Chapter Five- Renaissance in the House of Hestia Familia (Mikoto x Bell x Aisha)

Inside of the Hestia Familia's Mansion...

Waking up slowly with a stir and basking in the warm afterglow that came after having a passionate amount of sex the night before, Bell Cranel slowly opened up his eyes to see that he was in bed, naked with the slumbering nude form of the Goddess Hestia resting at his side. She laid right beside him with her arms affectionately cuddling his head and letting his cheeks be smothered by one of her amazingly large and fluffy breasts. Hestia was still snoozing soundly asleep with that angelic smile on hers staying peacefully on her baby-like face, it just said that she was the happiest in the world right. After the events of last night, Hestia couldn't care less about anything other than Bell and would gladly get naked for him again at the drop of a hat. Bell would have otherwise found her sleeping face adorable were it not for the fact that his mouth and nose were largely being smothered by her tits. Hestia was practically hugging him like a Teddy Bear and restricting his ability to breathe when she rolled over onto her side, planting both of them around Bell's face with a wistful sigh escaping her lips.

'Mbbffhhh! *C-can't breathe...! This may have been kinda how I always wanted to wake up one of these days if I ever slept with anyone like Lady Hestia before, but I still need to breathe so that I can enjoy it even more later! Mnnghh! Still, that being said. Oooooopaaaaa!' Bell thought to himself partially in celebration as he tried getting clear only for his nostrils to become free from Hestia's large tits. He was feeling erect already and kinda wanted to have a little bit of 'Morning Delight' right now, but wouldn't act until Hestia was awake and offered him her bed for the rest of the evening.

His mind was too clouded in lust to really remember if he had anything important to do today, but Bell was currently too content resting nakedly with his Goddess to care. That is until he heard her murmur in her sleep with her face right beside his.

"Mmmhmm. Bell-Kun....last night was magical.~" The busty Goddess murmured to herself in slumbering bliss. She rested beside him with her arms tightening her hold around his head. She wound up hugging Bell even tighter while bringing up one of her legs to wrap around his thighs from the side, never letting Bell go as though he was a Teddy bear for her to cuddle with.

His vision became obscured in a sea of light-colored pink flesh, enjoying 'Oppai Heaven' as he liked to call it. Of course, he would start suffocating soon once she decides to smother his nostrils back into her chest again. Bell needed to break off from Hestia's hold, but for right now, he was content where he was and managed to peer up into Hestia's face from between her cleavage. He was seeing her lovely babydoll face snoozing soundly with a smile that said she was utterly content and spiritually satisfied at long last. They had finally made love last night and had gone at it all night long with moans of pleasure constantly filling the air.

Bell recalled how Hestia whimpered for him to never let her go when they'd embrace in a basic missionary position. This brought a tender smile to his face, knowing she loved him more than life itself and wanted to return Hestia's feelings. All of it in the form of lovey-dovey love making despite him doing the same with Aiz, Lady Freya, and Riveria all the time. Still, Bell wouldn't trade his Goddess for anything in the world and held onto her naked body by grabbing hold of her buttocks from the side in a gentle grasp of his fingertips.

Hestia squirmed in response and wriggled adorably into his side, smiling even wider with a warm blush occupying her cheeks.

'Well, I suppose I don't mind staying here a bit longer until she wakes up. Lady Hestia sure smells nice and her skin feels so very smooth to the touch. She makes a very comfortable person to share a bed with post-sex.~' He thought to himself and let his head rest between her melons, enjoying the warmth of her body and the intimacy for a few more minutes until she eventually woke up.

The Oppai Goddess stirred awake with her bright blue eyes fluttering open, greeting Bell with a sleepy smile on her face as she reluctantly pulled her breasts from off of his. She propped herself on her hands and rested on his front, flashing him a bright and chipper morning smile that was brimming with happiness.

"Hee hee, Good Morning, Bell-Kun! Did you sleep well? I know I sure did.~" She greeted and wriggled her titties into his face some more for amusement, enjoying the flustered look on his face as her nipples dangled above his lips as if tempting him to suck on them again. Unfortunately for Bell, Hestia pulled them back and simply straddled his waist, letting Bell's eyes soak all of her nakedness in while the morning sun bathed their naked bodies in bed.

He couldn't feel more in love with her if he tried, from seeing her long dark hair free from their twin-tails to seeing that doll-like face of hers smile happily at him with love in her heart. Bell felt for Hestia what he did for Riveria and Aiz while managing to hold back his lust only just barely. He was ready to embrace her all over again and sat up, placing his hands around her round hips with a smile.

"Good morning to you too, Hestia-Sama. And yes, I did, very much. Did you enjoy last night to--mmbbfff!" Bell was suddenly cut off from speaking when Hestia grabbed him by the back of his head and pulled him onto her lips, she was engaging Bell in a deeply passionate embrace filled with love and with her tits rubbing against his chest!

"Hmmmmm...! Schlup....schlup...schlup...schlup! Bell-Kun!~" Hestia moaned into his mouth, tasting his saliva as she started swallowing his tongue with her lips the moment she pulled it out. She was remarkably a very aggressive lover after having to want to have Bell for so long. It may not have been how she wanted to grab his heart initially, but so far, Hestia wasn't having any complaints apart from not being first. Her tongue eloquently rolled into his mouth, tasting him as he grabbed ahold of her ass from behind and started kissing her back just as fiercely.

"Mhmmhmmh! Hestia-Sama...!" Bell moaned from between their lips, tasting the saliva of his Goddess while they continued making out passionately from within her bed for a few minutes more. Hestia kept her naked groin rubbing up against his dick, feeling it hardened instantly already as it began prodding the smooth surface of her stomach as they went along.

Her breasts swiveled into his pec, her naked yet curvy and petite body intimately rolled up against Bell's frame with her lips swallowing his like there was no tomorrow. They moaned into each other's mouths, energetically swapping spit and breath for minutes on end until they had eventually decided to let go of each other at the same time. Bell pulled back for her lips, breathing excitedly for he was amped up to wanna fuck Hestia all over again. Hestia, meanwhile, simply sat straddling his pelvis. She twirled some of her hair around one of her fingers with a lip-bitten grin on her face, also anxious to indulge her Champion-made-lover in some 'Morning Delight' herself.

"Haaahh...! I love you, Hestia-Sama. Very, very much." He said, breathing raggedly after being taken on a tongue-twisting adventure brought on by Hestia's mouth. Neither Aiz nor even Riveria and Freya could kiss as passionately as she did. This Oppai Goddess had really wanted it bad after waiting for so long to have him.

'Heeeee...! I still can't believe I'm hearing you say that after so long! I love you too, Bell-Kun!" Hestia squealed and simply hugged him with her arms wrapping around his neck, pushing her tits into his face with a motherly smile. 'Even though Riviera-san and Ais Wallen-whatsit got to him first, I still got Bell-Kun all to myself on days like this when we're here alone in our Familia's Headquarters.'

"As much as I want to go at it again, Bell-Kun, and believe me, I really do. All day-long in fact, I'm afraid we still have some work to do today with the Dungeon Raid you're about to have on the sixteenth floor." Hestia informed him with a chipper smile as she got up off of his lap and gestured for him to turn around for her.

"Turn around for me so I can do a check-up on your Falna to see just how ready you are for this raid before you go. You can never be too careful, Bell-Kun, especially now that you've gotten stronger and are heading into deeper parts of the dungeon.~" Hestia requested with a smile and watched Bell lay down on his front, leaving his naked back exposed to Hestia's eyes as she drew up the Falna all Gods and Goddesses place on their Adventurers.

The two of them were still as naked as possible and Bell was honestly feeling a bit of pain when pressing his long, hard, sensitive erection into the mattress's surface while trying not to indulge his inner animal of lust. He really did want to have a second go-around with Hestia, but she was right in saying that he needed to prepare for today's raid before anything else first. Hestia was still giddy with excitement and happiness now that she had Bell as her lover, Calming herself down a bit, she leaned over his backside and straddled his lower back intimately, letting her fingers call up the magical glyph of glowing mystical energy that is Bell's Falna. It appeared once again in its usual silvery prismatic glow, showing the woman his tree branch of skills and experience as well as the peculiar ability known only as 'Liaris Freese'. This time everything seemed normal except Hestia could tell that something was very different when she read newly added scriptures down his back. Her eyes went wide in wonder and she nearly stumbled back onto her butt in shock after she saw that Liaris Freese's ability somehow changed.

'N-no...! His unique skill...e-e-evolved!? How?! Bell-Kun's Falna wasn't like this the last time I looked at it!' Hestia thought to herself in honest surprise when she saw that Bell's unique ability had indeed changed for the better.

She leaned in closely and re-examined all of its attributes just to make sure. The Goddess's eyes became as wide as saucers, her mouth fell open in honest surprise when she read that these new changes in his ability affected every woman Bell had slept with. A blush was creeping on her cheeks as she reached back to touch her own backside, noticing that a similar Falna appeared all over its naked surface. It was similar to Bell's in a way, making her feel a bit of pride yet she was still confused all the same. Looking back at the Falna on the boy's back, Hestia let this new information sink in as she tried to remain calm.

'It's...it's just as it said it would be! I have my own Liaris Freese now, just like Bell-Kun! Granted it is only a tenth of the effect of the original and only really works for Adventurers, but still....for Bell-Kun's skill to evolve this much to allow all of his other lovers to have that bonus in regards to that ability. This is something else new entirely! Does Lady Riveria know about this?~' She screeched mentally to herself in surprise, remaining straddled on Bell's hips while she checked out her backside in a nearby mirror.

"Hestia-Sama? Is everything okay?" Bell asked with concern when looking back at her, seeing that the Goddess was looking at something from over her shoulder with jaw agape in utter surprise. Hestia snapped out of her stupor quickly and looked back to him with a reassuring smile on her nervous-looking face.

"It's n-nothing at all, Bell-Kun. Just a few minor changes here and there. Nothing you need to be concerned about. As far as your Falna goes, everything looks ready with some of your attributes being improved. You're good to go, Bell-Kun.~" Hestia let out after she finished examining the changes made to her champion/lover's backside. She sat back onto his legs with a smile and let the Falna disappear once again when Bell sat up.

Hestia was still confused as to how this 'Evolution' of that mysteriously-placed ability came to be, but so far it looked like it would only help Bell in the long run. Why or how it marked her and possibly the others was still a mystery to her, but that would only mean Bell would either get stronger with more girls he sleeps with or simply make him more passionate in lovemaking. He was already a tiger in the sheets, but having him ravish any of his marked lovers like a beast made Hestia drool with fantastical delight already. She'd still have to ask Riveria about this later on, but for right now, it was time for breakfast.

"Great, Hestia-Sama. Now let's go eat downstairs with the others. Looks at their naked bodies and blushes After we put our clothes back on first.~" Bell chuckled sweetly and got dressed with Hestia, both of them helping each other get dressed before heading out.

After downstairs and sitting themselves at the large banquet table in the center of the dining room, Bell couldn't help feeling nervous when seeing that everyone's eyes were on him in one way or another. Welf was chuckling silently to himself with a sly grin on his face as if he knows something about what Bell and Hestia did the other night. Aisha was sharing that expression and simply kept smugly grinning to herself while she dug into her early morning breakfast salad with an eye on Bell. Mikoto was looking stiff and remaining stoic, she was as silent as ever except with having a reddened blush on her cheeks the entire time. Liliruca simply looked irritated with Hestia and glared daggers at her whenever the Oppai Goddess fed Bell some food from his plate for him like a doting girlfriend. The adorably petite Demi-human fumed with reddened cheeks and a look of frustration written on her face as she watched the two of them in fuming silence.

'Everyone actually heard us last night? W-were we.....too loud even for the walls of this place?!' Bell realized with embarrassment and simply opened up his mouth to accept another spoonful of eggs from Hestia while he sat there with a beet-red face. He was as still as a statue and felt lost in his thoughts the longer he felt everyone's eyes on him, mentally chastising himself for not realizing just how loud they were. 'Hehehehe, oops?'

"Now open up, Bell-Kun. You have to preserve your strength for today since you're going down to the sixteenth floor.~" Hestia beamed as she sat close to Bell, feeding him even more with a fluttery smile on her face. The Goddess was positively radiant with happiness right now and it made Aisha grin slyly while Mikoto looked on with uncertainty written on her eyes.

'Well well, aren't they being adorable as a couple right now? Fu fu fu. I can hardly wait to have my turn with Bell-Kun if that is how I'll look afterward. I mean, even for a Goddess, to make a doting lover out of one like that must speak volumes of his sexual prowess.' Aisha thought to herself, continuing to eat peacefully with a coy smile on her face while occasionally looking over at Mikoto from the side.

The Amazon woman could practically smell the sexual frustration coming off of her and noticed how badly she wanted Bell herself since she was staring at him non-stop.

'Hmmm, a bold approach might be necessary, it may get this horny fence-sitting off her butt and into the action.~' She thought to herself and resumed eating breakfast with the others, enjoying the atmosphere of Bell being fed by Hestia till Liliruca opted to join in and do the same. Welf and herself couldn't stop enjoying the show, though Haruhime was just plain confused as to what came about.

After breakfast ended, Bell and the others prepared and journeyed into the Dungeon tower intending to complete the sixteenth floor. Aisha, of course, came with and kept her eyes on his ass the entire time with a lip-licking grin on her face as she kept close by to Bell. Eventually making their way down to their last checkpoint and warping to one of the middle-level resting spots, Bell and his team started their raid on the sixteenth floor and found that the monsters were considerably tougher than they expected.

Right now they were dealing with two monster Rexes, large dinosaur-like monsters that were nearly as big as a Minotaur and they came with a large horrifying spider as well as a small Earth-Dragon. The last being devastating in its own right despite its relatively small size. Bell and the others were in for a fight alright and it turns out that only his weapons were able to pierce through the armor of the Earth Dragon, leaving him to take care of it alone while the others were occupied by the rest.

In a glimmer of flashing steel, he chipped away at its armor little by little when using a large blade he had borrowed from Welf. Bell kept his Argonaut ability charging up to unleash a deadly Firebolt blast to finish it, but only after it had been stripped of its defense. The Spider, however, was very light on its feet as it kept on hopping from one place to another shooting thick strings of webbing at Aisha and Mikoto. Thankfully, they were light on their feet as well and were able to dodge everything it was shooting, but still, it was difficult to attack it when it was moving so fast.

"Tch! That thing is way too speedy, huh?" Liliruca complained as she kept on firing her mini-crossbow at the pair of Monster Rexes while Welf readied a Magic Sword attack.

"We need to combine our attack and take care of the spider first!" Bell called out while nimbly dodging one of the Earth Dragon's stone pellet barrages. He flipped back and readied his Argonaut while the Earth Dragon followed suit, leading it to nearly crashing into the Spider itself while Bell brought up his right arm and aimed at the two of them.

Welf, Aisha, and Mikoto understood immediately and slashed wildly at the pair of Large Rexes, forcing them back into the other two monsters when Bell unleashed his charged-up attack! He had hoped to get the Earth Dragon even though its armor wasn't fully stripped yet, but he had little time to complain since they were being overwhelmed.

"Now, Bell-Kun!~" Liliruca cried out after they had been bundled together all in one spot.

"Firebolt!" Bell yelled out and unleashed an intense fiery blast of energy at the handful of monsters, resulting in a loud boom of energy and monster parts exploding apart!

Bell landed gracefully on his feet while the smoke from the blast was still going, grinning in post-battle victory as he made his way over to his team. Things were seemingly wrapped up until the smoke started to clear, revealing a very battle-damaged Earth Dragon still shakily standing on its legs with its jaw lighting up for one last-ditch final attack!

"Bell-Kun! Behind you!" Liliruca called out to him, making him turn around in stunned shock as both Mikoto and Aisha rushed over in an attempt to kill the thing before it attacked!

Rooaaarrrrrsss!!

Instead of blasting Bell with the attack, it aimed its maw at the ground beneath their feet where Bell, Aisha, and Mikoto all stood where the stone footing collapsed beneath them! A loud crash of energy meeting rock resulted and the Earth Dragon fell to the side, disintegrating into a crystal when Bell and the two women started falling to the next floor beneath them!

Welf and Lili both attempted to reach out and grab them, but a small landslide of rocks tumbling down in front of them caused them both to pull back! The monster knew what it was doing when it made that final attack. Not only was there a landslide forcing Lili and Welf back, but the ground being destroyed had sent Bell and the other two women into a pitfall!

Bell didn't scream out in panic like he normally would've done, but he held onto both Aisha and Mikoto from the sides just as soon as he reached their waists. Pulling both beautiful warriors against his torso, he prepared to hit the ground hard as he shielded them with his body!

"B-Bell-Kun!~" Mikoto let out in worry and panic while Aisha simply clutched his chest tightly, eventually arriving together at the seventeenth floor!

Blacking out and slowly stirring awake, albeit sore as all Hell, Bell awoke to the blurry sight of Aisha's right hand shaking around smelling salts in front of his face. Her clothing was looking roughed up and tattered in places all over, she knelt next to Mikoto who was in a similar state with both women looking relieved to see him regain consciousness.

"Y-you're awake! I'm so glad, Bell-Kun!~" Mikoto let out as she wiped a tear from her face. Aisha simply knelt and placed a kiss on his right cheek, causing him to blush vehemently as he sat up.

"I am too. You took quite a nasty fall shielding the both of us from harm, you know. Don't make such reckless choices, Bell-Kun. We all care about you so much after all.~" Aisha said warmly and held her arms around his neck with Mikoto doing the same.

"Mmnhhhh! T-this feels so nice...!" He whimpered quietly to himself and felt them both pull themselves off, showing him that they were all the bottom of the cliff. "We must've fallen a bit far, huh? Do you think we're on the next floor perhaps?"

Aisha shook her head.

"No, if I had to guess, I'd say we're simply at the bottom of the chasm underneath the cliff we were just on. Lili and Welf might be on the other side looking for us." Aisha surmised and Mikoto held her chin in thought when she chimed in.

"It is also possible they could be waiting for us at the safety zone just above this floor. I think we should start making our way back up in hopes of meeting them and maybe recovering our wounds before we venture any further." Mikoto added and both Bell and Aisha nodded their heads in agreement.

"Alright then, let's go. I'm not too banged up to fight if it comes down to it. There's bound to be more monsters waiting for us on our way back." Bell said as he dusted himself off and readied some of the Special weaponry he had on him thanks to Freya and Riveria. He took out Gram and readied the Mystical homing Knives just in case.

Aisha and Mikoto both readied their swords and started walking together with him, traveling for hours and fighting all manner of low-rank monsters that kept on crossing their path. Little by little it was all starting to wear on them, making the journey there a battle of attrition with Bell fearing the worst should they succumb to exhaustion and become easy prey for Monsters.

Somewhere along the middle of their journey back to the top, Aisha halted and looked to her right, smiling when she came across a familiar location they could use to truly catch their breath. Bell and Mikoto, looking worn out from all the fighting and the trekking, paused and looked at her with slight confusion.

"Aisha-san? What's wrong?" Bell asked and saw the sultry adventurer twist to her side and point down in the direction of a seemingly narrow passage in the side of the cliff they were on. Her eyes were lit up with excitement and she quickly grabbed both Bell and Mikoto by the wrists to pull them into it out of nowhere.

"Come over here, you two! I've found it! Behold...!" Aisha then uttered a barely audible passcode in the form of an incantation, making the passage magically appear wider and showing the other two a pre-made hideout resting spot complete with a small lodge, a hot tub nearby, and a Safe Zone barrier around the entire area all of that was located in. Bell looked at Mikoto in disbelief at first, sharing her enthusiasm till Aisha pulled them into the zone and out of danger outside.

As soon as they stepped in, the tanned-skin beauty stretched her arms over her head in relaxation, knowing this was the place they could rest up for the time being.

"Ah, that's more like it. I never thought we'd come across it on our way back to the others, but this place certainly came at the right time. This is a Hideout location kept secret within the Ishtar Familia, all Amazons know it by memory yet none have bothered coming down to this floor to use it until now. We're safe here from any monster attacks and we can catch our breath with a good night's sleep in the lodge over there." She explained, pointing to the lodge and opening the door, letting Bell and Mikoto see that it was stocked with beds and supplies.

Food, healing items, even spare changes of temporary clothes are all stocked up within. This made both of them brighten up sharply with greatly relieved looks on their faces.

"That's amazing, Aisha-san! Thank you!!" Bell let out and Mikoto nodded in agreement with him, rushing inside to change out of their clothes and apply some healing ointments to get ready and go to sleep.

Aisha, meanwhile, stood outside with her arms held in her hands, biting down on her bottom lip for she knew now was the time to strike. It was only her and Mikoto alone with Bell, and three of them were confidently given private time in this hideout safe zone without anyone else around to intrude.

"Mmhmm, if he thought he made noise with Hestia, then tonight going to be an even louder night between the two of us, maybe three.~" Aisha said to herself and walked in, ready to change and get into the bath to heal up for tomorrow's continued journey back to the others.

It was nighttime, as far as anyone could tell, and Mikoto fell asleep quite easily after fighting to exhaustion earlier on. That left Bell alone outside by the camping fire, stoking it with a pleasant smile on his face and only his dark long sleeve shirt with pants. His armor and weapons were placed by his bedside and he was simply out here enjoying the peace for a change.

That is until Aisha came sauntering out from the lodge with hips sashaying vivaciously in a side-to-side manner. She was still wearing her scandalous and stylish outfit with knee-high battle sandals and the usual protective garments held over her breasts, but right now she had removed one layer of the top part, leaving her breasts to nearly spill out from behind a skimpy sash of cloth. It left almost nothing to the imagination, she appeared behind Bell with a sultry smile on her face.

"Mind if I sit with you, Bell? I can't sleep right now either.~" She purred and he quickly nodded, letting her hop onto the same spot he was with her body rubbing closely to his. Bell wasn't nervous this time around since Aisha was already forward with him earlier, giving him the idea of what she wants.

'She is beautiful....and I certainly don't think that Hestia-Sama or the others would mind, especially since there are a few women already. But still....is she here to hit on me?' He wondered and felt the woman's elegant yet firm hands place themselves onto his lap, stroking his crotch a little as the color red made its way to his cheeks.

"Bell-Kun, I always wondered.....just how much do you treasure everyone within the Familia? You seem to really love Hestia-Sama now, even going as far as to have sex with her rather loudly the other night. Would you do me the same kindness tonight, Bell-Kun? Now that we're all alone? Or is that asking too much too suddenly?~" She asked with a sultry purr, making him focus his attention on her when her hands were brought up to his face.

"Aisha-san.....I.....treasure everyone, very much. I know the kind of relationship I'm in is kind of unusual, but I wouldn't treat you any less than I do Hestia-Sama. Since we're alone right now....I don't think I'd mind. You are very beautiful, confident, and stunning as both a woman and an Adventurer after all." Bell answered truthfully, making Aisha blush as she became even hotter for the boy than she already was.

"Good to know, come here, Bell-Kun.~" She whispered soothingly and cupped his face into her hands, pulling Bell onto her lips where they started sharing an overly intimate kiss! Aisha closed her eyes and savored the feeling of his mouth kissing her back just as fiercely. Together lips wriggled into each other in an eloquent, romantic embrace while Aisha's tongue slithered down his throat.

"Mmhmm! Schlupp...shlupp...schlup...schlupp..schlup!..mmhmm! Bell-Kun. YOu taste delicious.~" She breathed out between wet kisses and eventually pulled back, leaving Bell looking dazed.

Giggling to herself, she brought her hands up to her top and slipped that flimsy piece of clothing down, revealing her bountiful pair of luscious DD-cup-sized breasts in all their natural glory. From her darkened nipples to their voluptuous round shapes, Aisha's naked chest revealed itself before Bell's eyes, causing him to grow hard with arousal already.

Seeing them made Bell grow incredibly hard with arousal as she attempted to grab onto them both till Aisha quickly stepped back to pull off her other leather garments as well. Down came the waist-cloth piece as well as the combat spats, revealing a thin silken thong underneath which she promptly slid down her legs. She exposed her quivering caramel-tan sex before Bell's starstruck eyes, doing so with pride and leaving her leather knee-high combat boots worn over her feet while he started doing the same. Aisha stood naked in all her voluptuous, exotic beauty with curves any woman would be envious to have. From plump, delicious ass to voluminous pair of thick DD-cup-sized with dark velvet nipples becoming erect already.

Bell's trousers were pitching a rather furious erection until he started shedding most of his remaining clothing in a hurry. He kept his own leather combat boots on, strictly for the enticing allure of his leather boot fetish and for the kink of the act of fucking women while wearing them. Aisha watched with growing wonder as Bell pulled down his boxers and pants, revealing his turgid masterpiece of a schlong sticking out in all its fully erect glory. He was big, bigger than she remembers having, and teeming with life inside. Aisha could just whiff the masculinity and virile energy coming off of Bell Cranel right at this very moment and waited no longer.

"Mmmmm, so.....masculine and perfect. You are just the kind of man I've been waiting for all this time, Bell-Kun. Fu fu fu.~" She said in a purring voice and reached down between his legs to sensually stroke his cock between her smooth fingers like so. Bell winced instantly in pleasure and stayed focused on sitting back and enjoying the foreplay that was to come. All while admiring Aisha right here and now with a blushing smile.

Mikoto was still asleep back in the cottage while this was going on, but she was a light sleeper when not in her Familia household. Thus, she began to stir awake and look around when noticing that neither Bell nor Aisha were in here with her.

"Hmmh? Bell-Dono? Aisha-San?" She wondered sleepily while outside...

Schluuppp!

"Mmhmhmmhh! Schlupp..schlup..schlupp..schlup..schlup..schluppppp!" Mmhmh.~" Aisha moaned loudly as she swallowed the head of Bell's cock past her red lips. She was humming sensually the entire time while keeping her large tits wrapping smoothly around the turgid hilt of his cock from below since she was on her kneecaps in front of him.

"Ahhhh.....! Oooohhh...Aisha-san.....! Ggnhh! That feels so good." Bell breathed out, feeling the slick, slimy orifice of her throat deepening its hold on his dick as she slowly sunk further down his length while keeping her tits fluffing the bottom of his shaft. He could practically taste her tongue swiveling expertly around it like it was a frozen treat, making his balls throb even stronger once she began fucking her own face onto his length with lustful splendor.

'He's so big! So thick..and virile....I...I...can't believe I didn't tie Bell-Kun to my bed and have my way with him sooner!' Aisha said to herself in thought as she hungrily slathered her tongue all over his light-skinned meat, letting it push into the back of her throat as she started sucking him off as part of the warm-up.

Schlup...schlupp...schlupp...schlupp...schlupp...schlupp...schlupp!

"Mmmhmhhh!~" Aisha moaned loudly from between Bell's waist while she was sucking and stroking his cock with ever-rising gusto, making it throb powerfully from within her throat. She loved the taste of it, the feel of its thickness inside her throat. She kept both her lips and her pendulous breasts working the boy's cock like clockwork for the past five minutes till she had her first taste of his precum leaking out of it!

Gulp!

Aisha internally squealed with gleeful delight as she tasted a 'Sample' of Bell's sperm on her tongue. Her tongue swiveled salaciously around the bulbous head of his length as she slowly picked herself up from his lap with a lustful smile staring at him in the first with her tongue hanging out.

"Ah...you're ready, Bell-Kun. I don't think you've had a woman quite like me yet, but even if you had, I provide a rare flow of exoticity that only an Amazon can provide. Don't be shy of pouring it all inside of me, I want to feel your cum filling up my entire belly.~" She said in a sultry manner as she ran her hands down her flat stomach before promptly turning around.

"Gnggh....! Anything for you, Aisha-san. Hehe...you're so...vexing and beautiful I don't think I'd put it anywhere else anyway." He admitted, having enjoyed creampie Hestia repeatedly just last night. In fact, Bell had rarely ever unloaded outside of any of his lovers now that he thought about it, he'd worry if he got anybody pregnant if it weren't for Aisha's plump brown ass staring him in the face.

Squelch!

"Aaaahhhhh.....! Oohhh...yess! Uuughhh.....! I've n-never felt so full before in my life...!" Aisha let out, blushing intensely as she felt Bell's massive cock dig into her pussy full-stop until he pushed past her cervix and entered her womb entirely from below. He had grabbed onto her bodacious pair of hips, keeping her seated on his lap with length pushing into the wall of her womb completely.

"Mnghhh! S-so smooth and...slippery, it feels amazing being inside of you, Aisha-san.~" Bell breathed out with a confident grin on his face. He felt his hands begin grabbed by Aisha and brought up to her tits to allow him full access for fondling her while she started riding him in reverse. Without any further provocation, he started groping and squeezing the Amazon babe's melons with energy. From squeezing his fingers into her mounds to occasionally tweaking her dark velvet nipples while she started bouncing up and down on his dick.

Slapping noises of flesh slapping flesh soon came out with Aisha's plump and perfect ass now aggressively tapping against this waist as she felt Bell's cock thundering into her sensitive core from below. Her face was an exaggeration of euphoria that stayed that way the longer this went on, making it quite a show of 'Temptation' for one pair of Japanese blue eyes staring at them from nearby.

"Uuaaaghhhh!! Yesss!! Oohhh...yesss! Bell-Kun! Your dick feels absolutely amazing inside of me right now! Oaaaaghh!~" She cried out, making her body twerk and hop on his lap a little more rapidly as they went along. Bell kept squeezing her tits while eagerly stimulating her erogenous areas around her breasts, furthering Aisha's threshold of pleasure while sit fucking right there on the tree log.

Up and down her voluptuous brown body bounced and swayed into his hips, leaving her tits to jostle continuously between his hands while squeezing her ass into his waist as she felt Bell drilling her. He grunted hotly with warm breath leaving his mouth, caressing Aisha's naked brown shoulders till he closed the distance between her backside and his masculine chest. Mikoto Yamato stood unseen from the side of the cottage, watching with sparkling wonder as she saw Bell at work once again. This time he was bottoming out of their Familia teammate, making the supposedly experienced Ex-Prostitute howl in euphoria minutes into their copulating.

Mikoto clutched the side of the wall of the cottage she was hiding behind, her eyes focused on how large Bell's dick was as it repeatedly pushed into Aisha's quivering sex non-stop. He was like an animal, a beast with a heart of a predator and it made the Samurai Adventurer's insides tremble with growing need. She wanted to be a part of Bell's circle too but was entirely unsure of officially becoming one of his ladies to fuck and fondle at his leisure.

"B-Bell-Dono.....unngghh!~" Mikoto whimpered quietly to herself as she watched them pick up the pace with Bell standing right-up and carrying Aisha's thighs within his hands as he continued fucking her voraciously without pause. The Amazon adventure howled in ecstasy when she felt the bulbous head of his cock meeting her G-spot from deep inside of her babymaker once Bell started pounding her for dear life.

She held onto the back of his head for support while continuing to bounce from his grasp, happily enjoying amazing sex at the hands of this young and dashing adventurer.

"Aaaaghhhh! Aahh..ahh...ah...ahh..ahh...ahh..ahh..ahh..ahhhhhh!! Bell-Kuuuuunnn...! I'm...cumming! Be sure to send everything inside of me when you're ready to blow! I want to feel it all!~" Aisha cried out, feeling her pussy quiver and clench around Bell's cock repeatedly as she came not long after he bucked into her pussy a few more times from behind. 'I'm starting to see why Lady Hestia was screaming her head off the other night! I really see it now! Bell-Kun is amazing!~'

"Uuh..uuh..uhh..uuh..uuh..uhh/...uh..ughhh! You got it, Aisha-san! Uunghh! here it comes!" Bell cried out and felt Aisha's body quiver salaciously as she came! Mikoto watched the amazon's toes wriggle and witch from within the open-ends of her leather boots and saw the bulges of sperm coming up Bell's dick and coming out from within Aisha's womb!

Aisha made a wildly exaggerate face of pure pleasure, she had her tongue spilling out and her eyes drifting north of her sockets as she elt the deluge of Bell's sperm flooding into her sex while she was busy gushing all over his groin! Mikoto watched the brown-skinned woman squirt constantly while writhing in euphoria, making her exceedingly envious and brave the decision to go over and offer to join in as well. She didn't care anymore, at least not right now, all she wanted was to have Bell make love to her just as he had done with Aisha and Lady Hestia.

"Oooohhhhhh....! Yess! You...might've gotten me pregnant by packing that much sperm into my body, Bell-Kun. Hehehehe.~" She giggled deliriously, making Bell grin nervously as he continued holding her up in his hands till they both saw Mikoto appear nearby in her casual short-trimmed kimono and thigh-high boots.

"Ack! Mikoto-san! Wha---" Bell burst out while keeping Aisha held in his arms, unaware that the Amazon was smiling sly in Mikotos' direction. The lovely Samurai was blushing heatedly as she pointed at Bell with a determined yet very flustered look on her face as though she was embarrassed to demand something of him.

"Bell-Dono.....I want to join in this....adventurer you and Aisha-san are having together right now. I will not take no for an answer, but please understand.....that...I am very much in need after watching you right now." Mikoto pointed, showing that her legs were quivering intensely from within her thigh-high red boots. Aisha saw a trickle of moisture coming from the more naked part of her legs, giving her a reason to smirk as she gestured for Bell to let her down.

Spotch!

With a plop of moisture, she hopped off his massive dick, amazed to find him still erect even after cumming a nearly a gallon-sized load inside of her a moment ago. Bell was watching Mikoto keep her flustered look going till he saw Aisha place herself by her side with one of her hands reaching up to her breasts. With a swift motion, Aisha grabbed onto one of Mikoto's breasts through her kimono robe, causing her to squeal loudly in response.

"Kyaaahh!~ Mngghh!!" She squealed loudly, which made her look cute in Bell's eyes. Mikoto was always such a serious, duty-bound, loyal warrior that Bell never expected to see such a soft and cuddly side of her. Nor did he expect her to be so adorable when she demanded to be part of the action. He always found her ferocity and composure rather engaging, Mikoto herself was beautiful and honestly on par with Ais herself in the fearsome swordswoman category.

"Lookie here, Bell-Kun. She's all nice and ready for you. Mikoto has probably been watching us for some time, just see how sensitive her tits are right now." Aisha said, squeezing one of her tits strongly, making Mikoto yelp loudly as she focused her eyes on Bell's amazingly turgid cock still standing firm. "It's also not the first time she's played a voyeur, you know. We watched you railing this beautiful armored woman down on one of the upper dungeon floors some time ago."

When she revealed this, Bell flinched in a slight panic, but Aisha went on with a casual flirtatious smile.

"It turned us both on so very much that we decided to ravish each other for the time being until it came time to seduce you on our own. This unforeseen incident where we plummeted to the chasm and wound up here happened to be the perfect time to do it. Mikoto would be too shy to ask you to fuck at home. So what do you say, Bell-Kun? Feeling like giving this little dragon something to smile about on our way back?" Aisha purred, licking her tongue across her lips as she watched Bells's cock start twitching angrily with want.

She took that as a yes and saw the confident smile come back to his face as he walked over to join the woman fondling Mikoto Yamato with his hands. his right one went to the other breast, making Mikoto whimper loudly as she began breathing faster in response to his magical touch.

"P-please, Bell-Dono! Pleasure me. I...need it!" She breathed out, huffing strongly till he closed the gap between their lips, embracing Mikoto fully with a deeply passionate kiss that made her relax. "Mmmhmm. Mmhm. Bell-Dono Schlupp...schlupp...schlupp...schlup!

"I'll take that as a yes then, fu fu fu.~" Aisha thought to herself as she watched Bell slowly pull back his tongue from the inside of Mikoto's mouth, leaving the katana-wielding Adventurer blushing like a pure maiden. Mikoto looked back into the ruby-red eyes of Bell and felt her heart stammering quite a bit, especially when he smiled back at her while gently cradling her face.

"Let's go inside where it's comfortable. Keep your leather boots on though, Mikoto-san. Everything else can go.~" Bell said with a smile. and the two ladies could only gush excitedly for they now about to finally have the real thing at long last.

"Yes, Bell-Dono.~"

Heading back inside and bringing their discarded clothes with them, Mikoto quickly stripped herself of everything she was wearing except for her red thigh-high boots kept worn over her long voluptuous legs. She stood naked in all of her smooth-bodied glory, showing Bell her shimmering skin and her ample set of C-cup-sized breasts that remained as perky as they were firm. Mikoto let her hair down as well, making her ornate beauty intensify completely as she got onto the bed with Aisha and Bell together. She was ready to enjoy his body the same way Lady Hestia and Aisha had recently done, remaining nervous the whole way till she heard Bell tell her to lie on her backside.

Doing as she was told, Mikoto lies back with legs spread wide apart, allowing Bell to grab one of her legs and whiff her right foot clad in a thigh-high leather boot, and whiff it with a shiver of intoxication. This perplexed Mikoto a bit, mainly because she never expected Bell to have such a unique fetish outside of basically plowing someone raw whenever in danger. Watching him sniff her leather-clad heel and kissing down her ankle, he looked at her with a dazzling look of confidence before grabbing the thick of his cock and guiding it over to her fuzzy sex. Mikoto's pussy was glistening like crazy with arousal and had barely a tuft of dark flaxen pubic hair above her mound, furthering Bell's excitement as Aisha knelt close to his side with breast pushing gently into his face.

She looked at his cock and swallowed nervously as she felt the bulbous head of it push into her folds gently, spreading them out as he slowly sunk himself into her like so.

Squelch!

"Gngnhhh!!! Aaaaaahhhhhh! Bell-Dono! Bell-donooooo! Uuuuhhhh!~" Mikoto cried out, feeling her pussy spreading out to wrap tightly around Bell's dick the further he sunk the head into her pussy. She could feel her insides stretching out in ways it hasn't before, making it an utterly sensational experience that Mikoto could barely stand since she was a maiden in all but name. She had been a warrior for as long as she can remember, training her body in a variety of ways including flexibility to give her legs faster movement.

Although she had never laid with another person before, Mikoto had no hymen to speak, yet felt like a pure maiden getting deflowered by Bell's utterly massive cock. It was long, a small forearm pushing into her wetness, making her toes curl up from within her boots as he pushed himself to the hilt and took her in an upright mission style position.

She clenched her teeth and struggled to stay calm, breathing coarsely with her breasts heaving wildly as a result. Her tits jostled about while she adjusted to the sensation, making it a show for Bell to enjoy till he was fed one of Aisha's tits after swallowing a nipple into his mouth.

Chup!

"Mmhmhmmmm! Aisha-san Schlupp..schlupp..schlupp...schlup..schlupp..schlup!*" He hummed into her chest, making the full-bodied amazon beauty croon loudly in response to his actions. Aisha tilted her head back and held onto Bell's head from the side, letting feed off her tit while beginning to bottom out of Mikoto's sex with firm thrusts of his pelvis!

'S-s-so much...girth! He's even filling out the inside of my womb! Ooohhhh Bell-Dono! It's nearly too much for me to handle, b-but...I want you to dominate me as you have done with Aisha and Lady Hestia!~' Mikoto thought to herself, enjoying the mind-numbing feeling of Bell's cock now churning her insides once he began bucking into her frame. His hips slowly drew back and pushed back into her pelvis, consistently slapping her skin and making her body quiver with every push he made.

Soon his pace became rapid-fire and he began really fucking Mikoto's tight pussy to the point she was lightly gushing all over his waist. Bell felt the difference between Mikoto and Aisha, albeit only slightly since both were adequately tight women. Mikoto's insides felt considerably tighter and more responsive, her womanhood was clutching Bell's length in desperation while he began hammering into her from above.

"Aaaaaahhhhh!! Bell-Dono! Uuaaaaahhhh! Uuh..uuh..uh...uuh..uuh..uuh..uh..aaaaahhh!~" She cried out, arching her back upward to allow her tits to jiggle even more noticeably as their rutting went underway. Bell moaned within Aisha's large tits, enjoying how full and how supple her nipple felt inside of his mouth while he busied his other hand with groping her other one. His left would be fondling one of Aisha's tits while his right kept Mikoto's leg held in the air.

He was pleasing both women at the same time and channeling his inner lust for both as best as he could. Just like how he had done both Ais and Riveria alongside Freya, Bell became increasingly adept at ravishing multiple women at the same time.

"Uuunghhh! Aaagghhhh! Mmngghhhh! That's it, Bell-Kun! Suckle on my tits as much as you want!~ They're all yours anytime you ask!~" Aisha cried out, tossing back her head and feeling Bell's lips intricately squeeze her highly sensitive areola into his mouth like he had done it many times before. "He's incredible, utterly incredible! I think I may want to monopolize his time away from Lady Hestia and the other women who are in his life! Oooohhh...where has he been all my life?"

Bell groaned into her chest some more, keeping his lips hungrily sucking on her nipple while pumping into Mikoto's waist. He opened up his eyes and looked down at the beautiful Samurai girl beneath him, seeing how she writhes and moans constantly to every hard push of his cock thrusting into her sex. From seeing the bulbous impression underneath the surface of her belly to feeling her slimy insides squeezing his dick tight, Bell channeled more of his energy into his thrusting movements for the next fifteen or so minutes.

"Mmh..mhh..mhmm...mhmm...mhmm..mhmm..mhmm..mmgbnh! Pop! Aahh...Mikoto-San! It feels like you're squeezing the life out of me right now!~" Bell cried out, grinning confidently as he kept on bucking his length all the way into the back of Mikoto's womb. From hearing the raucous slaps of flesh constantly come out from between their bodies to feeling her insides squeezing together every passing minute.

"Uuuhhh...! Aaahhhh! B-Bell-Dono! Keep on going hard! Don't hold back on me at all! I...I want to feel everything coming inside!~" Mikoto cried out, making a delirious smile appear on her face as she continued to feel Bell bucking raucously into her sex for minutes on end without pause.

He would watch her moan and huff loudly in constant euphoria, then switch back to hungrily tonguing out Aisha's mouth while squeezing her tits from the side. Together all three parties filled the air with the smell and sounds of sex with Bell eventually tuning Mikoto into putty by triggering her very first orgasm of the night!

"Uuuh..uuu..uuuh..uuh..uuh..uuh..uuagghhhh! Here I come, Bell-Dono! C-come inside of me....aaahhhh!~" Mikoto cried out and shuddered, feeling her pussy clench tightly around his length while soaking up his groin with intense gushes of vaginal nectar.

Bell winced as he felt the girl's womanhood clenching tightly around his cock, causing him to succumb to his own orgasm just as how he had done with Aisha earlier. He threw his pelvis into her waist seven more times before sheathing every inch of his dick into her womb and firing off a thick deluge of cum inside of Mikoto!

Splurt...splurt...splurt..splurt..splurt...splurt...splurt...splurt..splurt!

Thick streams of thick, potent cum flooded into Mikoto's depths, filling her up baby-make and making her howl in euphoria with a starstruck smile on her face. Her body twitched and squirmed around wildly in orgasm, making for an enjoyable show for Aisha while Bell emptied a thick amount inside of her for about a minute or so tops.

"Mnnngghhhhhh!! Bell-Dono.....!~" She sighed happily and rode out her orgasm, leaving her spent and oozing his semen till Aisha pulled herself off and crawled over Mikoto's body. The lovely Amazo beauty wriggled her butt in front of Bell while reaching under and spreading open her pussy to let some of his sperm ooze out like Mikoto's.

"The night is til young, Bell-Kun. Got another one or three in you for us? Fu fu fu.~" Aisha offered while letting her pendulous tits rub against Mikoto's from behind. She kept her legs pretzeled with hers, keeping their pussies fully exposed while they saw Bell's erect meat remain twitching excitedly with lust.

"Heh, of course, Aisha-chan.~" He said, smiling happily at the both of them, making Mikoto's heart flutter as she held onto Aisha's waist from below. They were both prepared to feel very sore in the morning, tonight was their night to do whatever they wanted.

"Bell-Dono.~" Mikoto sighed wistfully as he went over to them and took them in a myriad of positions the entire night until they passed out.

Morning came and with it a fresh start with the three of them having been fully healed, rested, and ready to rejoin the others on the eighteenth floor of the dungeon. Bell woke up in the middle of the bed with Aisha and Mikoto both drenched in sweat, the stench of sex, and oozing sperm from their gaping holes after they had gone at it the entire night.

Once they all woke up and re-equipped their gear for any further battles on the way there, the three of them walked out of the haven with blushes seen on both Mikoto's and Aisha's faces. For a little while, neither of them said anything till Aisha grabbed hold of one of Bell's hands, looking at him with a sultry smile while Mikoto remained bashful and reserved.

"Bell-Kun, I think will join your little menagerie of Bell-hungry lovers. Lady Hestia did it, did she not? I know you have more than one woman to please sexually, but I don't mind at all if I'm part of that inner circle. I believe I did offer my thoughts on it before, but now I'm fully convinced I want to share your bed with you, or vice-versa.~" Aisha declared, making Bell blush as she chuckled nervously while rubbing the back of his neck and looked at Mikoto for her answer now.

"I...um...I would like some more time to think about making that decision, Bell-Dono. It is not so easy for me to agree to something like that. I just...need a little bit of time is all, if that's okay with you." Mikoto admitted, seeing Bell nod his head with a look of understanding on his face.

"Of course, Mikoto-San. Whenever you're ready, I won't pressure you or rush you at all. Give it some...serious thought.~" He said, making her smile appreciatively as they made their way up to the eighteenth floor in just a couple of hours.

Though Mikoto had sat on the fence on whether or not on Bell's harem, she didn't hold back her need to clutch one of his hands in rising affection. Aisha did something, but she didn't hold onto his hand at all. She actually kept hers firmly on his butt and kept squeezing Bell all the way there to the rendezvous point.

Somewhere...in another world, far, far away from Orario's...

Standing over her fallen opponent known as the 'Red-Eyed Killer', a beautiful full-bodied woman with long blue hair clutched her cutlass tightly with a tired look of frustration on her face. She'd normally be proud of her hard-fought victory against such a deadly opponent, but even though she had been pushed to the edge and fought against the cursed blade she wielded, it was still a close call. That was saying something since she was one of the most feared women in all the known world, or rather, one of the most feared humans in the world. She turned her ice-cold blue eyes back on the surrounding mass of Revolutionary soldiers that Akame had led into battle with her own Imperial forces and smiled sadistically as she readied her blade.

"Well, that awful assassin is down forever, now onto the other thousands of weakling soldiers. Then, the Revolution will end right here, no one will be left to challenge the Empire." She said, licking her lips sadistically as she prepared to cleave through the thousands of outmatched Soldiers to paint her outfit red with blood.

But, just then...

A circle of mystical glowing golden energy, complete with a variety of strange Archaic symbols of magic, appeared directly beneath her feet! It bound the woman in her place, keeping her from moving on with her onslaught and making her look in the direction of the supposed leader of the Night Raid group of Assassins; Najenda. The eyepatch-wearing woman held out what looked to be the Teigu weapon known as 'Shambala' but vastly different in its design. The strange energy emanating from it sent chills down the woman's spine as she eyed her former subordinate with eyes full of murder.

"You!! What have you done!? You really think this can hold me, Najenda?!" She screamed out, trying to force her way through the binding magic of the spellbinding circle of the Teigu, but finding it impossible for her to do so. 'N-no way! It is binding even me in place!'

"Esdeath." The woman named Najenda called out to her with a grimace of pure hate and resolve as she clutched Teigu tighter, preparing to use its full power to banish her from this world forever, hopefully with much of her strength sapped in the process. "You're leaving this world forever. The corrupt Empire you serve will be demolished and there will be nothing you can do about it. I honestly hope you find yourself in a world where your strength doesn't matter in the slightest so that you'll know how it feels to be weak, you deranged monster."

Esdeath, as was the blue-haired woman's name, seethed angrily and lunged out from within the circle with her right arm attempting to burst through the spellbinding field! She had managed to stick out behind the barrier, surprising and horrifying Najenda till she triggered the full power of the Teigu she was wielding and prepared to send her away.

'Gghh!! it's happening! I can feel myself being taken away from this world already thanks to that accursed Teigu.' Esdeath thought to herself in outrage, feeling livid at the thought of being defeated by her former subordinate as she tried clawing her way out. "Najendaaaaaaaaa!!!"

In a flash of light, a manifold mystical space/time energy enclosed around the spellbinding circle, removing Esdeath from the world forever and leaving her severed right arm right there on the ground after she had been taken away! Najenda let out a deep and heavy sigh before crumbling to her knees in defeat despite this bloody battle ending in their victory.

"Whenever you end up, Esdeath, I hope you'll finally learn what it is like to be human, that is if there is even any humanity left in you at all. But for now, it's goodbye and good riddance. We're taking back our Kingdom and making it a better place from now on, and it'll be thanks to you no longer being in this world." Najenda said to herself with a soft smile as the revolutionary army around her started cheering loudly in victory.

Where Esdeath ended up...

In a streak of lightning and green and gold energy, the woman known as Esdeath had reappeared on the ground in a world not her own. She was on her knees, clutching her side where her right arm once was, feeling it bleeding out as she found herself in a place she did not recognize at all. It was in a world of Gods, Goddesses, Adventurers, and monsters whose strength dwarfed even her own.

Looking up and out into the distance with a defeated look on her ace. Esdeath found herself in the Kingdom of Rakia, wondering where to go and what to do with herself now.
