kay?

Gentle laugh, talk very gently for the next few lines

Hows that? Feel a little better? ... Good. We can keep each other warm, okay?

silence and rain for a little

Mm... I.. I never really noticed how pretty your eyes were. Wow. Haha.. I'm sorry for the random compliment, I just.. like looking at them.

Here, let me brush some of your hair out of your eyes. I want to look at you some more, if that's okay.

Silence for a moment

gentle laugh* .. You're so soaked. I feel bad! I should of brought my umbrella today.*

Let's just keep waiting this out. I think it's almost done.

Heh... You okay? You've been kinda looking at me for a while... Oh! No don't be embarrassed, hey, I don't mind!

You can look at me all you want.

Gentle laugh

As long as... I can look at you too..

He's talking pretty softly now

Hey... Uh... This is.. really out of the blue.. but.. could I.. kiss you?

I might totally be reading the situation wrong but.. the way you're looking at me like this..

I.. I've never even kissed anyone before, honestly.. so..

He slowly leans in, and kisses the listener for a couple seconds, have them kissing for maybe 5-8 seconds, before Kiri makes a little sharp inhale

Ah..! I'm so sorry..! My teeth are kinda sharp huh.. are you alright? Did I cut you?

Oh good, I thought I hurt you! Haha! I'm sorry... Looks like we'll need to get a bit better at this, huh?

The rain is almost completely gone now, super light sounding, and the birds are chirping again

Maybe we could.. try again sometime?

The rain slowly fades out

Hey.. the rain looks like it's stopped. Looks like we can head to your place now!

Huh? Oh, don't worry about me. I know I'm all wet too, but that's not gonna stop me from walking you home, kay? Now come on, take my hand, we're not far now.

The video fades off with two pairs of footsteps walking off
